SUNDAY CLOSING LAW ENFORCED

Saloons in Walla Walla Were Closed Sunday for the First Time in Half a Century.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 29.—For the first time in nearly half a century, Walla Walla was a closed town yesterday. Not a door was open, not a cent's worth of merchandise was sold. Not a glass of beer nor a cigar passed over the bars of 36 saloons and two breweries. At midnight Saturday the saloons closed their doors, not one remaining open after midnight. A week ago three stood out and defied the law, but yesterday every one obeyed, and the doors along Main street were closed all day. The lack of business made the streets very quiet, and but few men spent the day on the sidewalks, as has been the plan in the past.

The fight for Sunday closing came up a few weeks ago by a petition from a number of farmers asking to have the saloons closed to keep employes sober and fit for work. The saloons refused at first and then proclaimed an intention of forcing every house to close. The officers tried to secure peaceable compliance, but failed, and then three saloons held out alone to test the law. All three proprietors were arrested and found guilty. Then a week ago they held open again and were arrested by information in the superior court. The cases will come up at the next jury term. Having been convicted in the justice court, the saloon men appealed to the superior court and lost. An announcement that any further violations would be vigorously prosecuted has had the effect of closing the town, the first time in its history.

Project of Union Men.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The World says: Resolutions advocating the raising of a $500,000 defense fund and other things bearing on the steel and other strikes, were discussed at a recent meeting of the Central Federated Union of New York. The resolutions will be voted on next Sunday. They advocate also a retention of a lawyer who shall be paid "an efficient fee to be above the reach of temptation," and who shall be called upon to attend to all cases in the courts in behalf of organized labor throughout the country.

Story of a Bank Fake.

LONDON, July 29.—Inquiry made by the Associated Press shows there is no foundation for the rumor published here by the Daily Express that the United States Ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, had left London for Holland, not for a holiday, but at the invitation of Mr. Kruger, who desires him to act as mediator in bringing about a peace settlement. With the exception of a week-end visit to Sussex, Mr. Choate has not left London. He returned here from Sussex today.

Condition Critical.

CRONBERG, July 29.—As a result of the visit of Professor Renvers from Berlin, it is officially announced that the condition of the Dowager Empress Frederick is not satisfactory. Her Majesty has not left her apartments for the last two weeks, and though medical bulletins have not yet been issued they may soon be anticipated. Princess Henry of Prussia has been at the castle on a flying visit.

Seven Years in Bed. "Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Only 50c.

A Raging, Boating Flood. Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Price 50c.

SUFFERINGS OF THE BOERS

Pretoria Man Tells a Terrible Tale—
Kruger's Message to America.

CHICAGO, July 29.—"The horror of the situation in the Boer reconcentrado camps in South Africa is appalling. Men, women and children are dying at the rate that would mean the extermination of the race in nine years. The people are crowded up in unsanitary quarters, where they are unable to secure sufficient food or clothing, with disease making terrible ravages among them."

This was the situation in the Transvaal and Orange Free State depicted tonight at the Christian Reformed Church by the Rev. Herman D. Tan Brockhuysen, late pastor of the leading Dutch Reformed church of Pretoria. He has come to the United States to raise money to alleviate the sufferings of his countrymen who are huddled together in the refugee camps. It is the intention of Mr. Brockhuysen to travel through the country, speaking in churches of various denominations and describing the real situation throughout South Africa. The funds he is able to secure will be sent direct to Pretoria.

Regarding the outcome of the struggle, Mr. Brockhuysen is still optimistic. He believes the Boers will continue fighting until they eventually tire out Great Britain. "It is quite impossible to estimate the number of burghers now in the field," he said, "but the force is undoubtedly much larger than when Pretoria was taken."

A few days before leaving Europe Mr. Brockhuysen visited President Kruger, and when he asked the doughty old Boer what message he would send to the American people, Kruger said: "Tell them they are helping the English to slaughter our people, by supplying them with horses, mules and the munitions of war."

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world, and sold by Clarke & Falk. Get Green's prize almanac.
