PROBLEM OF PHILIPPINES

It Springs From Former Union of Church and State—Rev. Father Malone Declares That Church Is Better Off Without Such Union.

DENVER, July 4.—Rev. Father Thos. Malone, speaking this afternoon before the Colorado-Texas Chautauqua at Boulder, said among other things:

"We are committed to a policy towards our new possessions that the sober judgment of the electorate has unequivocally indorsed. That a minority opposition will continue to assert itself is undoubtedly true, but such opposition should be required to advance more potent reasons than it has so far done before it can expect to receive respectful attention of intelligent people. To groundlessly charge base motives is unjust and degrading.

"As for myself, I entertain the complacent conviction—all so-called anti-imperialists to the contrary—that our president following in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor, the lamented Lincoln, has never entertained a sentiment or feeling politically, that did not spring from sentiments embodied in the Declaration of Independence. That equal and exact justice will be done to all classes and institutions in our island possessions is guaranteed by the history of our government. No phase of the Philippine situation can long remain uninvolved.

"Perhaps the most difficult phase of it is that which springs from the union of church and state which has endured for centuries. The people of the islands are all Catholics, and, speaking as an American Catholic priest, I am thoroughly convinced not only that the material interests of those people will be best subserved under the American policy as executed by Judge Taft, but that freed from the entanglements of governmental interference in spiritual matters, the church in the Philippines will rapidly develop along the lines followed out by the Catholic church in the United States.

"The American Catholics want no union of church and state. They have seen its disadvantages in other lands and they know that where free and untrammelled and entirely independent of state support it can best follow out its divine mission. The Catholic people in the Philippines, as soon as they are separated from influences prejudicial to the American idea, will realize the more fortunate position of their co-religionists in the United States and will welcome the adoption of measures and the coming of ecclesiastics to give force and efficacy to those measures."

Boer Prisoners Well Treated. LONDON, July 2.—The report of the Island of St. Helena, dealing with the year ending March 3, says:

"The lies in the European papers about the treatment of the Boer prisoners even exasperated the prisoners. The latter enjoy large liberty and are well behaved, contented and anxious to work. Many of them are employed by the farmers and others are employed on the roads and wharves."

Suicide of the Cowboy Preacher. KEARNEY, Neb., July 3.—Rev. L. G. Brooker, of the Evangelist church, committed suicide at his home in this city today by shooting himself with a revolver. Mr. Brooker was well known in this vicinity as the cowboy preacher, and had many friends. He was about 45 years of age, and left a widow and six children, one of whom is an evangelical preacher at Shelton, Neb.

Later it developed that Rev. Brooker stood charged with criminal relations with Harriet Longmate, who had been an intimate friend of the Brooker family during her stay at Grand Island. The sheriff from that city arrived in Kearney today with a warrant for his arrest. Mr. Brooker declared his innocence to the sheriff, who then stepped out to get a guard for the prisoner, and, during his absence the fatal shots were fired. The woman in the case is unmarried and about 30 years of age.

Atwell and Mary Jane Atwell, his wife, Notification No. 8031, and being part of sections one and twelve, in township two north of range seven east, and part of sections six and seven, township two north of range eight east, and containing eighty acres of land.

And I will, on Saturday, the 13th day of July, 1901, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., at the front door of the county court house of said county, in Dalles City, Oregon, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, in order to pay the gold coin cash in hand, the above described lands to satisfy the said judgment, interest, costs and disbursements and accruing costs.
