Smart Looking

is the woman who comes down the street with a trim-fitting pair of street boots, made on a mannish last. Her tread is firm and solid, because the soles extend and are broad on the bottom. She is indeed a sensible woman. Box calf, vici kid, all sizes and widths; some with extension soles and rope stitch, the typical mannish shoes, so stylish and sensible.

Special good values at $2.50, $3, $3.50 and $4.

The ladies of the M. E. church will have a sale of bread, pumpkin pies and all kinds of cakes in Pease & Mays' grocery store window tomorrow. Call on them.

The 15-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Jones, of this city, died early yesterday morning, October 3d, after an illness of some weeks and was buried this morning at 10 o'clock.

Don't forget the wedding tonight of a handsome young Dallas couple at the carnival. The ceremony will take place at 9 o'clock sharp and will be conducted by Rev. Clarence Lake, of this city.

All the pupils of the public and private schools of this city, including those of St. Mary's Academy, will be accorded free admission to the carnival grounds tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The "Honolulu Coon" troupe that were billed to play tonight at the Vogt have been delayed on the way and will not appear tonight. They will arrive here in the morning and give an entertainment tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Henry Stigman, of Centerville, has three bales of Timothy hay at the fair which the judges of hay say is as fine as the ever saw. If Henry had only been been fortunate enough to live in the district he would easily have carried off a first premium.

Immediately after the wedding ceremony tonight the bride and groom will be presented at 11th and Andrew Keller's finest bride's cakes. The presentation will be made by Mr. G. J. Chandler. After the ceremony the bride and groom will be presented with the beautiful an of household goods now on exhibition in the carnival grounds just east of Federal street.

The carnival management have made arrangements so that the Indian war dance tonight and tomorrow night will be in full view of all the spectators. Heretofore only those in the front row could see it; from this time on everybody will be able to see it.

On Sunday, October 6th, the Bailey Gatzert will have the 7th Regiment U. S. Infantry head aboard on their homeward trip from The Dallas carnival. This will be a grand opportunity for the music loving people to take a trip to Portland and attend the carnival. The Bailey Gatzert will leave at 7 a. m. and arrive in Portland about 2:30 p. m.

E. W. Orlinton, secretary and treasurer of the White Collar Line of steamers, is attending the carnival. Mr. Orlinton says the passenger traffic through the Cascade Locks for July and August was double that of last year, so that his company has actually created the very liberal business that has been done by the Gatzert during the past summer. It goes without saying, therefore that the White Collar Line is here to stay.

John Peterson, an employe of Seufert Bros., whose left leg was badly crushed a week or so ago by the breaking of the anchor line of a draw net, and was brought to The Dallas Hospital, was obliged to have the leg amputated above the knee yesterday by Dr. Ferguson and Logan in order to save the man's life. This afternoon Peterson was doing as well as could be expected, but was, notwithstanding, in a precarious condition.

One of the great attractions of the carnival tonight will be the sheep exhibit of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Company of Hay Creek, Crook county, which will be found in a booth east of Federal street. To those interested in sheep husbandry this exhibit is worth hundreds of dollars as an object lesson. There are six imported Rambouillet ewes from the Gilbert flock of France, two Spanish Merino bucks, two of imported Delaipes, and two from the company's own flock. Judges of sheep say these are the finest animals of their class ever exhibited in Oregon.

Sidney Kelly and Miss Maud E. Lawson were united in marriage last night at the groom's residence on Second street by Rev. D. V. Folling. Sid, it appears had a hard time to escape a gang of characters, but he made it in good shape and got off with his bride on the early train for Portland where they will spend a short honeymoon. The "boys," it appears, got wind of the wedding and while it was in progress almost surrounded the house while awaiting the exit of the preacher. Sid, however, spirited his bride through a private back way, and in company with her father she went back to her home while Sid jumped over the big horn back of the residence and concealed himself some where about First street till near train time when he was joined by his bride, and both escaped on the train. There will probably be a hot time at the foot of Second street the night Sid and his bride come back.

Herr Schott will be here next Wednesday evening, and our people will be delighted to know they will be given an opportunity to hear him sing that night at the Vogt; particularly so since the famous singer, who has for some years been Portland's favorite, will leave next month for New York, where he will remain. Those who have not heard him, have heard of him and his wonderful voice. A number of our musical people have already signified their intention of attending. However, those who have but a slight taste for music cannot fail to enjoy him, and should attend. Tickets will be placed on sale tomorrow at Clarke & Falk's. The first five rows of seats will be 75 cents, and the remainder 50 cents.

A Salem dispatch of the 25th ultimo announced the arrest of one Lemuel Gassaway at that place on the charge of a crime against his own daughter of 10 years. The crime was said to have been committed while the family, composed of the man, his wife and daughter, were encamped in a hop field near Salem. A later dispatch said that when Gassaway was brought before the justice it was "conclusively proved that no crime had been committed." THE CHRONICLE at the time published the announcement of Gassaway's arrest but failed to publish the further announcement of his acquittal. The correction is now made because THE CHRONICLE's attention has been called to the fact that possibly the Lemuel Gassaway mentioned in the dispatch may be the same Lemuel Gassaway that was a resident of the Fifteen Mile neighborhood in this county some ten to fifteen years ago. Acquaintances of the latter, however, had supposed that he was dead, as his death was reported years ago and the report was never contradicted.

