STILL ANOTHER WRECK.

Another appalling marine disaster has been recorded on the Skagway run, a Canadian company this time being the sufferer. Inasmuch as forty or more lives have been lost, it is one of the most serious catastrophes that has occurred since travel to and from Patton's sun proof paints for $1.50 per the north assumed large proportions. gallon, guaranteed for 5 years. tion is settling itself, so far as regards a large number of Canadians. A heavy immigration from Canada into movement in the past few years is from the United States into Canada. The influx of Canadians into this consideration. country is one of the reasons for the The Dalles, Wasco Co., Or., August slow rate of increase in population on the other side of the United States' northerly boundary. The drift in our direction will continue so long as Canada remains a dependency of a nation on the other side of the Atlantic. Even independence would not turn the tide in any perceptible degree. Nothing except political union with the United States will ever contracted by said firm.

A wonderful showing has been made by the railroad earnings for July. The increase shown by ninety four roads for the month was $6,551, 540. This exhibit is all the more remarkable when it is remembered that these increases follow large gains for the last three years, and are compared with earnings there were considered very large a year ago.
