

Ice Cream and Soda At Andrew Keller's.

TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to October 17, 1898, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases after August 13, 1901.

JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE, County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

We understand that some of our country neighbors are about to embark in the churn manufacturing business.

Wanted—A second-hand buggy, with top, cheap for cash or in trade for a watch. Apply to Charles Bulley, Columbia Feed Yard.

Rev. Burton, a California evangelist, is expected to arrive here the latter part of the week and preach at the Christian church Sunday, remaining here until October.

The teachers of Wasco county will be making their way home from the various resorts about the first of September, as the institute, which all are required to attend, convenes on the 4th of the month.

Fire destroyed 150 sacks of wheat on the O. R. & N. line between Walla Walla and Pendleton. It is not known who lost the grain, but the fire is supposed to have been started by sparks from a locomotive.

From the intense heat one would imagine the thermometer had jumped beyond the 98 mark, but such was the maximum to-day, while the minimum was 62. At no time during last night did it get below 62.

The K. of P. boys give little heed to the hot weather, enjoying their meetings so thoroughly that the thermometer is forgotten. Last evening a social time was had and ice cream and cake was a part of the program most appreciated.

The foundation has been laid for the substitution of the Wasco Warehouse Milling Company adjoining the power house on Laughlin street, and work will be begun on the building as soon as the lumber, which is expected daily, arrives.

Frank Cram received a telegram yesterday from the firm with which he has accepted a position in Lewiston, and will leave tomorrow for that place. Mrs. Cram and the baby are now at Shelburne, Long Beach and will join him when the heated term has passed.

A telegram has been received by the Misses Annie and Maggie Flinn from their niece in Wisconsin saying that her mother, Mrs. Townley (mother of Chas. Townley, formerly foreman of THE CHRONICLE) had started for The Dalles before word of the death of her mother reached her. She is expected to arrive in a few days.

The two large passenger engines that have been expected for some time by the O. R. & N. Co., have arrived in Huntington from the Baldwin Locomotive Works. These engines are the largest on the O. R. & N. road and pull more than others the company has at present. The first trip of these iron horses will be made some time this week.

A report has been current for a week past that the father of Judge Bennett had died at the farm near Tygh valley. We have made several inquiries, but could hear nothing definite until today, when we were informed by a gentleman who had talked with Sam Bennett that there is no truth in the report, but that he is as well as is usual for him.

To amateur photographers Mr. H. P. Lovick, an expert in photographic manipulation, will make a demonstration of velox, the quick and easy developing paper, at the store of M. Z. Donnell on the evening of the 14th of August. Mr. Lovick will show you the difference between the right and wrong way of making pictures. All are invited. 13-2t

R. M. Johnson, stock inspector, sent from his Lone Rock ranch this week a sample of Brome grass grown there. This is the first season he has tried this variety and from the sample shown he has succeeded in growing a fine crop, it standing over 6 ft. high. Many ranchers inspected the specimen and said it was as fine a bunch of hay as they had seen in the country and the probability is that quite a few acres of soil will be devoted to this grass next year.—Condon Globe.

Two weeks from next Tuesday will be the date on which St. Mary's will begin this year's session of school. In another column will be found their advertisement giving particulars. Those who desire to send their daughters to an academy where they will have the watchful care of a mother and home comforts will do well to read their ad and make arrangements to send them when the term begins.

From officers on the Regulator we learn that nothing is known regarding the fate of Fireman Peterson farther than that he went to his berth on the lower deck at 12:15 Sunday night, and during the night the young man who slept beneath was disturbed and looking up thought he saw a figure walk out of the door near by. Looking in Peterson's bed he found he had disappeared, and it is supposed he walked out in his sleep or accidentally fell overboard. Peterson has a brother in Portland.

Our most enthusiastic fisherman has put aside his rod and with pick and shovel in hand C. L. Phillips took the train last night bound for the Greenhorn mining section, where, with O. T. Shepherd, he has five mining claims. Yesterday Mr. Phillips showed THE CHRONICLE reporter some samples of ore from his claims that certainly are enough to encourage any miner. To the naked eye the precious metal was visible all through the quartz, and Mr. Phillips says his partner writes the most encouraging reports.

It has been suggested by members of the carnival committee that the queen of the carnival be presented with a handsome diamond ring, or some such token of appreciation. While it certainly may be considered an honor to be chosen by our citizens to rule as queen, at the same time when the favored one has other duties which claim her attention (as was the case last year and is so with the majority of American girls fitted to be queen these days) the requirements become arduous and due appreciation should be shown by her subjects.

