

Fall Merchandising

The instantaneous response to our advertisement last week goes to show that shoppers appreciate bargains and up-to-date goods. Never had we gotten together such a collection of dainty things for ladies—and so low in price. New goods are daily arriving, and you can depend on it every article is the latest shown anywhere.

Prices that shout economy.
Cut prices that cut competition.
Prices that are a lesson to scientific shoppers.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OPEN.

New Text Books in Use—Slight Change in the List of Teachers.

The children are much in evidence on the streets today all with brand new books under their arms, and our book stores are filled with the young hopefuls preparing for the year's studies. So far we have been unable to obtain the number of pupils in attendance, but understand school opens with great promises for the year's work. A great many are unable to come in from the country until harvesting is over, when the rooms usually are filled to their utmost capacity.

A few changes have been made in the list of teachers, Miss Salina Phirman, who was unable to teach last year, again resuming her work; Miss Daisie Allaway being added to the corps of teachers, and Miss Julia Hill taking charge of her sister's classes in the High school. The assignment of teachers is as follows:

East Hill Primary School—Miss Itha Cheadle, 1b, 2b, 3b; Miss Emma Roberts, 4b, 4s, 5b.

Court Street School—Miss Salina Phirman, 1b, 1s; Miss Minnie Elton, 2b, 2s; Miss Anna Thompson, 3b, 3s; Miss Etta Wrenn, 4b, 4s.

Academy Park School—Miss Nan Cooper, 1b, 1s; Miss Maggie Finn, 2b, 2s; Mrs. Kate Roche, 4s, 5b; Miss Daisie Allaway, 5b, 5s.

High School Building—Mrs. Ellen Baldwin, Miss Louise Rintoul, Miss Tina Rintoul and Miss Minnie Michell, 6b, 6s, 7a, 8b, 8s.

High School—Mr. J. T. Neff, principal; Miss Julia Hill, assistant. J. S. Landers, superintendent.

Are Improving the Vogt.

Our theater-goers will be more than pleased to learn that the militia company are making improvements in the Vogt opera house, which will, they hope, greatly improve the acoustic properties of the building. The room will be arched, thus doing away with the square corners which it is thought have caused the difficulty. Beside, they intend to use calomine and paint in great quantities until the walls are clean and attractive. Manager Clarke has some good attractions booked for the season, among which are:

September 14—The Diamond King. Sept 25—Roscoe & Holland's Minstrels. Oct 15—Wedemann's repertoire show; a week's engagement. Oct 24—Herman, the Magician. Nov 13—Hunting for Hawkins. Nov 15—Maloney's Wedding. Nov 20—King of the Opium Ring. Dec 6—Yon Yonson. Dec 9—Wise Woman. Dec 13—Gus Sun's Minstrels. Jan 2—Stranger in a Strange Land. Jan 6—The Wrong Mr. Wright. Jan 20—For Her Sake. Jan 30—Murray & Mack. Feb 3—Valley Forge (which is said to be much like Nathan Hale). Feb 17—Guilty Mother. Feb 22—Man From Mexico. Feb 27—Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin. March 3—Human Spider. March 15—Barlow's Minstrel. March 29—Barrel of Money. April 8—Denver Express.

Several other companies are in correspondence with the manager, and we trust we may have some good plays here this winter.

Announcement.

We desire to announce to the school patrons and public generally that we have also been appointed agents for the sale and exchange of school text books. Exchange will be made at any time between September 1, 1901, and January 1, 1902. We also wish to say that we have the best line and best values in tablets, pencils, composition books and other school supplies ever opened up in this city. Your patronage solicited.

While the attendance of officers at the school officers' meeting Saturday was not what could have been wished, when it is realized that there are 272 school officers in the county, yet Superintendent Ackerman assured the promoters that the number present was the largest of any of the three meetings he has attended this year. The idea is a new one, and when the people of the district realize what a benefit these gatherings are to the county they will insist on representations from each district. The meeting was most instructive to those who attended, and its results will be seen in the future of the county schools, the speakers being men who are thoroughly versed in every department of school work. Questions were asked and answers given concerning the subjects brought up.

make an exhibit at the fair, but one night last week some heathen, or heathens, made it their business to steal every peach on the tree. Mr. Weber was not only disappointed but a mighty angry man.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford, state president of the W. C. T. U., will be in our city on Wednesday and Thursday of this week and will speak both evenings at the Methodist church. Wednesday evening her subject will be "Our Mission;" Thursday, "Mrs. Nation and Her Hatchet; Past, Present and Future." Those who have heard Mrs. Harford say she is a splendid speaker, and as all are invited to be present, "without money and without price," there will surely be a large crowd in attendance.

