

Advice of a Druggist

It is proper, I think, to let others know about the popularity and virtues of Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. From the moment I began handling it, it sold rapidly, and the sales keep growing all the time as fast as people find out what a remarkable preparation it is. The satisfaction it gives is universal. Our best citizens use it and say it is the best thing for throat and lung troubles they ever saw. Mr. S. H. Culver, one of our prominent townsmen, says Acker's English Remedy is the only medicine that helped his chronic cough of many years' standing. At first it gave relief, and now, after taking a few bottles, he is wholly cured. I buy it by the gross, at a time, and my sales are larger on this one medicine than on any other in my store. It is a great pleasure for me to feel that while I am prospering I am also doing so much good to the community in selling such a grand medicine. (Signed) R. R. DORRIS, Westfield, N. Y.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle throughout the United States and Canada, and in England, at 2s, 2s 3d, 4s, 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

A TREAT TO TEACHERS.

Such Are the Sessions of the Institute Now Being Held.

Wednesday's afternoon session opened with singing conducted by Sup't. Landers. The first discourse of the afternoon was "High School Course of Study" by J. S. Landers. He spoke of the needs of co-operation throughout the entire state. He states that our course of study is the result of a careful consideration of the courses of many other states, and lays great stress upon the study of English, calling attention to the principles of composition and literary style. He advocates with literature a course in Latin. He advocates the dropping of the teaching of history by continual study of battles, as to the average child these military tactics are incomprehensible and have rather a general brutalizing effect. He places war as a bad disease of the body politic and should no more be held up for inspection by the child than an ulcer. He defined patriotism and placed the various kinds in this order: First, duty to our Creator; second, to our Country; third, to our Home; fourth, to himself as a member of society. Also lays great stress upon loyalty to one's country; but advocates the teaching of both sides of a question.

Prof. French continued his talk upon Reading, emphasizing, again, the value of phonetic study by the pupil. He showed some very unique methods of placing "busy work" before the child. This work embraces design work in paper cutting and perforation. He exhibited some design work very well executed, by children in the schools of Rome. In his talk he illustrated the value of pictures drawn by the student, telling some story he has heard, as a test of his understanding of the selection.

This was followed by Prof. W. C. Hawley on "Physiological Psychology." He made his talk upon "that which is inside of your head." "This being all there is in the world." He illustrated the Physiological construction of the brain. The average number of brain cells developed in man is greater today than ever. This is due to our public schools. He further proves with clear statistics the superiority of cell development in the United States over that of all the rest of the world. Due to the public schools. Use develops the cells. "The great man of the world is yet to come" as no living man has ever developed all the cells contained in his brain.

The visiting teachers were given a reception at the High School building last evening by The Dalles teachers. It was an informal affair and every one enjoyed it immensely. Prof. W. C. Hawley again proving his versatility in the story telling line, kept every one laughing for an hour. Ex City Supt. Gavin was present and gave expression to some friendly badinage.

Tea was served by The Dalles teachers.

THURSDAY MORNING.

The morning was cool and slightly clouded. Session opened with singing. Attendance good. State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman came down from Baker City this morning to be with the Wasco county teachers for a short time.

Prof. W. C. Hawley again resumed his talk upon history and civil government. In brief, he treated the knowledge of the thirteen original colonies possessed by the English and French; the cause of France's aid to the colonies and the way in which this aid was secured; the struggle in this country to prevent the establishment of a kingdom which would allow our country to come under the dominant influence of Europe; the eligibility of the president, senators and representatives, and how it came to be so.

Prof. French then took up the subject of numbers, which our course of study carefully outlines. He treats the subject from the knowledge of the individual concept to the general idea. "The child is ruled through expressions." "The greater the expression the greater the power."

After a short intermission, which is always a social moment, Prof. W. C. Hawley resumed his excellent talk upon "Physiological Psychology." He again emphasizes the result of practice by quoting from Prof. Romanes:

"No change in childhood's early days. No storm that raged, no thought that ran. But leaves a track upon the clay. Which slowly hardens into man."

Honesty is acquired by practice. Dishonesty is acquired by practice. He also spoke of the power of heredity. It is the most excellent thing for the public school, the state, the United States, that so many noble, true, pure-principled young women are in our public schools. Good physiological conditions facilitate mental progress. Good food produces good thought. Skimmed milk diet produces skimmed milk thought. The student must be well fed.

Superintendent Ackerman spoke in brief of the general attendance at institutes; the general benefit derived from institute work; the cause of new law governing high school work; the benefit to be derived therein; the new law governing high school work in districts of the second and third class; nature study in the public schools.

Additional teachers in attendance: O. A. Norman, C. R. Deems, Mrs. C. R. Deems, Rachel Morgan, Bertha Robinson, Lorene Bridges, G. D. Gunnell, Maggie Finn, Margaret Reed, Cora I. Copple, Martha Wheelton, Georgia Bonney, Albert J. Smith, Blanche Davey, Mrs. M. Dutton, Bertha Williams, Mordina McLeod, Jessie McLeod, Bess Isenberg, W. H. Isenberg, W. Farrell, Itha Cheadle, J. H. Ackerman.

Portland, Aug. 10. (To the Editor)—Homer de Morrison, oculist, located by vision the ball lost from the Selby Smelting Works. In behalf of occult science he has (4146) communicated by letter the facts to Mr. A. J. Heston, owner of the Selby Works. The reports received last night prove his statements correct.

MRS. FRANCIS PARTLOW. "It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was located by vision by a Portland oculist. This proves that the story of the confusion of the thief and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a base California invention for the purpose of depriving Oregon of just glory."—(Editor Portland Oregonian.)
