AMERICANS LIVE LONGER.

The morality statistics for 1900. United States is increasing. This is indicated not only by the reported by the decrease in deaths from the druggist. diseases usually occurring early in If you want to retain your hair you those which are peculiar to advanced have to keep your scalp clean. Soap years.

adoption of precautionary health regulations are noticeable in the barber abop. The Dalles that deaths have decreased at the a desire to make a good showing, do agent. not report all the deaths that occur. But, as health departments in that if there is any inaccuracy in the report is the promounced decrease shown in deaths from consumption in 1900 as compared with 1890. The & Falk. deaths from this disease have fallen away at the rate of 54 per 100,000. This is doubtless due to the awakening of the public and medical mind to the ravages of this disease, resulting in the adoption of intelligent preventive methods. The fuller realization of the beneficial effects of the western climate and the increased facilities for consumptives to reach it and make their home there, is no doubt also a large factor in reducing fatalities of this sort.

What will it profit David B. Hill to get the presidential nomination in 1904 if he has William J. Bryan as an opponent on an independent 💽 ticket? The chance that Bryan will accept a nomination against Hill, Gorman or any of the other reorganizers who are personally objectionable to him, if any should be nominated, seems to be kept in mind by some of the democratic leaders. Sold by Clarke & Falk, The Dalles, Or. It would be easy for a versatile person to show that a convention in 1904 which would be in line with those of Chicago in 1896 and Kansas City in 1900 would be orthodox, while one that would be run by the reorganizers would be heterodox. Bryan could accept a nomination in 1904 from a Bryanite convention. and still be "regular." This is a circumstance which is apparently giving some concern to a few of the Cleveland democratic bosses.

Every editor makes enemies. A little squib aimed at no one in particular, will hit some hollow-headed individual, and he at once declares himself "agin" the paper. The paper may have given him many complimentary notices, but the imaginary thrust puts him on his diginity and he at once establishes himself as a Good RACING in the critic, but he basn't enough nerve to go to the editor with his supposed grievance. Just notice and you will see that the men who are Latest Attractions in New Auditorium "agin" their home paper are, as a rule, men who would not be missed if they would leave the community forever. On every question of local interest the home paper stands ready to make a fight for the best interest of the greatest number of citizens at its back .- Milton Eagle.
