NEW PRESIDENT'S POLICY ANNOUNCED

Lines Developed by President McKinley Will Be Closely Followed by Mr. Roosevelt.

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—President Roosevelt has outlined, in some detail, the policy he will follow during his incumbency of office. When he took the oath of office he stated with much definiteness: "It shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace (and he emphasized that word), prosperity and honor of the country."

Yesterday the president gathered together some personal friends in Buffalo and those members of the cabinet who were here, and gave to them such ideas as he had already formulated for the conduct of public affairs and his own policy. In no sense were they divergent from what has been understood as Mr. McKinley's policy. Among the features of this policy as outlined to the president's friends are:

A more liberal and extensive reciprocity in the purchase and sale of commodities, so that the over production of this country can be disposed of by fair and equitable arrangements with foreign countries.

The abolition entirely of commercial war with other countries and the adoption of reciprocity treaties.

The abolition of such tariffs on foreign goods as are no longer needed for revenue, if such abolition can be had without harm to our industries and labor.

The establishment of direct commercial lines between the eastern coast of the United States and the ports in South America, and the Pacific Coast ports of Mexico, Central America and South America.

The encouragement of the merchant marine and the building of ships which shall carry the American flag and be owned and controlled by Americans and American capital.

The building and completion as soon as possible of the Isthmian canal, so as to give direct water communication to the coasts of Central America, South America and Mexico.

The construction of a cable owned by the government, connecting our main land with our foreign possessions, notably Hawaii and the Philippines.

The use of conciliatory methods of arbitration in all disputes with foreign nations, so as to avoid armed strife.

The protection of the savings of the people in banks and in other forms of investments, by the preservation of the commercial prosperity of the country and the placing in positions of trust of men of only the highest integrity.

Coolidge Arrested Six Years Ago.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Leon Coolidge was arrested six years ago at Durres, Pa., charged with an attempt to blow up the house of a Polish Catholic priest, according to a special from Scranton, Pa., to the World. Many sticks of dynamite with caps and wires were found in his trunk. The same special says: "When the news of President McKinley's death was reported the anarchists held a big celebration."

Postoffice to Close.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Acting Postmaster-General Shallenberg, today issued the following order: "Out of respect to the memory of our late president, all postoffices will be closed Thursday, September 19th, after 10 o'clock a. m."

BORNE TO THE CAPITOL

Remains of the President Taken From Buffalo—Large Crowds Along the Route.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Through a living lane of bereaved people stretching from Buffalo up over the Alleghenies down into the broad valleys of the Susquehanna and the city on the banks of the shining Potomac, the Nation's martyred president today made his last journey to the seat of the government over which he presided for four years and a half. The whole country seemed to have drained its population at the sides of the track over which the funeral train passed. The thin lines through the mountains and the sparsely-settled districts thickened as the little hamlets suddenly grew to the proportions of respectable cities, and were congregated into vast multitudes in the largest cities. Work was suspended in field and mine and city. The schools were dismissed. Everywhere appeared the trappings and tokens of woe. Millions of flags and half-dressed doctored hillsides and valleys, and formed a thicket of color over the entire land from almost every banner streamed a bit of crepe. The stations were heavy with the black symbol of mourning. At all the larger towns and cities, after the train got into Pennsylvania, militiamen drawn up at "present arms" kept back the enormous crowds. The silence with which the countless thousands viewed the remains of their hero and martyr was oppressive and profound.

Only the rumbling of the train wheels, the sobs of men and women, with tear-stained faces and the solemn tolling of the church bells, broke upon the ear. At several places, Williamsport, Harrisburg and Baltimore, the citizens played Cardinal Newman's grand hymn. Taken altogether, the journey today was the most remarkable demonstration of national personal sorrow since Lincoln was borne to his grave. Every one of those who came to pay their last tribute to the dead had an opportunity to catch a glimpse of the flag covered her casket in view in the observation car at the end of the train.

Alleged Anarchists in Jail.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—Five men were arrested in Fairmount Park last night charged with conspiring against the laws of the country by attempting to hold an alleged anarchist meeting. At first they denied that there was to be any meeting, but when they were confronted by a postal card, signed by one of them, calling for a meeting in the park, they claimed that the gathering was not to be of an anarchistic nature. The call was issued by the North-western branch of the socialist party. They were held in $600 bail each for a further hearing. The men arrested are C. F. Scheide, Arthur Shaw, Conrad Warner, John Ewing and Fred Miller.

Orphan Caught Fire.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Sept. 16.—The dress of Miss Florence Winnifred, of King's Valley, caught fire at the Burton hopyard, two miles north of this city, late Saturday evening, and burned her in a terrible manner. She was immediately brought to this city, where medical aid could be secured, and there is a probable chance of her recovering. She is about eighteen years of age, and owing to her parents being in meager circumstances, a purse of $75 was made up in the hopyards and turned over to them.
