Dyspeptics cannot be long lived because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Remember the base ball game at 4:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Remember the grand free phono-sterio entertainment to be given at the Baldwin Monday night under the auspices of the Head Camp of the Woodmen of the World.

Ulysses F. Hawk, pastor of the First Methodist church, has returned from the district conference and will occupy his pulpit Sunday, both morning and evening.

In off years Mr. Scott conducts a democratic paper, but when republican success is at stake he is viciously republican, the trusts, Mark Hanna and McKinley thrown in.—Independent.

A drunk and disorderly Yakima swash, with a name for which there is no type symbol in this office, was arrested last night by Officer Paulsen and paid a fine of $4 in the recorder's court this morning.

The new water plugs ordered some time ago by the water commissioners have arrived, and most of them have already been placed in position. The city is now better able to fight a fire than it ever was in all its history.

The Antelope Republican says a 'phone message was received there Tuesday night from C. B. Don, at Prineville, stating that some party or parties had shot into a band of T. H. McGreer's sheep, near Sisters, last Monday. The number killed was not known at the time.

The Dufur Dispatch says: "Two of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson's children have the diphtheria at Boyd. One of them is getting better, but the other at last accounts was very low. Quite a number have been exposed and grave fears of the spreading of the disease are entertained."

The warehouse men of The Dalles estimate that there is still not less than 3,000,000 pounds of unsold wool in The Dalles warehouses. The amount already sold is estimated at 3,000,000 more. The scouring mills have handled already 2,000,000 and are good for 2,000,000 more, so that it is apparent that The Dalles is still in the wool business.

The Dallesites should have no trouble in finding a place where they can spend the Fourth. There will be celebrations at Lyle, Stevenson, Hood River, Goldendale, Dufur, Nansen and Wamic, while a number of parties will go off by themselves and hold little blow-outs that will be a kind of cross between a regular eagle-screacher and a mid-summer picnic.

Over a quarter of a million pounds of wool changed hands yesterday afternoon and this morning, including the clip of C. A. Buckley, of Grass Valley, which amounted to nearly 125,000 pounds and the clip of J. P. Abbott, of Wapinitia, amounting to 88,000 pounds. Mr. Abbott's clip brought 11 1/2 cents. The bulk of the remaining clips was heavy, scouring wool and the price was not given out.

D. W. Vause had a letter from E. Jacobsen the other day, who is at Burns, informing him that Mr. Jacobsen had received an injury to his left hand that the doctor said would lay him up for a couple of months. Mr. Jacobsen said he would come back to The Dalles as soon as he could find a trusty man to drive his team. No particulars were given but it is supposed the injury to Mr. Jacobsen's hand is the result of a runaway.

Ex-State Attorney-General Idleman, of Portland, has agreed to deliver the Fourth of July oration at Pendleton on the single condition that the Fourth of July committee shall "solemnly promise to agree to listen." The committee has agreed to put up bonds in any reasonable sum that they will do their level best to so demean themselves that outsiders will at least suppose they are listening. On these conditions Idleman has agreed to orate.

There is plenty of work for the stock inspector of Wasco county to earn his salary, by stamping out the mange in horses. This is something that should no longer be neglected. Let the work begin immediately. A mangy horse almost unable to walk has been running at large in Shanike for the past ten days.—Leader. And the Antelope Republican says, "Bring it over to Antelope. The boys here have been dipping mangy horses for nearly a week and they have done a good deed."

Last Sunday the "Boston Bloomers" played a game of baseball in Spokane, and the Spokesman Review's married man, who reported the game, closed his description of the affair as follows: "As the game proceeded horrible suspicions began to arise that all the girls were not what they should be. Some bad man watched Lucy Hall's antics (who was pitcher) and announced that she had probably shaved that morning. Carrie Nation also caused comment by her long throwing and wobbly hair, suggestive of a wig. Lillie Emmett has a good female voice but her feet lacked the right kind of team work to keep up the illusion. The balance of the players were admittedly of the gentler sex."

Mr. W. C. Fredden left here on the noon train today for Ritzville, Wash., where he will be married next Wednesday evening to Miss Gertrude Williams, of Humboldt, Nebraska. THE CHRONICLE has not the pleasure of the acquaintance of the prospective bride, but it knows the prospective bridegroom to be a most estimable young man, who is well worthy the best young lady in the land. After the wedding the young couple will make a trip to the Sound cities, and expect to be at home to their friends in The Dalles soon after the Fourth.

Several citizens of Antelope have been prospecting for coal, over on the John Day River, during the past week. We are informed that a company has been organized here, composed of about a dozen of the leading business men of the community, and that it is their purpose to thoroughly prospect this section of the country for coal. Some fine specimens of coal have been brought in from the John Day, and if it can be found in sufficient quantities, there is going to be "millions in it" for some one.—Antelope Herald.

All Linn county has had to borrow $67,000 to meet deficiencies caused by its low tax levy and pays 5 1/2 per cent interest on the same. The Lebanon Criterion in an editorial entitled "We told you so" comments as follows: "It is hoped that this amount will make up for the deficiency caused by the failure of the county court to levy a sufficient tax for ordinary running expenses. The people now realize, when they are required to pay interest on $67,000, what it means to have a tax levy made solely for campaign purposes."

The big farm team of Dave Creighton, of Three Mile, got scared this morning at a passing locomotive while Mr. Creighton was loading some posts on the wagon on the north side of the railroad track near Peters' planing mill, and as it re-crossed the track upset the wagon and threw Mr. Creighton to the ground; then dashing towards Second street collided with J. H. Cross' delivery cart and was brought to a halt and captured. Fortunately Mr. Creighton was not seriously hurt, but was able to drive home later in a borrowed wagon, his own having been badly wrecked. Mr. Cross' cart was slightly injured, but the team got off without a scratch.

John Miller, the tramp who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff E. B. Wood while in the act of delivering liquor to a Yakima Indian named George, was examined later before U. S. Commissioner T. A. Hudson and bound over to the U. S. grand jury in the sum of $200. Fred Picko, a jockey from Portland, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Sexton and Wood while in the act of handing a bottle of beer to another Yakima Indian named Tumwater Jim. Picko was examined this morning before Commissioner Hudson and bound over to the U. S. grand jury in the sum of $200. Deputy U. S. Marshal Morse came up last night from Portland and returned this afternoon with Miller and Picko in custody.
