SIMONITE TACTICS.

Tuesday's Oregonian gives the Portland Simonites a very neat little dig in the ribs. It is well known that the Simonites are in control of the county republican committee of Multnomah, and that this control was used so unjustly and unfairly before the last state election that the federal position, for he is on friendly swept almost everything before them. Last week the committee saw fit to take steps towards its own organization, consisting chiefly in electing a new chairman and secretary and appointing an advisory committee of a conflict between Williamson and Dunfifteen persons. In connection with these changes the committee announces that "the primeries are to be conducted with absolute fairness," and that the county convention is to be" propositions in this connection, any be free and open to every republican one of which would be a leading element desiring to seek a nomination at the hands of the party. This is excellent, as the Oregonian remarks, but its honesty is open to grave doubts.

It is well watered, there being some thirty or forty springs on the tract and small running streams across most of it. But no sooner had the court declared the law to be valid than appeal was taken to the supreme court and that by the same faction that now hypocritically pretend to be in favor of fair primaries. This namely the breaking down of the safeguards that the legislature has will collect all outstanding accounts and placed around the Portland primaries so that the Simonites, who are in control of the entire republican machine, may run the primaries to suit themselves.

It is open and notorious that Portland never had an honest primary when Joe Simon and his followers past experience honest primaries are an impossibility in that city without such a law as the Simonites are now have to keep your scalp clean. Soap unconstitutional. Well therefore does the Oregonian say that the surest way to get fair primaries is to withdraw the appeal and let the new law have a fair and honest trial.

Senator Williamson, of Prineville.

Senator J. N. Williamson, of Prineville, who has been announced for several offices in Oregon, has made a public statement over his signature saying: "Insemnch as a controversy has arisen over the reported ambition of State Senator J. N. Williamson to succeed Congreesman Moody, I desire to say the report is absolutely untrue. I have never expressed a desire to receive the nomination for Congressman Moody's place, and I would be pleased to have you announce that I have never authorized the statement that I am a candidate for any office except that of secretary of state. My friends have urged me to consent to be a candidate for the latter nomination, and I have practically given them permission to use my name in that connection only,"

Referring to the above the East Oregonian says:

This coming from Senator Williamson lirectly and officially settles the ques-ton as to his aspirations to be Oregon's governor or the second district congressman, or anything except secretary of attate. The senator becomes an opponent of Dunbar, of Astoria, the present incumbent, who perhaps owes his office to the influence of Senator Charles W.

Fulton of the same town. Dunbar wants re-election and will pull the Clatsop county delegation in all probability.

However, it is regarded as within the possible that Dunbar may consent to step aside and permit Senator Fulton to them his influence. throw his influence to some other man for secretary of state in order to strengthen Fulton's chances for election to the United States senate by the coming legislature, when a successor to Joseph Simon will be chosen. Then, so it might Fulton could reward Dunbar with a Mitchell, whose word goes with the president in Oregon appointments. Williamson's candidacy is to be reck-oned with. He is a strong man with the leaders and with the masses. Then, too, Williamson is a friend of J. H. Mitchell. It is probable that the three are in agreement on the subject, so that bar need not be anticipated. This might be true — Williamson may be "picking up votes" to throw them to Dunbar when the convention meets, and to nullify the strength of Eastern Oregon's demands for representation on the state tickets. There are several "might in the balance of the political forces that, when finally adjusted, will take a given direction when the campaign has begun.

Portland, Aug. 10. - (To the Editor).—Homer de Morrison, occultist, located by vision the bul llon stolen from the Seiby Smelting Works. In behalf of occult science he immediately communicated by letter the facts to Mr. A. J. Ralston, owner of the selby Works. The reports received last night prove his statements correct.

MRS. FRANCIS PARTLOW.

"It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was 'located by vision' by a Portland occultist. This proves that the story of the confession of the thief and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a base California invention for the purpose of depriving Oregon of just glory."—(Editor Portland Oregonian.)