Yesterday's Races.

The races yesterday attracted a crowd of between 1200 and 1500 persons, who remained generally until near the close, notwithstanding that the wind blew a stiff gale that wasn't, to say the least, particularly warm, and the intervals between some of the most more provokingly long. The track was in excellent condition and in spite of the breeze there was a gratifying absence of the clouds of dust that tend to form a marked feature of the old race track and grounds.

The first race was called at 2 p. m. and was pacing, mile heats, best two in three; 2:45 class; for a purse of $75. There were three entries, Primrose, Mack and Solo. Solo was the man in two straight heats, with Primrose a close second. Mack was never in the race, as he broke badly at both starts and having recovered was on his feet in the one that there was no chance for him to make up the lost time. On Mack's behalf, however, it may be said that he made a good showing, when the fact is considered that this was his maiden race. In the first heat he was timed separately in 2:30. In the first heat Primrose led Solo for the first half mile, when Solo took the lead and kept it, coming to the goal a neck ahead. In the second heat Solo led from the start. It was a pretty race and was run strictly on the merits of the horses. Time, first heat, 2:34 1/2; second, 2:30.

The second race was trotting, mile heats, two in three, for a purse of $50. There were three entries, Ben Bolt, Lady Alfred and Package, all outside horses. Ben Bolt was both heats and the race, the horses coming under the wire both times in the order named, and the last time with Ben Bolt five or six lengths ahead of the second horse. Time, first heat, 2:24 1/2; second, 2:21 1/2.

The third race was a running, three-eighth mile dash, for a purse of $75. There were five entries, Typewriter, Dewey, B. O. Green, Sunset and Ross. In this race there was a most provoking delay in getting the horses to start, two of them acting as uncontrollably as if they were untamed cayuses. About the time that hundreds of spectators had lost their patience and put out for home a fair start was made and B. O. Green won the race, with Dewey second and Typewriter third. Time, 58 1/2.

The fourth and last race was a running three-fourth mile dash, owners' handicap, for a purse of $175.00. There were six entries; Ragalong, Undergrowth, Phillip Fair, Irate, Barnato and Little Henry. For some reason Undergrowth was withdrawn and did not run. The race was won by Little Henry, Irate, being second and Ragalong third, time 1:17.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. E. L. Smith, president of the State Horticultural Society, arrived here today from Hood River.

Mr. G. Cornwall, publisher of the Columbia River and Oregon Timberman, was in town today taking in the carnival.

Dr. Gertrude French is in the city and will spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith French.

Mrs. Judge Dandy, of Portland, and Miss Elizabeth Boies, of Salem, are visiting at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

Mrs. E. E. Cross and daughter, Miss Daley, of Oregon City, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bargett. Miss Daley will probably spend the winter here.

Miss Marie Esqui, formerly of this city, and Miss Parber, of San Francisco, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilson. These young ladies are from the medical department of the University of California.

Miss Rose Wilson, who has been on leave at The Dallas hospital for the past month on account of an attack of typhoid fever, has recovered so as to be able to leave for her home in Indianapolis.

Mrs. E. J. Mandy, Mrs. Emma McConkey and Dr. T. C. Lee, of Salem, came up on the Dallas carnival train for observation. The former are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brady, and Dr. Lee is the guest of Mrs. Mandy.

Midway is Here WITH ATTRACTIONS UNEQUALED. Prof. E. J. Rose, the High Diver, diving from a pole 75 feet high, turning a complete somersault and diving into a tank of water 3 ft. deep. Dandy, the High-Diving Dog, ascends and dives, at the command of his trainer, Prof. Harry Holmes, from a 60 ft. ladder into a net. Luenette, the Mysterious Flying Lady, flies through the air and performs truly astonishing feats without any assistance. A truly edifying moral exhibition. The Bioscope, direct from London, England, showing the famous Passion Play, Sappho, Dixon-Palmer Fight and other scenes intensely interesting. Bosco, the Abyssinian Snake-Eater, eats 'em alive. Don't fail to see Bosco. Beautiful Ione, in poses plastiques. A startling, beautiful effect. Illustrated songs. Vaudeville Show. La Belle Ross, the premier Oriental Dancing Girl. Prof. Schmidt, the hypnotist. Prof. Post, the anatomical wonder; a freak of nature, the most wonderfully developed human being extant. The Old Plantation. Fun on the levee. Buck and Wing Dancing. Quaint Southern Melodies. The Indian Mummy. A remarkable freak of nature. Dr. M. H. Walker, Professional Palmist, associated with the celebrated Gypsy Palmist. Every afternoon and Evening at the Carnival Grounds.
