TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to October 17, 1898, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases after August 13, 1901.

JOHN P. HAMPSHIRE,
County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The Oregon Stereopticon Lecture Co. Saturday night, Aug. 31, at the Vogt.

The W. C. T. U. convention will be held at Wasco on September 9th or 10th.

Forecast—Tonight and Saturday, showers and thunderstorms; cooler Saturday.

Come Saturday night and have something to talk about Sunday. At the Vogt.

The Union Meat Company will ship 1500 head of sheep to Troutdale tomorrow on the Dalles City.

All points of Oregon visited in ninety minutes, with a vocal guide while you wait, August 31st at the Vogt opera house.

Saturday afternoon the ladies of the Lutheran church will have on sale at I. C. Nickelsen's store, cakes and rye bread, also cut flowers.

The scenes alone are worth double the price of admission, but the Oregon Stereopticon Lecture Co. is traveling for its health. At the Vogt tomorrow night.

The condition of Mr. J. F. Root, who is suffering with appendicitis, is about as reported yesterday. It is not thought advisable to perform an operation as yet.

Max Vogt has set the pace and is having a new sidewalk built in front of the former location of The Dalles National bank. Who'll be the next to take up the sidewalk question.

Sam Wilkinson recently purchased the old Smith lot, adjoining Tom Haslam's residence and will soon commence a neat modern residence thereon, which will add much to that block.

"What a fuss they make about it, Grandpa!" "About what, Salley?" "About Daniel going into the lions' den. I guess it must have been the first circus they ever saw."

The aroma which greets ones nostrils as he leisurely saunters to the D. P. & A. N. wharf is, to say the least, not the pleasantest. Something should be done to prevent the sewer, which empties there, calling one's attention so loudly as they pass. It smells to heaven, but mortals down here get the benefit before it reaches there.

Finest collection of tinted views of the Northwest ever shown. Come and learn of your state, at the Vogt Saturday night.

The thermometer says 91 today. Temperature, however, often depends on temperament, and everybody decides that question for himself, no matter what the weather man says.

Rev. H. H. Wykoff, of San Francisco, has phoned he will be here and speak in the Congregational church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He will also speak at Hood River in the evening.

Patrons of Dr. Geisendorffer, who met Miss Abbie Mills during her short stay here in the capacity of trained nurse, will be pleased to learn that she will return about September 10th and resume her position in his office.

We have heard of the "House Boat on the Styx," but The Dalles has a veritable house on the sticks being built on the side of the rocky knoll back of the Christian church and apparently resting on wooden legs. It would be a splendid place for an observatory.

Wednesday night while riding horse-back down Chenoweth creek, Roy Mans was thrown off and his horse kicked him, inflicting a bad bruise. Dr. Ferguson went down and attended him, discovering he was not injured seriously. He was brought home yesterday and is getting along nicely.

Our watermelons can't be beat, as any one will declare who visits the patches near town. While the valley melons are planted in damp soil and soaked the season through, ours grow on the sides of rolling hills, without any irrigation, and, feeding on the sunlight, are finer and sweeter than any others can possibly be. This year's crop is a dandy.

This morning the committee decided to build the stables for cattle southeast of the race track, on the Stadlerman place where a pond is situated in winter. There will be 200 feet of cattle sheds and 500 feet of stables for race horses. The grand stand, which will seat over 500, will be built on the south side of the track. Work will be begun on these buildings Monday.

Mrs. Gerald Weis of Mosier was severely injured in the face and shoulder in a runaway accident Monday afternoon. She and her 12-year-old son were going down the east grade of the Mosier hill when their team started to run. Mrs. Weis jumped, but her son held to the lines till the team, came to a stop going up the opposite hill.

Hugh Gourlay, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, is sojourning at present by the seaside. It is said he proposes to stay until he gets the accumulation of scales and dirt removed that has been gathering on his cuticle during the past year, so when he returns home he may be known as the new man.—Leader. If that's the case what about the editor of the Leader and others who remain at home?

