The United Artisan assembly will have a social time this evening at their rooms in the K. of P. hall.

There are many ways to pay newspaper subscriptions, but most of them are paid with reluctance.

"You'll have to hurry" if you get those sidewalks all repaired and in good condition before fair time. Start at once.

The readers of Harpers' magazine, who were so taken with Gilbert Parker's "Right of Way" will be pleased to learn that it will be published in book form by the 20th of September.

Capt. Nelson brought the Reliance up yesterday from Portland, where she has been an inmate of Supple's hospital for disabled steamers. She is now in readiness when the demand requires her assistance.

S. W. Raper, who was arrested Saturday night for drunkenness, asked for a jury trial yesterday, and by producing six witnesses who swore he was "straight as a die," blew the city in for $6 jurors' fees, and walked away scot free.

We notice that many of our exchanges are making a specialty of mentioning phenomenal wheat yields. Now, let our farmers call at THE CHRONICLE office and give in their reports so that we can toot our horn, otherwise it tooteth not.

While working on the new residence of W. H. Crawford at Centerville yesterday before noon, S. F. French fell about twelve feet, injuring his right knee badly. He was brought to the city and Dr. Geisendorfer gave him the surgical assistance needed.

A letter from C. E. Bayard, who with Mrs. Bayard, has been spending the summer at Newport, says they will leave that place Saturday. They have been enjoying themselves immensely and Mr. Bayard's health is much improved. He says he's coming home to get warm.

Yesterday, at the advice of her physician, Mrs. L. H. Nichols, who has been very ill of stomach trouble, was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. While Mrs. Nichols was improving, it was thought best to take her where she will receive the most skilled nursing.

There is some talk of endeavoring to have a game of baseball between the league teams—Portland and Spokane—during the fair. It is to be hoped the teams can be secured as they will prove a great attraction. Dalles people seldom have an opportunity to see a good baseball game, and we are sure our visitors from the country would greatly enjoy it.

REGULATOR LINE.

On Saturday, Aug. 31st, the Regulator will leave for Portland one hour ahead of time, or 2 P. M. instead of 3 P. M.

W. C. ALLAWAY, Gen. Agt.

On Monday last while the 4 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherer, was playing about the warehouse at Biggs, where Mr. Sherer is employed, she fell from the platform, knocking two of her upper teeth far into the jaw, mashing her lip badly and cutting the lower lip to such an extent that the skin fairly dropped over the chin. Dr. Beers was called and did his best for the child, but it was thought advisable to bring her to The Dalles. Mrs. Sherer arrived with her yesterday and they are stopping at the Umatilla. Blood poisoning has developed and the child is very ill.

We were not aware that The Dalles is considered a Mecca for romantic, or for that matter, any other runaway couples; but at least one such couple evidently considered it so. About a week ago George Armstrong, aged 23, and Eva La Masters, aged 16, broke loose from all restraint and ran away from Corvallis. Word was telegraphed to our marshal to look out for them and photographs of them sent, which that officer showed to Deputy Sheriff Wood. Yesterday as the latter keen-eyed official was walking up Second street he met a suspicious-looking couple which he at once decided were the runaways and watched them enter the Union street lodging house. He then informed Champlin, who followed and interviewed them, but to no avail as neither had the least regard for the truth. Later, in company with Wood, he returned, and this time they confessed. Word was sent at once to the sheriff of Benton county, who answered that they need not be held as it had been decided it was useless to attempt to do anything with The young man left yesterday afternoon for Hood River and the young woman had left the lodging house last evening. She is without money or friends and her future may be imagined, as she seems totally devoid of any refined feelings in the matter.

Many Wheeler county people will regret to learn of the death of George Gray, the well known Heppner stock buyer, which took place at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, July 28th. He was a robust man but succumbed after a very brief illness. His trouble commenced with a gathering in one ear, and ended with meningitis.—Journal.

Another Uncle Tom's Cabin Farce.

