BIG STRIKES

ARE STILL ON

Outlook Improves—No Decisive Change. However, in San Francisco Situation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—The third day of the strike opens with no decisive change in the situation, though the outlook for a settlement has improved. The City Front Federation, which controls the men now out, has submitted as a basis for the establishment of peace the following propositions:

The Proposition.

"The Employers' Association agrees that its members will not discriminate against any employe because he chooses for reasons sufficient to himself to be a member of a labor organization.

"The Employers' Association agrees that all members who are locked out or who have quit work on account of existing difficulties shall be reinstated.

"Labor organizations agree that any member who is employed shall, while in such employ, obey any orders given to him concerning the work to be performed. Whenever any difficulties arise between employers and employes, no strike or lockout shall be instituted until the parties in interest shall have done all in their power to adjust their difficulties."

Reply of the Employers.

The reply of the Employers' Association is that they will not discriminate against unions, and that the men can resume work "when they on their part agree, in addition to obeying orders and submitting grievances to their employers, not to attempt to coerce employes to join unions or employers to unionize their places of business."

A Poor Millionaire

Threshing Trust in Baker County.

BAKER CITY, Aug. 2.—Threshing machine operators of the Powder valley have formed a threshers' union, and fixed the prices to be paid for this work. For threshing oats and barley a charge of 3 cents per bushel will be made, 4 cents for wheat and 5 cents for rye, if the farmer furnishes his own crew; and where the thresher runs a cook wagon and provides his own help, the price will be 5 cents for oats and barley, 5½ cents for wheat and 7 cents for rye.

Farmers have been discussing the advisability of securing threshers from Union county, or Walla Walla, but have taken no definite action. Threshers here state that they do not fear such a move, as the cost for machines and price for threshing will be much greater than the farmers think.

A Raging, Roaring Flood.

Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung troubles by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Price 50c. 5

Don't be satisfied with temporary relief from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure permanently and completely removes this complaint. It relieves permanently because it allows the tired stomach perfect rest. Dieting won't rest the stomach. Nature receives supplies from the food we eat. The sensible way to help the stomach is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat and can't help but do you good. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Only 50c. 5

RELIC OF THE OLD TESTAMENT DAYS

A Peculiar Jewish Ceremony Performed in New York—Young Woman Released Formally From the Obligation of Marrying the Brother of Her Deceased Husband.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—An extraordinarily rare ceremony based by the Jews directly upon the teachings of the Old Testament, has just been performed in this city, when a young woman who had traveled 10,000 miles was released from the obligation of marrying her deceased husband's brother, says the New York Times. The obligation of a woman marrying the brother of her deceased husband, according to ancient Hebrew law, arose when her husband died before children were born to the pair.

The young woman in the case is Mrs. Geolda Laes, a young Roumanian Jewess from Bucharest. A little over three years ago she married Emanuel Laes when she was but 18 years old. Within three months the husband died. All this happened in Bucharest. The brother-in-law, whom, according to the faith, the young woman must marry, is Samuel Laes, of East Forty-ninth street, this city. Laes was already married, and, therefore, could not have married the widow of his brother even if he had wanted to. The young woman opened negotiations with her New York relative soon after the death of her husband, but her brother-in-law found it impossible to travel abroad to have the ceremony of dispensing with the obligation performed. Without this dispensation, according to the law, the widow could not marry again.

Under the circumstances the widow decided to come to America to get the decided release, and it was this ceremony which was performed in a little front room on the second floor of a tenement house on Norfolk street.

A portion of the Talmud was read by the Rabbi, who, at the end of the reading, produced a sandal of peculiar and ancient pattern. It was made of two pieces of leather and was fastened with latches and two long thongs. Stooping, he fastened this to the foot of Laes. The widow was then directed to kneel in front of the man and use only her right hand to untie the shoe. After this was done she arose, held the shoe high above her head, and cast it on the floor in front of her brother-in-law. The two principals were then declared free to go their own way.
