

Morr Most Arraigned.
 New York, Sept. 20.—Johann Morr, editor of Freiheit, who was arrested last week on a charge of having published a seditious article in his paper, was arraigned for pleading today in the court of special sessions. When asked by Justice Holbrook if he had a lawyer, Morr replied he had not and believed he did not need one.
 "I can defend myself," he said. "I wish to plead not guilty."
 "We will have no spectacular work here," said Justice Holbrook. "Your case will go over, and when it is called you will appear with a counselor to appear in your defense."
 Morr attempted to speak further, but was instantly silenced and removed from the courtroom. He is at liberty on $1000 bail.

Roosevelt Coming.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Commissioner Hermann arrived in Washington today, and called on President Roosevelt. In the course of his conversation, the president told the commissioner he intended to visit Oregon and Washington next spring, in order to become better acquainted with the people of that section. Roosevelt desired to visit the Pacific Northwest during the last campaign, but his services as a speaker were desired elsewhere.
 Commissioner Hermann attended the McKinley memorial services at Chicago the day of the funeral of the president.

Counsel For Czolgosz.
 BUFFALO, Sept. 21.—Former Justice Loran L. Lewis and Robert C. Titus, of the supreme court, today accepted their assignment as counsel to defend Leon F. Czolgosz, indicted for murder in the first degree for killing President McKinley. They at present know of no reason why they will not be ready for trial next Monday, when District Attorney Penny moves the case for trial in the supreme court, whence it was transferred today by order of Judge Emery, in the county court, who also appointed Carleton E. Ladd, law partner of Judge Titus, to assist in the defense.

 Located by Vision.
 Portland, Aug. 10.—(To the Editor).—Homer de Morrison, occultist, located by vision the bill stolen from the Selby Smelting Works. In behalf of occult science he immediately communicated by letter the facts to Mr. A. J. Ealston, owner of the Selby Works. The reports received last night prove his statements correct.
 MRS. FRANCIS PARTLOW.
 "It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was located by vision" by a Portland occultist. This proves that the story of the confession of the thief and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a base California invention for the purpose of depriving Oregon of just glory."—(Editor Portland Oregonian.)
