Miss A. E. Landon, Western Union telegraph operator, was chosen by the committee of United Artisans as their candidate for queen of the carnival, and that she will be supported goes without saying.

Semi-annual opening of fall millinery at the Campbell & Wilson Millinery Parlor Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 10th and 17th. Up-to-date styles and all the latest novelties will be shown. A general invitation is extended. 4t

C. L. Phillips, the chicken man, recently received two new incubators from the East, which he warmed up this morning and set to work to hatch out fourteen dozen eggs at a clatter. Mr. Phillips says he will have a number of incubators and brooders at work during the carnival, and it is a safe prediction that the operations will be an interesting center of attraction.

The next meeting of the Oregon Wool-Growers' Association will be held in Heppner Tuesday, September 17th, at 10 a. m. It will pay sheepmen to be present as matters of much importance to stockmen will come before the meeting.

The Seventh Regiment U. S. Infantry band, of Vancouver, Wash., will make a round trip to The Dalles next Sunday, September 15th., on steamer Bailey Gatzert. While the boat is at The Dalles the band will favor the public with some of their popular airs. 3t

Mr. E. L. Fain, of Weatherford, Tex., was united in marriage, at 11 o'clock this forenoon at the residence of the bride's parents, to Miss Carrie St. John, Rev. U. F. Hawk officiating. The bride and bridegroom left on the afternoon train for Weatherford, where they will make their future home.

There probably never was a time in the history of The Dalles when labor was in greater demand at better wages than it is at this moment. The representative of a Portland employment agency stands daily at the office of the D. F. & A. N. Co. offering men $2.25 a day to work on the Portland, Vancouver and Yakima railroad. He wants 500 men, and judging from his present progress he won't find half that number till the snow flies. A road master, east of town, wants a number of men and offers $1.75 a day, with $16 a month board, while men are in urgent demand by other parties for digging holes and planting telegraph poles. When the harvest is over it is possible that the demand may be supplied.

"Charley Shackelford," a pioneer resident of The Dalles, is suffering untold agony from having a big rusty nail run into his hind foot. Charley is only a horse, but should his injury prove fatal his demise will cause more sorrow in The Dalles than would that of some of its inhabitants. "Charley" is owned, as everybody knows, by Dr. W. E. Shackelford and he is so well known in the city that only a day or two ago a former visitor to The Dalles, who saw the animal standing in front of the Donnell drug store, remarked to Mr. Donnell that the last time he was here, twenty years ago, Charley was standing in the same place where he found him now. It may not be theologically au fait to pray for Charley's recovery, seeing he is only a horse, but the people of The Dalles will be delighted just the same to know of the animal's recovery and to see the faithful and intelligent brute again on his old haunts.

For Sale.

Special Meeting of the Council.

At a special meeting of the council held last night it was ordered that a warrant, numbered 2228, and drawn in favor of J. P. McNerny, be canceled because of a discrepancy between the amount on the face of the warrant and that on the stub.

The committee of streets and public property were ordered to confer with the county court with reference to having repairs made on the Fourth street bridge.

A motion prevailed condemning the Federal street sewer, excepting from the condemnation the private sewer of Max Vogt.

A like motion prevailed condemning the Laughlin street sewer.
It was ordered that general ordinance No. 312, an ordinance regulating peddlers' licenses during the coming fair, be placed on file. This ordinance provides that every person or association of persons who shall peddle for sale, or offer for sale on the streets of Dalles City any goods, wares or merchandise, except farm and dairy produce, shall pay for the privilege the sum of $5 per day.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of R. B. Gilbreth & Sons for a bill of lumber amounting to $5.40.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. D. Whitten, of Kingsley, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gourlay.
Attorney W. H. Parker, of Medford, Oregon, is registered at the Umatilla House.

Attorney John H. Middleton, of Portland, was in town today attending to business in Judge Bradshaw's court.

Mr. H. M. Eddings, of Portland, is here on a visit to his sister, Miss Eddings, of the Elite millinery parlors.

Walter Klindt, who has been on a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klindt, left on the noon train for his home in Eastern Washington.

Miss Mamie Buchler has returned from a three-months visit with friends in Monterey, California. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tibbets.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 11-2 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. G. C. Blakeley will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

Stock Hogs For Sale.

I have for sale 44 head of stock hogs, consisting of brood sows, shotes and pigs, at my place on Eight-Mile.

Attempt to Rob a Chinaman.

A bold attempt was made, at a little after dark last night, to rob Fong Nam, the Chinaman who runs a vegetable garden near the E. F. Laughlin residence on the bluff. Two men entered the Chinaman's shanty and, seizing him, bound his hands and feet with ropes and gagged his mouth with some clothing that they found in the shanty. Following this action one stood guard outside the door of the shanty while the other ransacked it for what money they could find. In this search they were completely disappointed. There was no money in the shanty, save a little silver in the pocket of a pair of pantaloons, which hung on a nail, and even this the robbers missed.

After the robbers had satisfied themselves that no money was to be had, they loosed the ropes that bound the Chinaman's mouth and vanished into the night.

The cries of the Celestial, after he was engaged, brought a neighbor to the scene, who loosed the ropes that bound his hands and feet and set him free. The marshal was notified, and Officer Paulsen hurriedly visited the scene of the attempted robbery, but all efforts to identify or trace the robbers were vain.

This morning the lacerated mouth and swollen neck of the Chinaman bore unmistakable evidence of the rough treatment he received at the hands of his assailants last night.

It is possible the would-be robbers were local artists who knew something of the Chinaman's business, for the Celestial yesterday collected quite a little sum of money from his customers, which he disposed of in some way known only to himself.

"East Lynne."

"East Lynne," a play that will live forever, comes to the Vogt on Wednesday, September 18th, for one night only. The question is often asked, why is it that people never tire of "East Lynne"? The answer is, "Because it has so much heart interest; because it is a life story, the story of a woman who had loved and lost." And it is without question the greatest emotional play of the present generation, a drama in which the most famous actors and actresses in the country have appeared and which stands today the most powerful theatrical magnet in America.

The company that will present "East Lynne" is headed by one of the greatest emotional actresses of the present day, a beautiful woman who has reached the very zenith of her profession in the character of Lady Isabel. The supporting company embraces some of the best actors and actresses that have ever been seen in the West, and the production will be a noteworthy one. People who desire seeing this play would do well to secure their seats early, as the house is practically sure to be crowded.

Still Improving.

The following bulletins were issued today by the physicians of the president:
At 9:30 a. m., Buffalo time: The president passed a quiet and restful night and has taken much nourishment. He feels better this morning than at any time. He took a little solid food this morning and retained it. Pulse, 122; temperature, 100.

At 3 p. m.—The president's condition is very much the same as this morning. His only complaint is fatigue. He continues to take a sufficient amount of nourishment. Pulse, 126; temperature, 100 2
