John Doe paid a fine of $2 by Recorder Doherty this morning for worshipping too long last night at the shrine of John Barleycorn.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Bradford, of Hood River, has been in poor health for some time and was brought to The Dalles hospital yesterday for treatment.

The Antelope Herald says Dr. C. A. Cline, of Prineville, has sold his fine stallion, Barnato, to Alva Boynton, receiving for him $400 in cash and the race mare, Baby Ruth.

The Antelope Herald says: "Mr. H. C. Rooper returned from The Dalles last Sunday evening, and speaks in very laudatory terms of the exhibits and attractions at the fair and carnival at that place."

Miss Gughilda Beck, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beck of this city, will be united in marriage to Mr. Louis J. Gates, of Arlington, next Wednesday, October 16th, at the residence of the bride's parents.

From a Seattle paper we learn that one night last week, while the family was absent at a party, the residence of J. W. Harry was entered by burglars and robbed of every valuable that could be conveniently carried off. Mr. Harry is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Bolton of this city.

Mrs. Martha Foreman, who was recently adjudged insane was taken to the asylum this morning by Deputy Sheriff Benton and Mrs. Foreman's son, Ben Royster, of Dalles. Mrs. Foreman is past 63 years of age and is almost as helpless as a child. Her insanity is of a mild type and it is thought the gentle weakness and nervous incident to her years, and to a life of unusual worry and anxiety.

The Skamania County Pioneer claims to have it on good authority that the murderer "Green will get a new trial, as his attorneys maintain that they did not have sufficient time in which to prepare the case for trial. It was less than a week from the time they were appointed to defend him until the case was called for trial."

The Illinois Methodist conference recently refused to exclude tobacco users from membership. The report upon temperance recommended that each applicant for membership should be required to answer the question: "Do you use tobacco?" and provided that the conference could reject applicants who gave an affirmative answer. This provoked a lively debate, and the clause was amended to provide that every laudable means should be used to prevent the use of tobacco among the young.

Dr. McLean, the state veterinarian, was out in the Baker and Ridgeway countries last week investigating the causes leading to the death of a considerable number of range cattle. After a thorough examination of the cattle, killing one of the animals attacked and opening its stomach, the doctor pronounced the disease blind staggers, caused by something the cattle are eating, and prescribed as a remedy bleeding at the mouth and then physic with raw linseed oil or epsom salts. He also advised change of feed where possible.

The Antelope Herald says: "The Second Eastern Oregon District Fair closed at The Dalles last Saturday evening, after one of the most successful meetings ever held since its organization. Large crowds from all over the state were in attendance, and a number of splendid attractions had been provided for their entertainment. The exhibits were more numerous and better than ever before, and the stock exhibit was as fine as could be seen anywhere in the Northwest. The management of the association, and those having the carnival in charge, are to be congratulated upon the splendid success of the entire meeting."

As we go to press Gus Erickson, George Webber and Fred Frye have just been examined in Justice Brownbill's court on a charge of robbery of a quantity of gentlemen's clothing from a sample room of the Cosmopolitan hotel on the Thursday night of last week. The clothing was samples belonging to a drummer named W. S. Mason, who represented the firm of Brown Brothers & Co., of San Francisco. The men were arrested in Portland on information furnished by the chief of police by Sheriff Kelly who was ably assisted in the hunt for the robbers by Deputy Sheriff Wood and Special Nightwatchman Alley. Erickson and Webber were brought here yesterday by Sheriff Kelly and Frye today by Detective Know and Kerrigan of Portland. As part of the stolen goods were found in the men's possession there was no reasonable doubt of their guilt and the justice bound each of them in the sum of $500.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Double Eagle Mining Company, held in this city Friday evening, the number of shares of the stock was increased to 1,050,000 and the par value reduced from $500, as the original stock was, to $1. It was also decided to erect a mill on the property, as there is enough good ore in sight to justify it. There are from 1000 to 1,500 tons of ore on the dump, worth from $10 to $20 per ton, and the stope shows much ore of still higher grade, and some exceedingly rich. A limited number of shares of the new stock will be sold at ten cents per share, enough only to finish development work and the erection of the mill.

