Wiedemann's Big Show, an attraction that has packed the theaters at Portland, Baker City, Pendleton, and all of the Oregon circuit, opens a week's engagement at the Vost on Monday, Oct. 14th, presenting as an initial bill the four-act comedy, "Down in Egypt," a story of Southern Illinois, written by Tom Wiedemann. The story is a pastoral one and the cast is made up of clever people in their respective lines. The scenic effects and stage settings are superb, and careful attention is given to every detail that goes toward making a successful performance. Between acts strong vaudeville features are introduced, including Nellie Wiedemann, the electric dancer in rose, lily and American dances and the latest electrical sensation, "The Baptism of Fire"; Chas. Barrington, the human orchestra and animal imitator; Bacon and Vane, the operatic duettists; the Mallally Sisters, in a unique singing and dancing act, and petite Zella Marie, assisted by Wm. Dighton, in a clever juvenile act. The solo orchestra is a feature that will please lovers of high-class music. The price for this engagement is 10, 20 and 30 cents. The sale of seats opens at Clarke & Falk's drug store on Saturday morning.

Woman Proves to Be the Thief.

BAKER CITY, Oct. 8--I. K. Levy, a commercial traveler, came into town late Saturday evening and opened up his samples of cloths, hosiery and ladies' underwear at the Oakes sample rooms. Resterday morning he discovered a thief had entered the place during the night and carried off about $75 worth of his finest samples. He suspected a Mrs. Jack, who is employed at the Oakes, of being the thief. He took his troubles to the chief of police and today a search was made of the woman's residence and most of the missing articles were found. At first the woman denied she had taken the goods, saying the things found in her house had been sent her from Boise, but later she broke down and confessed to the theft and produced the remainder of the missing articles. Mr. Levy was so glad to recover his property that he declined to prosecute the woman.

Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.