If such a thing were possible, surely Harriet Beecher Stowe would rise from her grave in protest at the wholesale slaughter of that wonderful story which was such a factor in the abolition of slavery from the South. That every broken-down theatrical company in the land should presume upon the admiration of the people for "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by adopting that play as a last resort, seems like sacrilege of the worst character. Where these people have the advantage is from the fact that everyone goes to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Many, who object to theaters of any sort, and even refuse to attend such a splendid play as "Nathan Hale" which appeared in The Dalles last fall, flock to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and in nine cases out of ten hear a lot of the poorest actors butcher the original story until it is difficult to recognize it.

And so there was a good house at the Vogt last night, and, as usual, the audience was badly disappointed, for the fact that they had played in the Marquam and other first-class theaters was considered a recommendation. One feature which is very objectionable and an insult to the audience as well as the manager of an opera house, is the habit that poor companies have of imagining themselves in a little country town where their "superb" acting cannot be appreciated, and continually laugh while performing, instead of considering the fact that people have paid their money to see a mighty poor show at best. Then the absurdity of using a scene representing a street in some large city for a garden scene, or St. Claire telling Tom to take Eva in out of the night air when she's already in a warm parlor, and many like omissions.

We will say, however, that Charles Burns in the various characters assumed by him, showed himself a good actor, and far ahead of the remainder of the company, particularly so in the mad scene between him and Cassie. Haley, as the German character, was also good, especially so in his specialty work, and while "Marks" over-acted his character, yet he was passably good.

However, we presume if another troupe appears next week in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" they will be greeted with a crowded house.

THE BOOK EXCHANGE.

As It Will Occur In The Dalles Public Schools.

The following classes which have finished their books used last term will purchase new books of the recently adopted series at the opening of school September 9th:

READING.
1B Class—Cyr's First Reader.
2A Class—Cyr's Second Reader.
3A Class—Cyr's Third Reader.
5B Class—Cyr's Fourth Reader.

LANGUAGE.
4B Class—Reed's Introductory.
7B Class—Reed & Kellogg's Graded Lessons.

ARITHMETIC.
3B Class—Wentworth's Elementary.
3A Class—Wentworth's Elementary.
4B Class—Wentworth's Elementary.
6B Class—Wentworth's Practical.

GEOGRAPHY.
3B Class—Frye's Elements.
3A Class—Frye's Elements.
4B Class—Frye's Elements.

PHYSIOLOGY.
4B Class—Stowell's Primer of Health.

HISTORY.
5B Class—Thomas' Elementary.

7A Class—Thomas' United States.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT.
7A Class—Dole's American Citizen.

All other classes below the High school will not purchase new books or exchange now, but bring their old books to school. Instead of exchanging at present most of the classes will continue with the books they have been using until they have finished them. A few grades that cannot complete the books now in their hands within the fifteen months given for the exchange will use them as long as most benefit can be gained from their use; and then exchange before the introductory rates expire. There will be a few classes to exchange at times most advantageous to school work during the coming term and before the end of December. Due notice will be given to pupils and parents in advance so all may be prepared for the exchange.

No High school books will be exchanged now. But when subjects have been finished the new books will be bought instead of the old series. Pupils of the High school should await the purchase of new books until they have conferred with the teachers.

The above suggestions on the exchange refer to classes only. If individual pupils have old books they wish to exchange for new books of the same grade or in families who are holding books for younger children they may exchange at any time.

An effort has been made to reduce the expense of the introduction and exchange to the minimum. It will be seen that less than one-fourth of the books will be actually exchanged, the remainder being used until they are completed and the new series substituted. Considering the lower prices of the new books, the reasonable introductory and exchange rates, the cost to the district in making the change will not be great.

The Passion Play.

A large audience witnessed a biograph production of the "Passion Play," at the First Methodist church last night. The machine was operated by Prof. B. R. Dunn, and the entertainment was a success in every way. During the evening sacred music was furnished on the piano and violin by Miss Florence La Dupe and Willard Doris. Prof. Dunn opened the program of the evening by giving a number of views of the late Spanish-American war. He then gave twenty-two views from the life of Christ. The entertainment will be repeated tonight at which time forty-eight sacred views from "In His Steps" will be produced.—Salt Lake Herald, Aug. 9th.

Artisans' Attention.

Matters of special interest will come up for the consideration of every Artisan this evening. All Artisans will regret it if they are not present.
