

He Tried a Sample Bottle

Nearly every day, people come into drug stores and ask the druggists to recommend some medicine for their trouble. Very often they refuse to do so, because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to advise anyone to take a patent medicine of which they do not know the ingredients. It is the physician's business to prescribe. Some make an exception, however, when anyone has a cough, cold or throat and lung trouble. I always recommend Acker's Fish Remedy because I know just what it will do. It has cured every case when I have seen it tried. It is the best expectorant and tonic I ever handled in my 14 years' experience. I will give just one instance of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. I advised Acker's Fish Remedy. He tried a sample bottle and was cured before he had taken half of it, at no cost whatever. This is an exceptional case, however, as it usually takes two or three bottles.

(Signed) A. H. BROWN, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Sold at The Dalles, Oregon, and in England at 1s. 6d. per bottle. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. J. T. Eschelman, of Tacoma, is visiting his brother, Dr. Eschelman.

Mr. B. F. Laughlin arrived here last night on a short business trip from Seattle.

Wm. Floyd, of Seattle, arrived here last night and is registered at the European House.

Frank Gabel and J. P. Abbott, two prosperous sheepmen of Wapinitia, were in town yesterday for supplies.

Mrs. Belat and her daughters, Margaret and Emma, left on this morning's boat for an outing at Hood River. She was accompanied by Misses Christine and Salina Pritman and Hazel Huntington.

Mr. and Mrs. Witherspoon and daughter, of Hillsboro, Ill., are visiting with the family of Mr. Frank Gunning. Mrs. Witherspoon is a sister of Mr. Gunning. This is the first visit of the party to the Pacific coast.

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

Captain Langitt's Recommendations for Appropriations.

The report of Captain W. C. Langitt, corps of Engineers, United States Army, stationed at Portland, Or., on the improvement of river and harbors in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, together with recommendations relative to future appropriations, has been made public. The recommendations for future appropriations to be expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, amount in the total to $2,147,598.37. The recommendations which concern Eastern Oregon most directly are $275,000 for the Columbia and Lower Willamette below Portland; $150,000 for the Columbia to the Cascades; $214,579.20 for the Columbia between The Dalles and Celilo.

The improvement of the Columbia river to the Cascades provides for the completion of the canal and locks around the cascades of the Columbia river. The work during the past year consisted of paving the slopes of the canal. It is considered that the sum of $150,000 can be profitably expended in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, principally in completing the north and south wall of the upper lock. During the past year 22,426 tons of freight passed through the canal and locks.

Discussing The Dalles-Celilo canal, or the alternative proposition to construct a boat railway, the report says in brief: "The present project provides for constructing a boat railway nine miles long, from Big Eddy to Celilo to carry boats overland around the obstructions between Big Eddy and Celilo. Actual work of construction is, however, held in abeyance pending further action by congress on the question of boat railway vs. canal and locks. If the construction of the canal and locks is authorized it is considered that the present funds available, which were appropriated for a boat railway, amounting to $21,579.26, may be profitably expended in the fiscal year ending July 30, 1903, in removing the rocks in the river at Three-Mile rapids, and in obtaining title to land for the canals at Five-Mile rapids and Celilo."

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Great Run of Salmon

Yesterday's Astoria News says that fish are more plentiful now than at any time during the present heavy run. Sunday the combine canneries took 400 pounds from each boat, and Monday, after the receipts of Sunday were disposed of, the same limit was maintained. The boats commenced arriving at the canneries at 6:30, and at noon scores of boats were lined up at the receiving docks, awaiting the order to deliver. Fishermen said that they made a single drift Sunday night and got from 40 to 100 salmon. All agree that the run is the greatest which has ever entered the river. This is the tenth day of the run, and it is estimated that $900,000 worth of fish has been bought in that time. The gillnet fishermen say they could deliver six times the amount of salmon they are now offering. The men go out every other night, and even then find it difficult to get rid of their catches. Yesterday the price fell to 5 cents at the combine canneries, while some of the cold storages are reported to be taking excess fish at 4 cents. Booth continues to be the fishermen's friend and is taking the fish from his gillnets in preference to receipts from other sources. The co-operative cannery was shut down yesterday for 48 hours in order to give the men a chance to clean up. This concern continues to be in good shape, and it is reported that it has averaged 2250 cases daily for the past ten days. It has all along taken 500 pounds of fish from each boat. The run of fish Sunday night was the greatest ever known at Astoria.
