

STANDING BY PROTECTION.

When men calling themselves republicans find their remarks on the present tariff followed by a round of democratic applause, the incident ought to make them thoughtful, says the Globe-Democrat.

Nobody who accepts this platform will be panned on the back by the democratic press for the simple reason that it is true republican doctrine. Democratic schemers are eager to stir up the spirit of class hating, but they will catch no real republicans at their set.

The Salem Journal refers to Hon. J. N. Williamson as "scaly bounty" Williamson. Does your sweet heart, brother, says the Crook County Journal, you couldn't have conferred a more honorable title, for in the smallness of your conception you would cast opprobrium on the official acts of our senator, but you can't do it in that manner.

As soon as Eastern Oregon is ready to demand a political party or two, the politicians begin to scramble among themselves, says the La Grande Chronicle.

A Chicago man was arrested for trying to compel his family to live on three cents a day. He should not take the Ladies' Home Journal so seriously, says the Kansas City Star.

Even the risks of the burglar are increased in hot weather. One has been caught in Louisville through trying to take a bath. Another ought to have been taught here through trying to eat a dish of strawberry jam.

The Salem Journal implores the politicians to give it something that will compel it to be honest. The Salem Journal is a political and-a-god.

Just imagine the work of the man who is struggling to write a democratic platform under present weather conditions.

Question Answered.

Yes, Angier Flower is the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers were brought up using Angier's for indigestion and constipation. Doctors were scarce, and their seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc.

I think in my opinion, although every man asked and every party was asked with pain, writes C. W. Beatty, a composite friend of Burlington, Iowa. I was weak and pale, without any appetite and a poor sleep.

"I would have nearly a year ago," writes Mr. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had indigestion so bad that I'd walk a block I would cough, faintly and get tired, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 25 pounds."

NOTICE TO THE PEOPLE

Before buying any medicines or any cemetery work come and see Mr. Combs. Don't let any one else fool you with their slick talk. They know nothing about the business and run down as poor mechanics. They try to make you believe that their work is durable.

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two metal boxes—one worth $17.50, having eight tins, and one worth $7.50, a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $5.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount.

Patrons of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profits with my customers.