Voting for queen of the carnival will commence tomorrow morning, when all are at liberty to vote for their choice of our young ladies for queen, provided, that the committee reserves the right to reject any objectionable names. This plan is considered to be the most satisfactory to the largest number, and our young ladies are requested to avoid the annoyance caused last year by the withdrawal of names voted on. The voting places will be at Grant's cigar store, A. M. Williams', Pease & Mays', Blakeley's drugstore, the Umatilla House and Gumbert's cigar store.

Our neighbors down the river will be specially favored by the boat companies during the carnival and fair, both steamer lines having signified their intention of giving one fare rates to all residents along the river as far as, and including Cascades. On Portland day one fare will be given to Portlanders as well. Tuesday and Wednesday of fair week will be free one way to our Washington neighbors who attend the fair, a coupon the ferry across the Columbia river being given each one who pays gate fare, that they may cross on the return trip free of charge. Rates will also be given on the O. R. & N. and Columbia Southern.

While on board the vessel bound for the Philippines, many of the teachers were interviewed as to their impression of Hawaii. Among them was Miss Ruth Cooper, of this city, who said: "I have seen many pictures of Hawaii, touched in color; I had supposed the coloring overdone, for I could not believe that the reality actually existed; I did not suppose for a moment that nature could live up to such colorings. I am simply charmed with everything, and I think the drive to the Palis one of the most magnificent that there can be in the world. It has all been one grand dream and I am constantly pinching myself to see if I am awake. The courtesy of the people, American and native alike, is charming; we have found them very cordial and courteous."

that appointments no doubt have been delayed.

A wedding cake in the window of Keller's bakery is attracting much attention and many are inquiring which of the long list of benedicts in The Dalles, in the near future, is to claim the cake. We have it from headquarters that Arlington "takes the cake," not The Dalles.

Some weeks ago THE CHRONICLE called attention to a sidewalk in our city that was badly in need of repairs, several persons having just escaped injury while walking over it. So far nothing has been done to improve it. If it is not the property owner's place to repair it, then the city should take it in hand.

St. Mary's Academy starts out in flourishing condition this year, new pupils entering each day. The same course of study which is followed in Portland is taken up here and therefore our Eastern Oregon people are patronizing the school here. The number of pupils in instrumental music this year is particularly large.

Saturday Deputy Fish Warden H. Boltman and Game Warden L. S. Fritz, in company with Deputy Sheriff Wood, went down the river and arrested August Heilberg for illegal trap fishing in the Columbia. He was brought to the city and his case came up in Justice Brownhill's court this morning. He was fined $50 and costs.

Know all men by these presents, that the editor of THE CHRONICLE arrived home today and will "take his pen in hand" tomorrow to resume his duties on this family journal. If any, therefore, have grievances to settle, apply to headquarters. But should there be any luscious fruit to test, or any favors to bestow, the reporter is always ready to serve on a committee of reception.

Waucoma Park addition recently put on the market by H. C. Coe, has been bought in by John Leland Henderson, Mrs. N. C. Evans, Simeon Bolton, Wasco county's deputy county clerk, and Fred Wilson, of The Dalles; consideration, $2,000. The land consists of six acres just south of the public school building. The tract has already been platted. It will be placed on the market immediately.—Glacier.

The picture of Emma Goldman, the high priestess of anarchy, given in yesterday's Oregonian, disturbed the quiet of the Sabbath to many a reader of that paper, who could not gaze on the detestable countenance with feelings in keeping with the day. It would seem that it were quite as well to suppress all these anarchistic photographs, at least, from our papers, for are not their faces a veritable index of their souls?

Mr. Gifford showed us a picture yesterday which was a "peach." It was a photograph of an immense peach called "Weber's Prize," and it certainly was a prize. Mr. Weber is introducing the variety here and had been planning to

What is so rare as a day in September, particularly in Eastern Oregon? No one could ask for more perfect weather than that of yesterday and today. Everyone seems to be enjoying it to the fullest extent, and our streets have been filled with people all day.

It was expected that word would be received today concerning the various appointments of the Methodist conference now in session at Walla Walla. So much time, however, has been taken up with the trial on hand in that body
