POCKET STRIKE ON ALTHOUSE

One Hundred Dollars Taken Out in One Day—Considerable Excitement

GRANT'S PASS, June 20.—News reached this city this morning on a remarkable strike made on Bolland creek, a tributary of Sucker creek, in the Althouse district, some thirty miles by road south of Grant's Pass. The pocket was found by Charles Casad, a prospector, who was grubstaked by George Calhoun, of this city. In one day's time over $100 was removed from the pocket, the rich dirt yielding over $10 to the pan. Everett Holman, a noted Southern Oregon prospector, left this morning with provisions and equipment to aid the lucky man. The strike is only a short distance from the new mining town of Holland, which lies between Sucker creek and the Gray Back ridge of mountains. Everywhere about are situated the placer and quartz mines of the Althouse district. Along Althouse creek the stones and huge boulders are piled in confusion, a permanent and lasting reminder of the days of the early hydraulic mines. It looks like a "worked-out" country in many respects, yet it is far from being such. Only the men who operated those early mines are worked out. The glittering gold that for years fed the placers along the lower waters of Althouse still lies hidden in the mountain side above. It is one of these "feeders" that Charles Casad has found, and beyond any doubt will yield many thousand dollars, as only a small portion of it had been removed when he sent to Grant's Pass for aid.

George Steward and partner, two Grant's Pass mining men, own a claim on the opposite side of the gulch from the new find, from which they removed much gold last season. They have sent men in again, on hearing of the late strike, and will work the ground thoroughly. For some unknown reason these grounds have been overlooked or passed by, and are comparatively unworked. Everywhere about are to be found mines of long standing, but in the immediate vicinity of the lately discovered pocket is much ground that is yet to be pried into by the prospector's pick. For this reason there is a general rush into Sucker creek and Althouse districts by miners and prospectors. In the meantime there is an expectancy of continued good news and rich fields from the invaded region.

Convention Was Harmonious.

CLEVELAND, O., June 20.—Contrary to general expectation, harmony prevailed at the republican county convention today. Senator Hanna occupied a seat on the platform, and made a strong speech in favor of peace between the two factions of the party. "Seldom has there been any campaign," he said, "of such importance as last year, bearing on questions of such moment, and this year it is the same. It will have great bearing on the president's work, and we should uphold him. This is the year we elect a legislature to choose a successor to my distinguished colleague, Senator Foraker, and we should be united in the demand that he be sent back. No argument is so strong as an object lesson. The republican party promised the country that if McKinley was elected on the St. Louis platform all promises of prosperity would be fulfilled. They were fulfilled. The renewed confidence of the people came with the fulfillment. Let us give notice to the opposition in Ohio and in the United States that the republican ranks are filling up and preparing for the battle of 1904. Let this be the notice to the state and the United States."

SWORN TO EVIL DEED

Why the Two Shreveport Negroes Were Lynched—Men Were Accomplices in Murder of J. G. Foster.

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—The lynching of the two negroes last night near Shreveport created a sensation today, as with the excitement dying out, it was their lives would be spared, at least until the capture of Prince Edwards, who killed J. G. Foster, on the Foster plantation. A special from Shreveport, however, says that evidence was discovered so clearly establishing the guilt of Smith and McLand as enemies to the whites and dangerous elements to be left at among the negroes that the people of Bossier regarded their execution as essential to the preservation of order in the parish. The evidence obtained by the police showed the following facts: The organization of which "Prophet" Smith was the head had its origin in Houston, and was known as the "Church of the Living God." The members of the supreme council as indicated by regularly printed letterheads, which were found, were Smith and McLand, who were lynched, and Prince Edwards, the murderer of John Gray Foster. Smith, when he came to Louisiana, established himself at Shreveport, but was ordered away by the chief of police as a dangerous character. After the shooting of Foster a search of Smith's premises was instituted and the "ark of the covenant," a rudely constructed box with "hoo-doo" designs on and within it, was found. When it was touched by the searchers the negroes were terrified and declared that but one had advanced far enough to lay hands on the sacred box. The members of the church were known as princes, and held regular meetings at which Smith presided with the designation of "king." Before he was lynched last night Smith confessed that he had loaded the gun with which Foster was killed. Many letters of an incendiary character written by Smith and his followers have been found. The discovery of these evidences of conspiracy led to last night's lynching. Sheriff Thompson, of Bossier, made no attempt to interfere with the superior numbers of the mob.

Preparing to Receive Mr. Kruger.

NEW YORK, June 20.—According to a Times special from Washington, the Boer sympathizers in the United States are making preparations for a visit by Mr. Kruger to this country in the Autumn, which was announced some time ago by Montagu White, the Transvaal representative in Washington. C. W. van der Hoogt, an active Boer sympathizer of Washington, who has just returned there from New York, says a conference of leading pro Boers was held Saturday, Sunday and Monday, and that the chairman of the reception committee was chosen. He will be Consul-General Pierce, of the Orange Free State, whose office is in New York.

Mr. van der Hoogt says the Boers' agents in this country are in possession of complete information, both by telegraph and mail, about the progress of the war, and that their cable advices show that Mrs. Botha's visit to Mr. Kruger is in no way connected with peace negotiations. Mrs. Botha took with her to Europe detailed information from her husband and from General Schalkberger, the acting president. Mr. van der Hoogt said that General Botha was permitted to communicate by cable with Mr. Kruger on condition that he would try to get Mr. Kruger to agree to certain peace terms favorable to Great Britain, and that the British authorities should see the dispatches. Botha carried out the agreement, and Mr. Kruger's reply was that independence must be the first basis of any terms of peace.