A little over a month ago the Portland Telegram, presumably voicing the sentiments of the Multnomah county court, ripped Judge Blakeley up the back for sending a Mrs. Bacey down there to be a county charge after the Wasco county court had got tired of keeping her. The truth is, as THE CHRONICLE said at the time, Mrs. Bacey was taken to Portland by a son who lives in the Hood River valley and Judge Blakeley had nothing in the world to do with her going there. The judge however, has got back on the Multnomah people in good shape. A man named Yates, who is afflicted with a broken thigh and who claims to have been in this city for the past nine days applied to the judge this morning for an order to go to The Dalles hospital, or failing that, for a railroad ticket to Idaho, where he says he has friends who will provide for his wants. Yates made affidavit that before coming here Dr. McKay, the Multnomah county physician, advised him that the climate of Portland was not good for his health and recommended a trip to The Dalles for a change. Yates accepted Dr. McKay's suggestion and the good doctor furnished him with a ticket for the trip on the Dalles City. Judge Blakeley has written the doctor and before midnight the Multnomah county officials will probably know that they have been detected in the very act that they have wrongfully blamed others for doing.

Attention, Red Men!

All members of Wasco tribe No. 16, I. O. O. F. M., are requested to meet at the wigwam tomorrow setting of the sun. There will be song and reason, and afterwards a pow-wow, at which several chiefs, warriors and hunters will make short talks. All Red Men are expected to trail toward the wigwam by 7:30 o'clock, setting of the sun. By order of the Sachem.

Wagon Accident.

Wencelau Pashek, of Lower Fifteen Mile, was killed in a horrible manner this morning on The Dalles and Tugh Valley road, about a mile from the Boyd station. Mr. Pashek was going to the mountains with a four-horse team for a load of wood. While occupying the high seat of the wood-rack he was met by a party of government surveyors returning to The Dalles from the Wemic neighborhood. The surveyors had three pack horses and Mr. Pashek's leaders got scared at them and, making a short turn, took the back track for a distance of two or three hundred yards, when they ran up against a fence and stopped.

At the first dash of the team Mr. Pashek fell forward on the double trees and dropping, subsequently, to the ground came behind the front axle of the wagon where he was held fast by the lines that, somehow, got wrapped around one of his thighs and the revolving right front wheel of the wagon, holding his head against the spokes of the wheels till it was mutilated beyond recognition. The surveying party could do no more than follow the runaway team with all possible speed, but when they overtook it Mr. Pashek was beyond all human help. After securing the team and releasing the dead man from his position, help was obtained and the remains were taken to the Boyd store, from whence they were brought to The Dalles this afternoon.

The deceased's brother, John, of this city, on receipt of the news of his brother's death, left for the ranch and will accompany the family back here to be present at the interment tomorrow.

Wencelau Pashek was a man bordering on 80 years of age. He was a native of Bohemia and came here about a score of years ago and worked for years in the O. R. & N. Company's shops, moving from The Dalles about fifteen years ago to his ranch on Lower Fifteen Mile. He was a devout Catholic and was held in high repute as an honest, industrious man and a good citizen. He leaves a wife and seven children, most of whom are small. He owned a good farm and carried an insurance policy of $2000 in the order of the Catholic Knights of America.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. John Marden went to Portland Sunday on business.

Miss Annie O'Brien left this afternoon for Portland on a visit to Mrs. John Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Costello, of Walla Walla, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tolmie yesterday.

Dr. H. A. Sturdevant and Victor Marden went to Hood River yesterday on a fishing excursion.

Miss Virginia Marden went to Hood River Sunday morning on the early train and returned in the evening.

Mrs. Crossfield and two children, who have been visiting in this city for some time, left on the noon train yesterday for Wasco.

Charles Stark, who has been taking a business course at the Portland Business College, arrived here yesterday and will spend a month assisting his brother, Sam, in his office business.
