PERSONAL MENTION.

Ed Clanton, a merchant of Bickleton Klickitat county, is in the city.

The Earl of Taffe, who is known in the society circles of Ceillo as the duke of that ilk, was in town today shaking hands with his numerous friends.

U. S. Grant, of Dallas, Polk county, brother of B H. Grant, of this city, and secretary of the Angora Goat Association of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California, is in the city on an inspection visit to the angora goat band of H. C. Martin, of this county, the only flock of these animals in the county.

Mr. Van Anda and wife returned home last night from spending the summer in Grant county; Mr. Van Anda on a croising trip for the Eastern Oregon Land Company, and Mrs. Van Anda at the Hot Springs. They were seven days on the road between Prairie City and The Dailes, and are naturally delighted to get bac: to God's country.

J. H. Hadley, a pioneer resident of the Boyd neighborhood who has resided at Glenwood, Klickitat county, for some fifteen years past, has sold out his ranch and stock at Glenwood and returned with his family to Wasco county with the intention of buying a home in The Dalies and making his permanent resi-dence here. Mr. Hadley is a good citi-248 and his numerous former Wasco county friends gladly welcome him back.

Mr. Brooks at the Pan-American.

Under date of September 9:h Mr. S. L. Brooks, of this city, writes THE CHRONICLE that two days previously he and Mrs. Brooks had arrived in Buffalo and had just then returned to their Lotel from a visit to Niagara Falls and vicinity. He says: "We have had a delightful trip. One cannot comprebend the magnitude of excellence of the Pan-American exposition. The illumination of nights is the most beautiful eight I ever witnessed. Just think of 436,000 electric lights all shining at one time. Truly it is like a fairy land. I cannot write you much now, but shall later on. We are very well and our trip from start to finish has been one of continuous pleasure. We expect to go over to Toronto Saturday. I met B. S. Pague See tomorrow's issue of The Chronicie and family last evening. He is very, for particulars. By order of very loyal to Oregon. By the way, Oregon's exhibit is very fine. Dosch deserves more credit than Oregonians will give him. He is the 'Boes of the Road' in the exposition. Oregon is all right. The East is a unit for the immediate annihilation of the whole body of 'Reds' down to Herr Most and Emma Goldman, who was arrested today. The universal sentiment is 'No Quarter.' " would agree with me that the Oregon exhibit is all right. There is nothing charm. Finder will please leave the tacking in our display of minerals, timber and lumber and agricultural products, but in fruits our people at home are not exerting themselves in that particular. The exhibit is very Baker's marble and granite works. 10tf faulty, owing to the lack of receipts of fresh stock to keep up the interest with the visitors. Why don't they send more and better fruits, potatoes, egg plant, etc. There is nothing freeh; gallon, guaranteed for 5 years. The basement of the Methodist church Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy. looked very inviting in its pretty cozy decorations last night as a large number of members and friends of the church gathered to give their pastor and his wife a farewell party previous to their departure for Colfax, Wash. After a short program, Dr. Eshelman, in behalf of the members of the choir, read a tribute to Mr. Hawk, expressing their gratitude for the interest and sympathy which he has manifested in their work. N. Whealdon next spoke in behalf of the street. members and friends of the church. His remarks were well chosen and sincere as he assured Mr. Hawk of the appreciation which all feel for the work indebted to the late firm of R.

To his nephew, Mr. E. J. Collins, Mr.
