

REGENERATED CUBA.

In the opinion of the Salt Lake Tribune the highest compliment ever paid to Americans was by a Spaniard on the Fourth of July, standing upon the battered wreck of one of his country's battleships off Santiago. He lamented the destruction of the beautiful ships and the humiliation of his country, but said that candor compelled the admission that events which followed in the direction of Cuban affairs by the United States has been a good thing for the island and its people. He evidently was impressed by the startling facts that there was order in Cuba; that every man was protected in his rights, and greatest of all, that there had not been one death from yellow fever since the beginning of the present year. Who would have believed that to be possible even five years ago? That is not all. Our own Southern cities - Galveston, New Orleans, Mobile and Pensacola - are all taking on new life because the terror of the pestilence has passed away - a pestilence that was born first of the slave-ship and which, coming across the neck of the sea from Havana almost every year, spread desolation along our southern coast. The world may look through all the pages of history and will find nothing so splendid as what our country has done on the island of Cuba since the arm of Spain was broken there.

To Eastern and Southern Oregon the Sentinel extends greetings and the confident assurance that Marion county, the home county of the present governor, will next spring send to the state republican convention a delegation favorable to an Eastern Oregon man for governor - or at least a delegation that is opposed to the renomination of Geer. With his home delegation against him, it is quite sure the governor will stand little or no chance for renomination. In this county the sentiment is clearly against him. His official delegation is now busy in his behalf, but there is no reason to fear that they will be able to overcome any of the widespread opposition to him. In this estimate the wish is not father to the thought. This conclusion is reached after conversation and interviews with republicans throughout Marion county. The wheel-horses of the party are putting in their best licks to encompass his deserved defeat. The party leaders are not with him, and they will not be. The Sentinel has made inquiry and investigation far and wide and it believes it makes no error in its forecast when it says Marion county's delegation will favor some candidate other than Geer. History will repeat itself. No republican governor has ever been re-elected in Oregon. - Salem Sentinel.

It is with an apparent pride that is wholly justifiable and right that Recorder Gates submits to the taxpayers of The Dalles the report published in this issue of the city's finances during the past year, as well as a synopsis of those of preceding years, and a comparison of some of these with the three years he held office. While Mr. Gates would be far from claiming undue credit for this remarkable and gratifying exhibit, he is justly entitled to an honorable share in administrations that will serve for many a year as a pattern and example to succeeding administrations.

The Salem Sentinel says: "While the papers are making so much noise about the Gates affair they might explain why it was that the Corbett push who had Gates arrested last winter during the legislature offered to let him go if he would give up the money, and when he refused to do so let him go, money and all."

NOTICE TO THE PEOPLE. Which Will be For Their Own Benefit if Heeded.

Before buying any tombstones or any cemetery work come and see Mr. Comini. Don't let any one bluff you with their slick talk. They know nothing about the business and run down the poor mechanic. They try to make you believe that their work is durable. Before you give your order let Mr. Comini take you out to the cemetery and show you what kind of work he puts up and give you his prices for similar work. Don't be in a hurry to give your order, but first give Mr. Comini a chance to figure on your work. You will find by asking any one who has had business dealings with Mr. Comini that all of his work is of first-class quality, just as he represents it to be, and that his prices for such work are very low. It is not necessary to send for stone from other places, there is stone here in The Dalles that will stand until the judgment day. Sandstone crumbles. j12-2-awt NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association still goes on. Weekly presents continue as last month, but before announcing presents to be given away August 3rd I desire to correct an error. The impression prevails that because I do not keep a poor brute standing at my door 16 hours a day to do 2 or 3 hours work that I do not deliver goods. The fact is I deliver goods in my line to more people every day than all other dealers in the same line combined, and any person who feels inclined to secure some of the bargains I offer can rest assured that the order will be attended to carefully and promptly delivered by some one of the numerous expressmen who pay a license for delivering goods in the city and deserve to be patronized.
