THE ORIGIN OF KISSING.

The editor of the Oregon Republican, an excellent daily publication of Baker City, is contemplating embarking upon the sea of matrimony on and has already selected his crew. He is an authority, therefore, on kissing and all associate subjects. He discusses the osculatory science in a recent editorial, as follows:

A Germantown man who claims to have made a study of the kiss in that spirit of scientific analysis which is now so popular, says that it really has a most interesting history.

Its origin was in prehistoric times, possibly when the cave man was battling for his life against all sorts just how it was discovered.

One learned school holds that it arose through cannibalism; that one person would rub his lips over the flesh of another to see if the flesh was sufficiently sweet and tender for eating purposes, and, on a memorable day, a young warrior brushed with his lips the mouth of a girl of the tribe, and with that soft shock. electrical and sweet, the kiss was

This has an attractive sound, but a second theory claims that the primitive mother originated the kiss. Drinking vessels had not yet been discovered, and the mother, to give her thirsty little children water. would pass it from her own mouth into theirs; whence in due course came kissing.

The third school, which is misanthropical and to which the Germantown man belongs, holds the kiss to be an evil, co-evil in its birth with that other evil, wine.

According to this theory, as soon as men began to store up wine in their caves or houses they grew suspicious of their wives, and on each Summer Excursions to the Sea Coast.

The impression prevails that because I do not keep a poor brute standing at my door 16 hours a day to do 2 or 3 hours work that I do not deliver goods. The fact is I deliver goods in my line to more people every day than all other dealers in the same line combined, and any person who feels inclined to secure some of the bargains I offer can rest assured that the order will be attended to carefully and promptly delivered by some one of the numerous expressmen who pay a license for delivering goods in the city and deserve to be patronized.
