Saturday Afternoon's Ences.

Fine weather, splendid racing, good music and numerous other attractions made the concluding day of the meeting a fitting wind-up of the thirteenth Eastern Oregon fair.

A half-mile trotting race between Young's Wasco Lase and Chas, Snipes' Baster Lily was the opening attraction. Mr. Young's yearling is a promising colt end easily out-classed the Snipee mare. The time was 2:3614.

The next speed contest was between Jim Bozeman, Mayflower, Filly Fair and Undergrowth. It was a one-mile dash for a purse of $125. Jim Bozeman practically won the race in the first quarter, having lead out, with Filly Fair seend and Undergrowth third. Mayflower dropped out before the first quarter post was reached, leaving the race between the other three. Undergrowth Midway dressed in all the finery they began to gain before they passed under the wire the first time, and passed Filly Fair at the last quarter pole. Jim Boxe- the band stand in the presence of about man won first place easily, with Under- 3000 spectators. The bride, who is a growth second and well in the lead of mere girl, trembled visibly as with Filly Fair. Time 1:48
