

An Astonishing But True Story

My home is in Sidney, Ohio. I have been nearer death with consumption than any other living person in the world, and I want you to read this, so you can tell others. I took a severe cold and neglected it. I grew worse all the time, and at the end of two years I had run into consumption. I coughed terribly, lost flesh, could not sleep, and became so dreadfully weak that I had to take to bed. In the following eighteen months I gradually reached the last stages of consumption. No less than seven physicians treated me and all gave me up saying I was incurable. I was absolutely helpless. The whole family wore themselves out caring for me. One day mother and sister came to my bedside, and said I had but a day or two more to live. Tears rolled down their cheeks as they sobbed the news. The doctors had declared I was in the last stage, and no human being could save me. I was willing to die, but before going to the cruel grave, I wanted to go out and see my dearly beloved town of Sidney once more. They told me such a thing was impossible—that I would surely die before I got back. But I insisted, and to gratify my dying wish, a carriage was fitted up with a bed of pillows, and to this I was carried and slowly driven around Court House Square. I got home more dead than alive. Through the mercy of Providence, someone brought a trial bottle of medicine said to be a consumption cure. No one imagined for an instant it was worth trying. But as a drowning person grasps at a straw, so I tried this medicine. I was better after taking two doses. Mother got more of the medicine and I took it, improving all the time. Today I am as well as any reader of this paper, and the medicine that cured me was Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I declare before God and man that every word here printed is true.

This remarkable testimonial, on file in the office of Messrs. W. H. Hooker & Co., New York, proprietors of Dr. Acker's Celebrated English Remedy, is vouched for by them, as well as by prominent druggists of Sidney, Ohio.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles in U. S. and Canada. In England 12, 24, 36, 48, and 96.

To Inspect Arid Lands.

THE DALLES, Or., Aug. 5, 1901.

F. H. Newell, chief of the division of hypography of the interior department, and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the division of forestry of the agricultural department, arrived yesterday from Washington, via Utah and Idaho and leave tomorrow with Representative Moody, by private conveyance, for a trip through Wasco, Crook, Harney, Malheur and Baker counties.

Representative Moody's object in planning this trip was with a view of having Mr. Newell personally inspect the arid lands of his district, together with the main mountain streams tributary, for the purpose of conserving their waters for the reclamation of these barren tracts should the government finally enter upon this project, also to furnish scientific information to settlers and companies of citizens who on their own account may undertake the reclamation of such lands.

Mr. Pinchot joins the party as far as Prineville for the purpose of meeting and conferring with the stockmen interested in pasturing on forest reserves. The itinerary now planned is to arrive at Sherar's Bridge, Tuesday, Aug. 6th; at Antelope, Wednesday, Aug. 7th; at Prineville, by way of Trout Creek and Agency Plains, Thursday, Aug. 8th; at Bend or Lava on the Upper Deschutes, Friday, Aug. 9th; thence to Burns arriving there probably Monday, Aug. 12th; thence to Drewsey, Tuesday, Aug. 13th; at Westfall, Wednesday, Aug. 14th; at Ontario, Thursday or Friday, August 15th or 16th; from there by rail to Baker City, thence to Portland, Monday, Aug. 19th, where Mr. Moody will arrange a meeting for Mr. Newell with the attorneys representing the companies that have organized for the purpose of reclaiming arid lands in Eastern Oregon.

Meetings have been arranged along this route with stock growers and projectors of ditch, canal and improvement companies, and it is hoped that all interested in these matters, who have not already been notified, will arrange to meet the party at stations convenient to their respective homes or ranges.

THE GALLANTRY OF MAN.

It is Always the Beautiful Woman Who Figures in the Leading Part.

"Nothing ever happens to the ugly woman," said a cynical gentleman, who had just glanced at the newspaper notice of a social function to a New Orleans Times-Democrat man. "She must live the most prosaic life imaginable. The hostess is always a beautiful woman. The heroine is always a beautiful woman, and even in the sublimated conceptions of poetry, where facial and physical beauty generally is subordinated, the woman is always a beautiful woman. Evangeline was beautiful. Lucille was beautiful. Lucrece was beautiful—in fact, all down the line from Eve's day to this good hour, whenever a woman staggers to the center of the stage in any way, she is a beautiful woman. I have often wondered what part the ugly woman plays in life. She does not give any of the big functions. She is never the president, the secretary, or anything else in any of the women organizations of the day. She is not my sweetheart, nor yours, nor the wife of the other fellow. These are all beautiful women. Even in the more violent walks of life the ugly woman plays no part. She is never the subject of the designing villain, and the meanest pickpocket in the world would not honor her by snatching a purse from her. The fiendish fellow who delights in the mutilation of human forms would never think of picking out an ugly woman for a subject. He would rather dash vitriol or something equally destructive into the face of a really beautiful woman. He would want a victim who was bewilderingly beautiful, stupendously stunning and all that sort of thing. These reflections have convinced me that nothing ever happens to the ugly woman, and she must indeed live a very dull and uninteresting life. But really I have another solution of the matter. I do not know the ugly lady, and while I have made no special effort to peer into her place of hiding and cannot say for certain whether she is there or not, yet I am inclined to believe that there are no ugly women. They are all beautiful, and I guess this is why nothing is ever put down as happening to the ugly woman."

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Floral lotion will cure wind chapping and sunburn. Manufactured by Clarke & Falk.
