

Style...

The element of style enters more largely every year in the determination of the value of clothing. Without it the best efforts of the retailer are wasted.

PEASE & MAYS' perfect-fitting clothing not only embraces the season's advanced patterns and fabrics but the workmanship—the merchant-tailor kind is there, the kind that breeds confidence and makes a man look stylish and up-to-date.

Guaranteed all-wool suits from $8.00 to $25.00.

New Stiff Hats, New Monarch Shirts.

Underwear from $1.00 to $8.00 per suit.

Umbrellas from 75c to $3.50.

Smart Looking

is the woman who comes down the street with a trim-fitting pair of street boots, made on a mannish last. Her tread is firm and solid, because the soles extend and are broad on the bottom. She is indeed a sensible woman. Box calf, red kid, all sizes and widths; some with extension soles and top stitch, the typical mannish shoes, so stylish and sensible.

Special good values at $2.50, $3, $3.50 and $4.

PEASE & MAYS.

Congregational Churches.
The state association of Congregational churches for Oregon convened in this city today at 2 o'clock. It was expected that seventy-five delegates would be in attendance. Among the Congregationalists rank some of the ablest preachers on the coast.

The sessions will begin at 9 a. m., 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. The work of the association will close at noon Thursday. The public is cordially invited to be present at all the sessions.

Dr. Wallace, who will preach the association sermon this evening, is one of the strongest men in the ranks of the Congregationalists of Oregon. The following is the program for today:

Particularly LADIES....

Have you heard about the new wrinkles in shoes? They are very numerous, but we have all of them that are worth having. We have selected the newest, the most fashionable and popular styles for fall and winter wear, and have them on stock and ready to show.

At $5.00

We have a Pingree Vogue, the height of fashion, made of patent kid. Wide extension edges and yellow rope stitch, and the new Ouban heel.

At $3.50 and $4

We carry a very large line of stylish lace in box calf, velour calf and viol kid uppers. They are original and exclusive and not shown anywhere in the city but at A. M. Williams & Co's.

At $2.50 and $3

We are showing styles you cannot help being well pleased with. We carry them in every size and width, which makes it possible to give you a perfect fit, thereby adding to the wear of the shoe as well as promoting comfort. Every pair is guaranteed—your money back if you want it.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Richards & Pringle's minstrels at the Vogt opera house tonight.
No. 1 wheat still keeps at 50 cents a bushel in this market.
Don't forget the excursion to the Portland carnival on Bailey Gatzert Wednesday, Sept. 25th.
A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to E. Benson and L. M. Tostevin, of Hood River.
Excursion! Excursion to Portland on Bailey Gatzert, Wednesday, Sept. 25th. Don't forget the date. Tickets good for six days.
Mr. Silas H. Soule, piano tuner, will be in The Dalles the last of the week for the fall work. Leave address at Eichen's music store.
M. Z. Donnell and J. T. Rorick took a drive to Celilo today to confer with the Indians of that place with reference to getting them to participate in the Indian village entertainment at the coming carnival.
S. J. Brown, the wood saw man, had the misfortune yesterday to have three fingers of his right hand come in contact with the saw which cut them to the bone, but fortunately did not injure them permanently.
Secretary Williams, of the district fair, reports that against this evening the race track and grounds will be ready for business, the fence around the track and the grand stand will be completed and all the last of the buildings will be ready for occupancy.
The Pomological Society of America, the highest authority in fruit in America, has awarded the Wilder medal to the state of Oregon for horticultural exhibit at the Pan-American exposition. This is the highest honor that can be bestowed on American fruits.
J. H. Friesman, of the Columbia Packing Company, committee of the state meet made in preparing the Committee to meet the fact that he had paid a price of $15 cents a pound for some 300 odd head of cattle owned and brought by him in Crook county on auction. He says the price was $1.20 for a pound

$3.40 for steers. THE CHRONICLE willingly makes the correction. However it got its information from a Crook county cattle man whose word it had no reason to doubt.
Miss Christine Nickelson will give instruction in embroidery and plain sewing on Wednesday and Saturday of each week, from 2 till 5 o'clock. Wednesdays will be devoted to adults and Saturdays to children. Apply at her residence on Alford avenue. a24 1w
A Prineville paper of last Saturday says: "Dr. C. A. Cline will start tomorrow for The Dalles with his famous race horse, Barnato. He expects to put him in training for the races at that place. Barnato, when in shape, can run with the best of them."

