TRYING TO EN-TRAP BRIGANDS

Movement to Surround Abductors of Miss Stone Begun by Turkish and Bulgarian Soldiers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—The surrounding movement of Turkish and Bulgarian troops on the Mountain Gultepe, on the Turko-Bulgarian frontier, near Dubaitas, has commenced. The presence of Miss Stone and the bandits on the mountain is confirmed. The inhabitants of Dubaitas, are supplying the outlaws with food.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—With reference to the announcement that the Turkish and Bulgarian troops are surrounding the abductors of Miss Stone, the Globe says it considers that unless the movement is suspended until she is safe out of the hands of the brigands, there will infallibly be a repetition of the tragedy in Greece during the year 1870, when Lord Muncaster and party were captured, Lord Muncaster was released in order to negotiate a ransom of £25,000. Then, as now, an attempt was made to surround the brigands, with the result that four gentlemen of the party were murdered.

Lord and Lady Muncaster and a party of English travelers were seized by Greek brigands April 18, 1870, at Oropos and Marathon. Lord Muncaster and the ladies of the party were sent to treat for £25,000 demanded as ransom with a free pardon for the brigands. The latter were surrounded by troops, and in retreating April 21st, killed Mr. Vynor, Lloyd Herbert and Count de Boyl. The incident caused great excitement, especially as many influential parties were charged with connivance at the brigandage. Several of the brigands were killed and seven were captured, tried and condemned May 23d, of the same year. June 20, 1870, five of the brigands were executed.

Would Chop off Head of Devery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The republicans of this city last night held a large meeting in the Grand Central Palace at which the nomination of Seth Low for mayor of greater New York and the entire fusion ticket were ratified. The list of speakers included Mr. Low, General B. F. Tracey, Edward M. Grout, Charles V. Formes and Job Hedges. Messrs Grout and Formes are candidates respectively for controller and president of the board of aldermen. The names of almost all the republican leaders appeared in the list of vice-presidents, and many of them were present.

Robert C. Morris, chairman of the republican county committee in calling the meeting to order said the republican organization had not asked any pledges from the candidates on the fusion ticket, except that they would live up to the principle of non-partisan municipal government.

Seth Low on being introduced said non-partisanship in municipal affairs is the corner-stone of the platform on which he stands. He referred to his opponent, Mr. Shepard as being inconsistent in his course concerning city affairs. When Mr. Low mentioned Deputy Superintendent of Police Devery's name and remarked that he had been asked if in the event of his election he would remove Devery, he said: "If it had been asked seriously I would take it as an affront."

"This brought great applause, which was followed by another outburst when Mr. Low said if elected he would see that the official head of Commissioner Murphy and Deputy Devery would roll on the floor as soon after January as possible. Mr. Low said with reference to the rank and file of the police department that he would give them a head who would treat them fairly.

armed with Remington and Mauser rifles and apparently had plenty of ammunition.

Martin, a teacher at Mauban, was captured by insurgents while visiting a neighboring town under an escort of native police. The next day his captors, relenting, tied him in a hammock and carried him to a point within a mile of the town and released him, saying he was a noncombatant.

The entire police force of Catanag, province of Tayabas, numbering eleven, have been carried off by insurgents armed only with bolos. Presumably the police made no resistance, though they were well armed with carbines and revolvers.
