Lariat Marabale.

The carnival management made no mistake when they selected Judge Bradshaw for president. That gentleman, as everybody knows, is the pink of courtesy, and when the duties of president dawned on him he at once applied to the poet "Lariat" of The Dalles for a poem suitable for the occasion when he should occupy the position of chief functionary at the coronation of the queen. The poet "Lariat" responded as follows, but THE CHRONICLE understands that the judge can knock the socks off the poet "Lariat" by using his own native proze, and will therefore probably not use the "poem."

O, gracious Queen,
To thee we bow—
Or, at least we would
If we knew how.

Our eyes are dazzled
With thy splendor,
Purchased with handi-
Of our legal tender.

Your charms are equalled
By a very few.
You come pretty high,
But we had to have you.

Most gracious Queen,
Thy praise we'll sing,
If you'll kindly loan us
That diamond ring.

O, thoughtful Queen,
You displayed great taste
When you chose the Judge
For that exalted place.

With his wit and his smile
And his gracious bearing,
He fits in that place
As snug as a herring.

All hail to our Queen!
There's not another one like her.
Then throw up your hats
With three cheers and a "tiger."

Located by Vision.

Portland, Aug. 16. (To the Editor.)—Homer de Morrison, occultist, located by vision the ball lion stolen from the Selby Smelting Works. In behalf of occult science he immediately communicated by letter the facts to Mr. A. J. Ralston, owner of the Selby Works. The reports received last night prove his statements correct.

MRS. FRANCIS HARTLOW.

"It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was located by vision by a Portland occultist. This proves that the story of the confusion of the senses and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a true California invention for the purpose of deceiving Oregonians of just glory."—(Editor Portland Oregonian.)