M. J. Anderson, who is in the city today from Dufur, in speaking of the apprehension concerning the failure of grain in that neighborhood, says the people were more scared than hurt; the crops were never better, nor so good. He says if it hadn't been for that little frost that frightened everybody to death, the farmers would have been compelled to rent land from other countries on which to stack their grain.

It is the intention of the committee on attractions to have an Indian day at the fair, when Lo will be bias tie. The Indians were not the least of the attractions last year, a fact which they seemed to fully appreciate, and no doubt they will have no objection to coming in larger force this year. Beside, arrangements are being made to have Indian races for men, women and children, with special prizes for each. This cannot fail to be a winning card.

REGULATOR LINE.

On Saturday, Aug. 31st, the Regulator will leave for Portland one hour ahead of time, or 2 p. m. instead of 3 p. m.

W. C. ALLAWAY, Gen. Agt.

A party consisting of F. W. Hickey, of Washington, D. C., W. C. Staats, Misses E. White, Mabel Norris and Maud Ainsworth, came up from Portland last night and early this morning made the trip to Wishram, the Indian village on the Washington side. Miss White is the official photographer for a New York art journal and is procuring Indian pictures. It will be remembered that Miss White reached the top of Castle Rock with the party who climbed it a week ago. Her house boat is still anchored there.

The fruitmen are waking up to their opportunity and have decided Commissioner Doseh shall not want for good fruit to exhibit at the Pan-American exposition. A few days since W. H. Taylor sent a crate of handsome prunes; as did also A. Anderson. Emilie Schan- no forwarded a crate to him today. Only those who have attended a like exposition realize what it means to Mr. Doseh who is besieged each day with visitors wanting to see what is new from Oregon; to be remembered by our fruit men. The express charges are paid here and a receipt is given so that the state will refund charges.

A. A. Bonney, the Wasco county stock inspector, returned Monday from a trip to Antelope and Tygh Valley. In the Antelope country Mr. Bonney found the range horses badly affected with mange. He says the stockmen will have to build vats and dip the horses like sheep in order to rid the animals of the disease. The presence of mange among the range horses of Wasco county, says Mr. Bonney, undoubtedly came from contact with the Indian ponies, which are very foul with the disease on both the Warm Spring and Simcoe reservations. Mr. Bonney reports the wheat crop in Wasco county to be the best for years, and the prospects are that the farmers will receive good prices for their grain.

In yesterday's CHRONICLE "Sydney Melbourne" called attention to the fact that William Rogers Lord is desirous of visiting The Dalles schools upon his return to Oregon and giving the boys and girls a lecture on "Birds." Every parent and teacher as well as our citizens in general, should encourage his coming. As a community we know too little about the birds, giving them absolutely no thought. As a consequence, and from the fact that they have been thought of only as prey, the birds of the United States have decreased forty per cent in the last ten years. Visitors to this coast remark upon the scarcity of bird life here, and it certainly is to be regretted. The boys should be taught to love these beautiful songsters instead of considering them legitimate prey for their sling shot. A visit from Mr. Lord would do much in this regard not only among the younger boys, but older as well, making the study of them a delight. Let us encourage his coming.

The Passion Play.

The biograph pictures of the Passion Play of Oberammergau at the First Methodist church last night brought out one of the largest crowds which has attended an entertainment in the city this year. Preceding the pictures Miss Buchanan rendered Mozart's "Minnette" upon the violin and in response to an encore rendered Schumann's "Traumerel." The entertainment will be repeated tonight with the addition of forty-seven views from "In His Steps." The evening was enthusiastically enjoyed by all present.—The Wyoming Tribune, Cheyenne, July 29.

At the Methodist church in this city September 3d.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion and biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's prize almanac. Clarke & Falk's.

In cases of cough or croup give the little one One Minute Cough Cure. Then rest easy and have no fear. The child will be all right in a little while. It never fails. Pleasant to take, always safe and almost instantaneous in effect. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

If the action of my bowels is not easy and regular serious complications must be the final result. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove this danger. Safe, pleasant and effective. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.