The Salvation Army hall was filled with members of the army and friends at 9 o'clock this morning when the funeral of Earl Negus, who was drowned Sunday, took place. It was a sad procession as his brothers and sisters bore him from the undertaking parlors to the hall, no relatives being present; but no more fitting burial could have been given had he been at home. Rev. Frank Spaulding, of Hood River, spoke words well suited to the occasion, as did also the captain of the army, and several of his comrades, as well as S. Johns in whose employ he had been, gave expression to their respect for him and his upright life. Many were the floral offerings placed on his grave in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Word received last evening from his mother in Nebraska, requested that he be given a Christian burial here.

The business men of Portland have subscribed $15,000 to guarantee the expense of a carnival to be held in the exposition building from Sept. 18 to Oct. 19.

A notable exhibit of all the industries of the Pacific Northwest will be made in the big exposition building, and athletic exercises, a horse show and a military tournament will be held on Multnomah field adjoining. Two full military bands have been engaged, and there will be many fine features in the amusement line.

The carnival is in charge of a committee comprising 28 representative business men of which Gen. Summers is president, I. N. Fleischer, vice-president, A. B. Steinbach, treasurer, and J. D. Mann, secretary.

With such men at the head of the affair, the carnival is sure to be well worth visiting.

Charter Members Take Notice. Mrs. N. L. Gustin, state organizer of the Knights and Ladies of Security, on the 16th of this month will organize a council of this order to be held at The Dalles Council K. & L. of S. This society pays accidental and old age claims and does not increase with advancing years. Those who wish further information will do well to call on Mrs. Gustin or C. A. Marshall at the O'Leary House. Admission as charter members one dollar; after the charter is closed, five dollars. 25-16

Sealed Bids Received. Sealed bids will be received by Dr. Siddall up to 12 noon the 15th inst., for the erection of four dwellings on the corner of Fourth and Federal streets, Dalles City. Mrs. C. L. Schmidt returned last night from camp near Carson City where her sister, Mrs. Prinz is spending the heated term. Mrs. Schmidt says that it was so cool in camp yesterday that she wore a shawl about her shoulders.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tolmie, who left about a month ago for New York, returned home this morning. While the heat in that city was not so severe as during the previous month, they found it very oppressive; probably more so in Chicago, where they spent several days. Mr. Tolmie says a visit or two to Long Beach and other resorts near would, however, make up for the heat of the city.

What Next?

The CHRONICLE in an article a year ago remarked that the Astoria people had added to holy writ by placing therein a verse which reads thusly: "The Lord made the Columbia river and all that in it is and gave Astoria dominion over it." And their actions certainly indicate that such is their belief. In every manner possible have they attempted to shut the upper fishermen off from any rights to fish therein. "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again" is their motto. The latest and most ridiculous of their attempts was divulged by the Astorian yesterday in the following article:

It has been suggested by a prominent canneryman that if Fish Warden Van Dusen hopes to obtain any definite results from his hatcheries above The Dalles and Celilo it would be an excellent thing to close the upper river against fall fishing. The fish that are passing up the river now and those that will be in the river when the present season closes next week will not be able to get above The Dalles until the fall rise in the river. They will remain in the deep holes until fall and unless some measures are taken will be caught by the up river fishermen before having an opportunity to ascend to the natural spawning grounds. Under the provisions of the Hume fishery law the fish commissioner can declare any stream in the state closed to fishing by giving thirty days' notice of such intention. The fish warden has announced that the provisions of the closed season will be vigorously enforced and it will be little avail to prevent the fish being taken here when they will certainly be caught in the upper river before being allowed to spawn.

Important Announcement.

We wish to announce to those interested in the advancement of amateur photography that Mr. Harry P. Lovick the demonstrator for the Nepara Chemical Company, manufacturers of Velox paper, will be at our store on Tuesday afternoon and evening, August 13th. He will show you how to expose and how to develop the paper so as to obtain perfect blacks and whites. Everyone is invited to bring their troubles in Velox development to him at that time. Don't forget the date. Be sure and bring your mistakes with you. Perhaps he will set you right. GEO. C. BLAKEY, Depot for fresh paper of all kinds.

OUR ARC LIGHTS.

We Will Soon Have Lights—Where They Will Be Placed.

On a visit to the electric light house this morning we were informed that the wire for the street lighting is already here, a shipment of hangers, etc., left Chicago August 24 and the lamps will leave Lynn, Massachusetts, by the 28th. Lights will be in place by the date agreed upon by the company, which we believe was October 15th.
