PUT THEM OUT AND KEEP THEM OUT ..

"Put them out and keep them out," is the legend at the bottom of a cartoon in the New York Tribune, in which Justice, with a drawn sword, points to an anarchist standing in front of a substantial edifice representing civilization, with a dagger inscribed "murder" in one hand, a lighted bomb in the other and a copy of Emma Goldman's speeches and writings protruding from his pocket.

"Put them out and keep them out" says Justice, as she stands carry out any obligations made by their at the open portals of the temple of firm. liberty and points abhorrently at the miscreant and assassin. Ay, put them out and keep them out. This is the universal sentiment of Ameri can civilization. If the constitution stands in the way change the constitution, but put them out and keep them out.

We have numerous islands in the far Pacific which can be denuded of permitted to experiment with their lawless creed to their heart's content. Let them have abundance of food to start with so that physical weakness ideas of liberty. Give them guns and daggers and dynamite and rope, inflame the mind and incite enthusasm to the pitch of yellow madness. Give them, besides, the implements Then draw a cordon around the island and let no man escape for Will any less drastic measures ever
