

The Story of "East Lynne."

"East Lynne" comes to the Vogt opera house on Wednesday, September 18th, for one night. The story of the play is an interesting one and one that teaches a moral not found in any other known drama. The story of the drama:

Sir Francis Levison, a man of fashion, commits a murder, for which an innocent man, Richard Hare, is suspected and arrested. Richard retains as counsel Archibald Carlyle, a rising young lawyer. Mr. Carlyle has just married Lady Isabel, the daughter of an earl who is in impoverished circumstances. After the marriage Lady Isabel's jealousy is wrought upon by the clandestine interviews between Barbara Hare, Richard's sister, and her husband, Archibald Carlyle. The interviews are merely concerning the defense of Richard in the murder trial, but Lady Isabel, in ignorance of this, misconstrues their purpose, and being goaded on by her lover, Sir Francis Levison, consents to an elopement with the latter.

A few years pass, and Archibald Carlyle has secured a divorce from his wife and marries Barbara Hare. In the meantime Lady Isabel, being badly treated by Sir Francis, leaves him (he having neglected to keep his promise and make her his wife). She learns of the serious illness of her little son, who is at the home of his father, Archibald Carlyle, and the latter's new wife, and determines to apply for the position of nurse that has been advertised for the little one she can be by the bedside of her boy in his last moments. Disguising herself as Madam Vine she secured the position, but overcome by the death scene of her boy she throws off her disguise and reveals herself to him as his mother. She is discovered by Joyce, a former ladymaid of her's, but Joyce consents to keep her secret. It leaks out, however. Miss Corney, the quaint spinster sister of Archibald Carlyle, gets to know it and, through her instrumentality, although odd and eccentric, but having an excellent heart, a reconciliation is brought about at the deathbed of Lady Isabel.

The plot also shows how Sir Francis Levison meets his deserts by being brought to justice as the real murderer, thus securing the acquittal of Richard Hare. The part of Lady Isabel abounds in strong dramatic passages and thrilling scenes, and the late Lucie Western, one of the very best actresses America ever produced, made it the strongest part in her repertoire. Sir Francis Levison and Archibald Carlyle are also strong parts, while Miss Corney Carlyle, in the hands of a capable actress, will keep an audience convulsed with laughter at her eccentricities.
