RESTORE THE VIGILANTES

How John W. Mackay Would Deal With the Anarchists.

New York, Sept. 16.—"Anarchists should be dealt with severely," said John W. Mackay in an interview last night. "We never had so good a government in San Francisco and Virginia City as during those years when the vigilance committee were in control. Every offender was tried by a jury of twelve good men, and if found guilty executed on the spot. Bad characters left the country instantly on receiving warning from the committee. It did not have to be repeated."

"I hope the newspapers and public officials will urge immediate action. This shooting down of good men like President McKinley is a serious matter. It makes no difference how brave a man may be some cowardly assassin may shoot him from a roof at some unexpected moment. Guards amount to nothing. Men have been assassinated in the midst of their soldiers. Summary justice properly executed will do the work. Drive the anarchists out of America. Hang every one of them caught in these crimes without delay. Let the movement begin with vigorous action on the part of the community and they will disappear when they find we mean business. Every anarchist arriving in this country should be sent back by the next steamer. The European police will attend to them. They are shadowed everywhere and they should be kept over there—hunted down and promptly exterminated."

"The time has come for business men to take hold of this matter and settle it in good shape. There should be no half-way measures. Let the papers help the movement along, force congress to make a proper law at the earliest moment and have officials see that it is executed. Public sentiment will do the rest. The country will sustain such a movement and I make anarchism a thing of the past."

Sensible Words of English Judge.

New York, Sept. 17.—After forty-eight hours' discussion of the Buffalo tragedy, public opinion in England asks the question whether America will tolerate another Guiteau scandal when McKinley's murderer is brought up for trial, says the London correspondent of the Herald. Lynch law, as applicable to this wretch, was never so nearly popular in England, all classes agreeing that short shift is the only fitting justice. From one of His Majesty's judges your correspondent is able to give the substance of the highest legal opinion here as to what the Buffalo courts ought to do.

"This ought to give America the chance to shake off the incubus of too much legalism," said the judge, "and by legalism I mean straining the law to defeat its own purpose. In criminal trials it seems to be the main object of the American courts to discover a jury who will liberate the prisoner—not carry out the law. Abundant questions are asked whether the venemen or jurors have read about the case; whether such reading has led to the formation of opinion on the merits of the case so as to prejudice the verdict; whether they are acquainted with the prisoner or victim. The absurd straining for loopholes, which the courts appear to encourage, is, in my opinion, the first step toward anarchy."

In this connection it is reported that a famous criminal lawyer of New York, who left London on a sudden call Saturday, has been summoned to Buffalo to defend Guiteau. This does not indicate that the murderer is absolutely friendless, but on the contrary that he is merely the tool of an organization with funds behind it.

ON THE VERGE OF COLLAPSE

Mrs. McKinley, Apparently, Is Breaking Down—Friends Seriously Alarmed Weaker Than At Buffalo.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The friends of Mrs. McKinley are seriously alarmed about her. They speak with grave apprehension of the days that are soon to come, when she will be borne up no longer by her sense of duty and the sustaining force of her desire to perform her full part in the ceremonies that the National character and tragic end of her distinguished husband made appropriate. They dread the approaching days in the quiet of her home at Canton, where her beloved "Major" will not be near to comfort her in the reaction that will follow inevitably after the present shock. It is believed that she will be able to go through the services at Canton without too great difficulty, but, ultimately, a collapse is greatly feared. At present her condition justifies the hope that there will be no breakdown, at least until the final offices have been paid to the dead.

This evening, Mrs. McKinley is considerably weaker than when at Buffalo, but continues to bear up with great fortitude. This afternoon she gave vent to her grief more freely than at any time since the tragedy. She sobbed and cried for a long time, and these paroxysms of grief sapped her strength to quite a degree. Dr. E. Roy was with his patient several times during the day and spent quite a little while with her late in the afternoon. After his last call he said he was fairly confident of Mrs. McKinley's ability to take part in the services at Canton. She has had a long and severe shock, however, in order that she may become gradually accustomed to the change wrought in her life by the sad death of the president. It is probable that Secretary Cortelyou and Dr. E. Roy will remain in Canton for some time to soothe and comfort the widow in the grief and terror that must come when, in her old home, she gradually realizes in its fullest degree that her main support and comfort in life has been taken away.

If you are going to the Portland ex-nival or to the state fair at Salem, take the Bailey Gatzert, leaving The Dalles at 3:30 p. m., and view the grandest scenery in the world. Music, meals and the most commodious boat on the river. It is a pleasure to ride on this boat. Passengers visiting Portland can, if they wish, secure sleeping accommodations and remain on the Bailey Gatzert over night, which would save them going immediately to a hotel on their arrival in Portland. 15c-17

Tumwater Folk Indignant.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 18.—The people of Tumwater are indignant over an incident that occurred in that little burg last Sunday. The town has a union Sunday school, and several women act as teachers. One of the women has strong views on economic subjects, that evidently border on anarchy, judging by what is alleged against her at the last session of the Sunday school. Referring to the assassination of President McKinley, she excused the part Emma Goldman is supposed to have taken in the affair, and went into that feature of the case to a considerable degree, always holding up the Goldman end of the matter. The result has been that several parents have taken their children out of the Sunday school and that the particular teacher will probably be displaced. The affair has caused considerable comment and no little criticism.

Preacher Got Off Easy.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Sept. 17.—Joseph A. Wildman, a United Brethren minister, was tarred and feathered by a crowd of 100 last night because, on Sunday night, he rose in a prayer meeting in one of the city churches and said: "I suppose there have been more lies told from the pulpit and sacred desk today than were ever known here. While I want to give all honor that is due Mr. McKinley, still, when he was living he was nothing but a political demagogue." Wildman has no regular charge.
