WEDNESDAY . . . JULY 81, 1901

THE WORKINGMAN'S INTEREST

One noteworthy feature of the labor troubles that have occurred during the past three months is the absence of material differences of orinion as to wage scales. The strike now on, in which from 75,000 to 100,000 workingmen are involved, hinges upon the demand of the iron and steel workers that all of the shops and factories of the United States steel corporation be unionized. In the case of the machinists' strike that has been in progress since May 20th the wage scale was complicated with a demand for a shorter day, but the real bone of contention was upon the refusal of the machinists to arbitrate the dispute.

The natural inference drawn from this fact is that the skilled workmen are now receiving what they are willing to concede to be a fair return for their labor, and this in spite of the fact that the cost of living has materially increased since the first election of President McKinley. In a recent issue of Dun's Review was printed a statistical table covering the cost of 350 commodities, with quantities of each taken according to the per capita consumption, compared with the prices of the same articles prior to the election last November. It was found that the level of prices had advanced 4 per cent. Sold by Clarke & Falk, The Dalles, Or. When the comparison was made with prices in 1896 it was shown that the cost of living had increased 30 per

But wages have also advanced and opportunities to secure work have multiplied until there are now no unemployed laborers except those who will not work. Dun a Company show in their Review that in many instances wages have increased 10 per per cent while the cost of living has advanced but 4 per cent. At the same time business has been brisk in all branches of trade, the volume of money in circulation has also increased 2 per cent, and every indication points to a continuation of the era of good times inaugurated with President McKinley in 1897.

With this view of the situation before their eyes it is difficult to see how the proposition to tamper with the tariff laws can win support among the people of the country. Granting, for the sake of argument, that the prosperity and industrial activity which now prevail are not solely due to the Dingley law, no reasonable man will claim that the operations of that law have had nothing to do with the conditions that now obtain. At the same time no reasonable man of the tariff schedule will necessitate will sell through roand-trip tickets to a change in method of business by the producers and manufacturers line, O. R. & N. "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Workmen are the ones who car least cure for my present good health and my afford to have the industries of the country interfered with at this time. They have won fair wages because covered my health." Mr. E. H. Wise, their services are not at a premium, and they are engaged at the present time in making demands for other concessions which they deem important. Should the tariff tinkerers succeed in winning their point it will be but a short time before the workingmen will lay on the table in scalp diseases. The delightful harmony that exists in the ranks of the democracy may be inferred from the following. which we clip from the Baker City Democrat: "There is talk of Dave Hill for president as a candidate on the democratic ticket in 1904. Hillism is worse than Bryanism by far. The whole people have more confidence in Bryan than in Hill. We hope the Hill talk will not materialize, as it will not strengthen the democratic cause. As a candidate of the democracy he would be weaker than Bryan was in 1896 or 1900."
