

The Spokane Spokesman-Review is pleased to remark: "The people of the state will be interested to know that the river and harbor committee arrived safely at Salt Lake and took a bath."

The one-year-old baby in a Chicago suburb which scared off a burglar by waking up and raising an outcry demonstrated that at times babies are just as useful about the house as a watch dog.

The republican party of today has no use for and no confidence in the common people.—St. Louis Republic. Strange, isn't it? The republican party is the party of the majority. Is the majority composed of the uncommon people?—N. Y. Sun.

A Kansas editor has offered a prize of a fur cape to the young woman who sends in the best remedy for chilblains. It is suggested that responses would probably be more numerous if he offered a prize of a charged soda fountain to the person who tells of the best way to keep cool with the thermometer 100 in the shade.

It is funny to hear the impecunious gathering of farm hands that swarm into Sherman county for the harvest, says the Wasco News. Abuse the country! We must agree with them that during the couple of months it does not rain to excess, the valley is a very paradise, but it is bad taste to abuse the goose that lays the golden egg; and if we have hard water, dust and a scarcity of shade trees, we have the money, too, and those gentlemen have to leave their paradise to get some of it or go without.

A Wisconsin editor after studying the decision of the supreme court for several days, gives the following as the result of his investigation: "The flag follows the constitution, but the constitution does not precede the flag; but if the constitution follows the flag, how can the flag follow the constitution? Besides, if the constitution does not precede the flag, the flag must precede the constitution—and it does; therefore it doesn't. Anyway, hip, hip, hurrah!"

After horses with hats, that are common in the East to ward off the fierce rays of the burning sun, what dogs with shoes apparently. A woman on one of the S. P. Co.'s northbound trains, at Ashland station yesterday, clad in one of those flimsy frocks that tear with looking at almost, had a tiny King Charles spaniel in her arms, and on its feet were shoes. The object, of course, was to keep his claws from shredding her frock at every touch. The shoes were of kid—hardly more than a big thumb in size—neatly sewed and laced in front. As the dog wore the shoes in walking, as well as clawing in his mistress' arms, the kid was black, and in effect the shoes were like diminutive moccasins—Ashland Tidings.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion and biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's prize almanac. Clarke & Falk's.
