Mrs. William Floyd, of Seattle has joined her husband at the European House and will remain here till after the carnival.

Charles E. Chandler, a prominent Hood River fruit man, spent last night in the city and left for home on this morning's boat.

Jack Donahoe, the veteran restaurateur, has come back to The Dalles after a sojourn of about half a year in California and will probably remain here.

Charley Elkins, a prominent Prineville merchant, was a passenger on this morning's boat for Lyle, where he has spent a number of weeks already visiting his brother of that place.

Congregational Convention.

The Congregational association convened at 2 p. m. yesterday, Rev. C. E. Philbrook leading the devotions.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Home Missionary Society was then held, C. L. Fay presiding. From Superintendent Clapp's report it was learned that twenty-five ministers had been employed by the society during the year in supplying forty-eight churches. Two new church buildings were erected, 107 new members were received by confession and 101 by letter. Rev. W. W. Scudder, the new superintendent of home missions for Washington and gave greetings from his society.

A place was then given for the "Woman's Hour," and the annual meetings of the Oregon branch of the Woman's Board of the Pacific and the Oregon Woman's Home Missionary Union were held, the programs in each case being of absorbing interest. Receipts: Oregon branch, $313.42, eighteen churches contributing; Home Missionary Union, $632.27, twenty-three churches contributing.

The association resumed its work, and Rev. Daniel Staver gave his annual report, showing receipts of $326.17 and a balance of $42.55 after paying all bills.

Reference was made to the Pacific Coast Congregational Council, and it was the sense of the association that it should be held in Seattle in May, 1902, and a committee was appointed to nominate delegates.

Greetings were received from Rev. H. E. Jewett on behalf of the California association, and Revs. H. H. Wykoff and J. K. McLean were instructed to carry back the greetings of Oregon.

Rev. C. F. Clapp and S. C. Pier were elected delegates to the Washington association, which meets in North Yakima October 7-10.

In the evening platform addresses were given by Rev. C. F. Clapp, superintendent of Congregational home missions for Oregon, Rev. Charles W. Shelton, field secretary of the parent society in New York, and Rev. Dr. McLean, of Berkeley Calif.

This morning's session was opened with a devotional service, followed by a brief address on the work of Pacific Theological Seminary by Rev. Dr. McLean, president, and he was followed by Rev. D. B. Gray in a paper on "China and Our Opportunity."

Resolutions of sympathy for Mrs. McKinley, of the necessity for restricting immigration and of rigorous enforcement of law touching anarchists, of thanks for the generous hospitality of The Dalles people, and to the M. E. Church for the use of their church parlors for the noon-day lunch, were unanimously passed.

The association then adjourned sine die, leaving the selection of the next meeting in the hands of a committee.

After the lunch numerous toasts were given, Rev. C. F. Clapp acting as toast master, and then the 531 meeting of the State Congregational Association came to a close after a very pleasant and profitable meeting.

Will Be Ready in December.

New York, Sept. 25.—Commenting upon the canal treaty, the Tri-une's London correspondent says:

"There is no information respecting

Lord Pauncelote's negotiations and the precise changes which have been suggested in Mr. Hay's previous canal treaty, but the prospects of a satisfactory adjustment of the points raised by the senate are brighter than ever before. Lord Pauncelote has been resting in the country, and has not been actively at work in influencing ministers before sailing for America in October. His labors ended before the ministers took their holidays and were scattered over the country, and he was satisfied with the result. There is a general expectation in diplomatic circles that the new treaty will be submitted to the senate in December, and that it will be ratified."

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 25c. Sold by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. 6

Located by Vision.

Portland, Aug. 10.—(To the Editor.)—Homer de Morrison, occultist, located by vision the bull lion stolen from the Selby Smelting Works. In behalf of occult science he immediately communicated by letter the facts to Mr. A. J. Ralston, owner of the Selby Works. The reports received last night prove his statements correct.

MRS. FRANCIS PARSONS.

"It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was located by vision by a Portland occultist. This proves that the story of the Selby Smelting Works and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a base California invention for the purpose of depriving Oregon of just glory."—(Editor Portland Oregonian.)
