

He Tried a Sample Bottle

Nearly every day people come into drug stores and ask the druggists to recommend some medicine for their trouble. Very often they refuse to do so, because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to advise anyone to take a patent medicine of which they do not know the ingredients. It is the physician's business to prescribe. Some make an exception, however, when anyone has a cough, cold or throat and lung trouble. I always recommend Acker's English Remedy, because I know just what it will do. It has cured every case where I have seen it tried. It is the best expectorant and tonic I ever handled in my 14 years' experience. I will give just one instance of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. I advised Acker's English Remedy. He tried a sample bottle, and was cured before he had taken half of it, at no cost whatever. This is an exceptional case, however, as it usually takes two or three bottles.

SOUTHERN MAN SUGGESTED

Congressman Gaines Names a Dozen Men, Any One of Whom in His Opinion, Could Sweep the Country

NEW YORK, June 21.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Congressman John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, in an interview, favors the nomination of a Southern man for president in 1904. He says:

"My proposition for the nomination of a Southern man for president in 1904 is taking like wildfire. Since I made it a week ago I have received stacks of letters from all parts of the country commending me. For more than fifty years this country was ruled by the South, and I am satisfied we can regain control if we go about it in the right way. The first step in this direction should be the nomination of a straight, old-fashioned Southern democrat for president in 1904. The man who says that the South does not now possess an abundance of presidential material is a fool. I can name a dozen men or more, and one of whom would make us a winning candidate."

Then Mr. Gaines mentioned these names: Senator Morgan, of Alabama; Senator Couckrell, of Missouri; Senator Carmack and former Senator Turley, of Tennessee; Senators Culberson and Bailey, of Texas; Senator Bacon and Clark Howell, of Georgia; Associate Justice White, of Louisiana.

"And," said Mr. Gaines, "you might add to this list the names of John Marshall Harlan, of Kentucky, who, though appointed to the United States supreme court as a republican, has enunciated the old democratic doctrine from the bench more than once. The war is over, and the South is an integral part of the union, and not an insular possession or a Porto Rico; and besides, have not numerous former confederates served on the bench of the supreme court and in other positions of the federal judiciary by appointment of both democratic and republican presidents? Also, have not several former confederates served in the cabinets of both republican and democratic presidents? Congress has been full of former confederates for thirty years. Surely, if former confederates can be trusted to make and interpret laws, they can be trusted to execute them. Therefore, my voice from this time on shall be for a Southern man for president."

New Kind of Fisherman's Luck.

A Wisconsin fisherman put his hook down into the muddy waters of the Mississippi, near Lansing, Ia., recently, and floated in his boat with the current until he reached Prairie du Chien. Somewhere between these two points he caught on his hook a clam, in whose shell was hidden the largest and most perfect pearl ever found in those waters. This pearl is now locked in a vault at H. Deakin's art rooms in the fine art building in Chicago. Mr. Deakin was offered $40,000 for it. He refused to sell it, because he thinks the pearl is worth $50,000. It was bought from the fisherman by a Prairie du Chien man for $17,000. The connoisseurs who have seen the pearl since Mr. Deakin bought it pronounce it the most wonderful ever found in Amer-
