

There is a belief among railroad men that the move of the Northern Pacific into the Klickitat country from its main line in the lower Yakima valley is a step toward the fulfillment of the promise to get down the Columbia to Portland, says the Oregonian.

Few migrations in the history of man may justly be compared to the coming of the pioneers of 1840, says the Oregonian. John Minto said in his address at the pioneer reunion of 1870 that the men, women and children of 1840 crossed an unsettled country covering 24 degrees of longitude, every part of the way liable to attacks from savage foes.

One exchange says: "It is reported that W. R. Hearst is to start a morning paper in Portland. According to the rumor, Mr. Hearst will spare no expense to make the paper the leading one of the Northwest. It is stated that publication of the paper will be commenced about January 1st."

The wheat crop of the country this year is estimated at over 700,000,000 bushels. This is the largest crop ever harvested and means large exports, and a great deal of extra money for the farmer.

The farmers of Kansas figure that what they lose through the drought will be offset by the higher price they will get for their grain, so that the real sufferers from the drought will be the consumers, many of whom live in Europe. This is the reason, according to one farmer, why so many farmers took no interest in the prayers for rain. They felt that they had nothing to pray for.

Friday was set apart in Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri as a day of general prayer for rain. The next day it rained, flooding the parched lands. This is the record. Account for it as you may, but don't blame some people for believing that God answers prayer unless you are able to prove it ain't so.

Here is a sample of the meat wherewith socialism is fed. It is dished up by the "Appeal to Reason": "So long as men and women will sell themselves for wages they will be slaves of capital and will be poor."

A man, going by the name of Harris, has done a thriving business in Linn county selling shoulders of bacon to the innocents over there for hams. Linn county is the banner democratic county of Oregon.

It's a thousand pities that they cannot catch all the salmon down at Astoria. If these Astorians thought we were catching any up this way we would catch dunder and blitzen.

The Albany Democrat man, speaking from experience, of course, says: "A glass or two of whiskey makes the world go round."