Justice Brownhill last night, for the first time in his life, had an attack of genuine old-fashioned gout in the joint of the big toe of his right foot. The judge has the profound sympathy of THE CHRONICLE, even if all his friends do laugh at his calamity.
Those intending to have booths or floats at the carnival are requested to call on Kelly & Lawton for designs and models; also for sign painting, decorations, etc. J. E. Hardy will work in connection with Kelly & Lawton during the carnival and give special prices on sign painting.
A general conference of all the carnival and fair committees was held in the club rooms last night and well attended. The meeting was for mutual counsel and advice and the several reports showed that the committees were all working like beavers for the one object of success.

The carnival committee on accommodation say that while a goodly number of citizens have reported that they have rooms to spare for the accommodation of visitors during the carnival, they want to hear of more; want, in fact, to know the location of every spare room in the city. The members of the committee are Ford Dietzel, J. S. Fish, J. M. Toomey, F. W. L. Skibbe, S. S. Smith, T. Brownhill and J. P. Lucas.
The beautiful scenic settings for the first part of the big minstrel performance at the Vogt tonight is an exact reproduction of a Japanese village, with its breezy luxuriant perspective and unique architectural conceptions. The idea is refreshingly novel and adds a striking oriental beauty and splendor to a usually stereotyped part of the minstrel show. Every feature of the performance is presented in the same meticulous way—different from any other similar organization and of the very best.
The Dairy side had a nibby this morning in the heat that put it temporarily out of commission. The team got stuck at crossing near the bridge and some of the men for some time were engaged in an effort to get them out. It was finally done where the wheels slipped with the Mr. Weston's cow, which is loaded in the ground. Then looking through the Townsend market the hack ran into Charley Sandon wagon, overturning the latter and smashing the stage and harness to a considerable extent. The horses, fortunately, were uninjured.

Death of John Martin Richardson.

Coroner Butts was called last evening to take charge of the body of John Martin Richardson, who had died in the afternoon at the Cosmopolitan hotel. After inquiring into the causes leading up to Richardson's death, Mr. Butts concluded that an inquest was not necessary.

The deceased was a native of Scotland, having been born at Little Ricon, Dalbeattie, Dumfriesshire, October 6, 1832. He had been in this country for about twenty years, part of which time he spent herding sheep in the Antelope country, and the last six in the employ of Sinnott & Fish at the Cosmopolitan hotel. The cause of death was dropsy, from which he had been suffering for many months.

Mr. Richardson had $400 in cash, which, a short time before his death, he requested Judge Bradshaw and J. P. Lucas to dispose of by seeing him decently interred, sending $25 to his nephew in Scotland and handing the balance to J. S. Fish. Mr. Fish emphatically refused to take a dollar of the money, but suggests that whatever may remain after the funeral and after the sum mentioned has been sent to Richardson's nephew, shall be put in a tombstone to mark his grave.
The deceased was a single man and had no relatives in this country that anyone knows of. He was a strictly honest, trustworthy and faithful man, who was greatly respected by all who knew him and especially by those in whose employ he had been for years.

The funeral will take place from Crandall & Burgett's undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the interment will be in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Notice.

The ladies of committee for fancy work for the carnival desire that all persons having such work to enter, or display for beautifying the booths, are requested to bring same to the grounds on Saturday, Sept. 25th, where it will be carefully gone to by the committee.
Mae Cozzano, chairman.
Modern Workman, Attendant

All Modern Workman are requested to be present at a meeting to be held in their hall tonight. Business of great importance will come before the meeting.

Mrs. Wilson, of the Campbell & Wilson Millinery Factory, has engaged the services of Miss Margaret Fisher, a New York trimmer, a former employee of Stetson, of Portland, and in three days prepared to meet the demand of the fall season. She is also the proprietor of the Millinery and is the only one of her kind in the city.

The Coming Carnival.

The buildings and booths of the carnival grounds are fast assuming form and outline. They will occupy very much more space than did those of last year, that for the agricultural and horticultural exhibits alone being practically twice as large. And best of all there is every indication that every inch of space will be filled to the utmost. The committees having charge of these exhibits assure THE CHRONICLE that no exhibit Wasco county has ever made will come near equalling that of the coming one. These exhibits will not be ranged in a long shed as they were last year but in a roomy square building all by themselves. Alongside this building is another of smaller proportions, for ladies' fancy work, and still another for paintings and other works of art. The Vogt opera house is another large addition to the carnival buildings over last year. It will be occupied by the fire dancers. The band stand will occupy the middle of the square at the intersection of Third and Federal. The booths will extend east to the Hanson & Thomsen planing mill, and Third street, east of that point to Lane Brothers' blacksmith shop, as well as the vacant space south of Mays & Crowe's tin shop will be devoted to the numerous attractions of the Midway. The Indian village will be in the Midway and the space occupied by it last year on Federal, south of Third, will be used for the exhibition of agricultural machinery.
