COUNCILMEN AT WORK.

A Good Attendance and the City's Business Transacted.

At the council meeting Saturday night in spite of the vacation season, but one councilman was absent—Wm. Shackelford. Mayor Farley was in the chair.

After roll call and the usual preliminary business, a petition (or rather communication) from Mrs. Poorman was read, stating her condition and setting forth that she had received a fall on one of the city sidewalks which rendered her helpless, and, while not asking assistance from the city, the council inferred from the communication that she desired that some one be hired to wait upon her. The matter was referred to the committee on health.

A. H. Curtis made application for right of way for ferry landing at the foot of Union street. It seems that at different times obstructions have caused much difficulty in landing on this side the river, and hence the application. The committee on streets and public property have charge of the application, to report at the next meeting.

Three bids having been received for the city lot on Third street, Councilman Kelly, seconded by Wilson, moved that the bids be rejected. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the resolution on sewers be accepted and notice be published in the DAILY CHRONICLE for two weeks. Carried.

The treasurer's report was read and placed on file.

The recorder was ordered to prepare an ordinance to put $3000 in the sinking fund.

Death of a Noble Young Man.

With deep regret we chronicle the death of Alfred Felderman, son of Mrs. T. Prinz, at The Dalles Hospital Saturday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock.

While camping at Stevenson about nine days ago Alfred was attacked with the pains which twice before had given assurance that he was a victim of appendicitis. Hurrying home he was placed in the hospital and last Thursday was operated on; but while the operation was successful, a serious kidney trouble followed, which all the skill of his physicians could not reach, and which caused the most excruciating pain.

Alfred was born near Bellevue, Iowa, on the 1st of October, 1888, and came with his mother to this city when three years of age, where he has since lived and where by his happy disposition and good traits of character he grew to be a favorite. While not a strong boy, he was energetic and whether at home or employed elsewhere he was never known to be an idler. He certainly gave promise of a splendid manhood, his extreme love of and dutifulness to his mother giving evidence of a noble character.

The funeral will take place this evening at 6 o'clock from the family residence on Fourth street.

It can hardly be said that the collectors today look "cool and collected;" but rather "hot under the collar."

Several hunters, who were out yesterday, report chickens numerous and from the numbers brought in we suspect they are less numerous today.

Commitment papers were made out Saturday evening for Mrs. Carrie Day, of Cascade Locks, and she was taken to the insane asylum at Salem yesterday.

June and October are not the only months in which our county clerk will grant marriage licenses. Saturday Albert Lane and Minnie Peros were made happy by a document from that office.

The Dalles will miss one of its most popular young ladies this fall, as we understand Miss Georgia Sampson has decided to spend the fall and winter in Alameda, whither she went some months since for the benefit of her health. Having greatly improved she deems it best to remain for some time at least.

Charles Alexander, a young man employed in the scouring mill, suffered a very painful accident Saturday afternoon, catching both of his hands in the heavy rollers and smashing the fingers badly. Dr. Eshelman attended the injuries and he is now getting along nicely.

Judge Bradshaw has confirmed the decision of the lower court in the case against J. Brown for committing a nuisance against J. W. Moore, and fined the defendant $40 or twenty days in the county jail. In default of payment he is an occupant of this undesirable abode, which, by the way, loses part of its terror these hot days.

We'll take it all back. That is what we said about complaining against the heat, for while it doesn't do any good, there's a heap of satisfaction in kicking when the thermometer jumps up to 102½ in this shade as it did yesterday and 100½ today. Mr. Brooks says we are catching the California heat, for it registered 110 in Red Bluff, Cal., yesterday. Portland had her hottest day of the year yesterday.

Erva, the 11-year-old son of Jeff Johnson, who lives 2½ miles from Carson, Wash., was playing with a cartridge Saturday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock when it exploded badly tearing and lacerating his left hand. His father immediately carried him to the river, placed him in a small boat and caught the midnight train for this city. Dr. Logan was called and attended to the wound, and while the boy may have a crippled hand, the Dr. thinks by careful attention it can be saved.

The number of excursionists who are daily viewing the grandeur of the Columbia is very large compared with that of last year. Every trip of the boats bring many tourists to the Cascades, the number reaching the hundreds on several occasions. Fifty Epworth Leaguers were aboard the Geo. W. Shaver Saturday. As they landed at the locks one of the party stepped forward and called for three cheers and a tiger for the crew of the boat, which was taken up heartily; and as the steamer started up the river Capt. Aiden let the whistle of the Shaver express their answer to the compliment.

The Dalles colony at Cascades entertained a number of city visitors yesterday, who tell us that that usually cool resort had a taste of the heat yesterday, the thermometer climbing up to 95 degrees. It was thought the representation from this city would not be so large this year, but the number has about reached that of last summer. Among the campers are the families of W. H. Hobson, W. E. Walther, J. A. Douthitt, J. M. Filloon, C. B. Cushing, Dr. Sanders, also Mrs. E. M. Williams and Mrs. F. T. Sampson and daughters, Frankie and Margaret, and Mrs. McIntosh and Mrs. Adams.

Visitors to our city invariably remark upon the number of pretty homes we possess. Few cities of its size excel The Dalles in this regard, and this summer has seen several added to the list. The pretty residence of J. L. Thompson, on Third street, is an ornament to that portion of the town, while that to be built by M. Randall on the bluff will be one of the most desirable in the city. The improvements made by Dr. H. Logan on the home recently purchased by him on Fourth street have made it not only beautiful to the eye, but perfect as regards comfort. A. R. Thompson is also beautifying his home on the bluff, and H. Glenn has greatly improved his residence placing a number of improvements on the exterior and fitting up extra rooms in the interior. Others are making improvements, all of which add to the general appearance of the city.

The well-known real estate firm of Hudson & Brownhill are going to open an office in Portland Sept. 1st next. Mr. T. A. Hudson, the senior member of the firm, will move his family to Portland and will take charge of the office in that city, while Mr. T. Brownhill will look after the business at this end. We believe that this is a move in the right direction, as it will bring them in closer touch with the home-seeker. It is safe to say that 95 per cent. of the prospective settlers who come to Oregon make Portland their destination, and so far as we know very few of them ever get back as far as The Dalles. It is the intention of Messrs. Hudson & Brownhill to try and secure a share of this business for Eastern Oregon. The sale of real estate in this section of the state will be their specialty, and persons who list their property with them will receive the benefit of this increased service without extra charge.

Hold Up of Mine Owners.

BAKER CITY, Aug. 4, 1901.

Further particulars regarding the hold up Saturday of Messrs S. Godfrey and Clark Taber, owners of the Red Boy mine, tends to prove that the robbers secured the bullion representing the monthly clean up of the mine. The exact amount is not known, but is usually between $25,000 and $30,000. Neither of the owners will deny or affirm that the bullion was taken, nor will they make any report of it to the county officers. One of them stated today that if the robbers should come to the mine tomorrow and ask for a square meal when the men were being fed, they could get it. They say they have decided to pocket their loss and say nothing about it. Mr. Taber said the robbers had secured enough to get away from the country on, which is taken to mean the bullion. It is pretty reliably learned that the bullion was not brought on in, and it is regarded equally positive that it left the mine. There seems little doubt that it was secured.

Three masked men did the work, but no particular description is given of them. The first reports given out were that the bullion was in a buggy occupied by Mr. Godfrey's brother and his wife, being driven ahead. It is now feared that this report is a mistake and that the mine owners have sustained a serious loss. They will offer no reward, nor make any effort to have the criminals caught, as they state that but little would be done if the matter were reported.
