"A DANIEL COME TO JUDGMENT."

"And he play'd upon a harp." Whatever else we may be disposed to think of Dowie, he is at least a dandy, says Henry Watterson in the Courier-Journal. He has not only the inspiration of his conviction, but a courage worthy of them. It was a magnificent piece of cheek for this gold-brick man to appear before a Chicago audience. It was sublime that he was able to work himself and his audience to a frenzy, thus:

"Understand well what I mean. I will take no counsel in my methods of government. I have come to proclaim theocracy, pure and simple—the government of God, and I will never rest till all other forms of government have been driven from the earth. You talk about your democracy. Bah! I tell you democracy has been tried in the balance and has failed. The government of the people, by the people and for the people is twaddle. I stand loyal to the flag and countenance no revolution, but I demand here and now that the name of God must be placed foremost in the constitution of the United States, and the supreme authority of God over all things must be recognized."

Joseph Jefferson is a Swedenborgian. Edwin Booth was a Unitarian. They were fairly good actors in their time. But it may be doubted whether either of them could have worked himself—even in a mimic scene—to the following noble burst: "Listen to the first message of the prophet. You must pay your tithes and offerings into the storehouse of God. Accursed be ye if ye would seek to rob His house of its fullness by not obeying this, His will, sent through Elijah."

There is but one counterpart to this in history. According to Proctor Knott—the Courier-Journal giving its authority and reserving alike its judgment and its responsibility—Simon Suggs, when "the meat havin' give out, and not a bar'l o' flour in the house," set forth in quest of adventure, fell in with the camp meeting, and for purposes of revenue only got religion, he at once rose from the mourners' bench and shouted, "Ante up, brethren! I kum in on nary pa'r, and see what I draw'd! Religion is four aces. Everybody gits 'em an' nobody kin lose." But that was before sequence flushes and Mr. Dowie.

"Present prosperity is a delusion or at least ephemeral," says Wm. J. Bryan in a late interview. That's so, responds the Plaindealer. Life is uncertain. Death is sure. Riches have wings. It's sure to be cloudy some day. But notwithstanding all these little delusions, like five-cent hogs, hundred-dollar horses, twenty-dollar calves, ten-cent cotton and fifteen-cent wool are such pleasing delusions that the majority of the people are ready to cry: "Please delude us some more."

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. U. S. Land Office, Vancouver, Wash., May 28, 1901.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 8, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the public land states by act of August 4, 1892, Frank Stewart, of Lone Rock, county of Gilliam, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2212, for the purchase of the NW 1/4 of sec 15 in T. 34 N., R. 30 E., W. 4 M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver in this office at Vancouver, Wash., on Wednesday, the 14th day of August, 1901.

CONTEST NOTICE. UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, May 11, 1901.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by G. August Krugquist, contestant, against home-head entry No. 6121, made April 14, 1897, for W. 1/4 NW 1/4, sec 23 and E. 1/4 NW 1/4, sec 24, T. 2 N., R. 32 E., by Riley J. Girt, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Riley J. Girt has from the 14th day of April, 1897, up to the present date never been on the place, never established his residence thereon, and that he has abandoned the tract, and that the alleged abandonment is not due to defendant's employment in the military or naval service of the United States said parties are hereby notified to appear and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on June 22, 1901, before the register and receiver at the United States land office in The Dalles, Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed May 4, 1901, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Executors Notice. Notice is hereby given that M. Z. Donnell has been duly appointed executor of the last will and testament of Ann Luchinger, deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said Ann Luchinger are hereby notified to present the same to me, verified as by law required, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated at Dalles City this 7th day of June, 1901. M. Z. DONNELL, Executor.

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $5.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.

M. T. NOLAN.
