

The gist of the Washington dispatch, stating that Senator Simon had protested against the appointment of G. W. Bibee, as receiver of the Oregon City land office, is that the commission has been written out but not mailed, the latter being the result of Senator Simon's protest.

Oliver Wendell Holmes' formula for the adequate training of man—to begin with his grandfather and grandmother—has been followed in the case of Theodore Roosevelt, says Leslie's Weekly.

Joe Simon has at last done something as United States senator. True, it isn't of any great importance to the state but it shows that the little mannikin is alive.

Wallace McCamant is said to have a congressional boom up his sleeve by which he expects to succeed Malcolm Moody.

In today's issue of the weekly CHRONICLE appears a notice of the proposed Initiative and Referendum amendment to the constitution of Oregon.

The editor of a Prineville paper, speaking, it is presumed, of eggs taken on subscription, asks the question, "Why don't the eggs hatch?"

With a decrease of the public debt in September of $4,825,401, a gold reserve in the treasury of $150,000,000, a cash balance of $519,919,889, Uncle is in pretty good shape to continue business.

When a Sherman county man trades his ranch for property in the Willamette valley, a thing that seldom happens, he calls it trading and for mud.

Suppose the tariff does enable a few articles to be sold a shade cheaper abroad than at home, what of it? Is it not better for us to pay a little more for what we buy than to have a lot of unemployed labor on our hands? This is the question in a nut shell.

The Diamond King.

The Oregonian of last Monday: Charles A. Taylor's latest melodrama, "Daughter of the Diamond King," opened a week's engagement at the Metropolitan last night to a house that filled the theater to the doors.

La Belle Laurette, who was seen here last year in "King of the Opium Ring," another melodrama by Mr. Taylor, plays the name part with energy and ability.

A specialty bill is introduced in the last act, which is the best of its kind seen at the Metropolitan this year.

The "Daughter of the Diamond King" will be the attraction at the Vogt next Monday night.

Prof. Homer de Morrison

222 1/2 Washington street. Rooms 23-29. PORTLAND, OREGON.

The first registered as well as the first graduate oculist ever in Portland. The world's greatest France, Charpentier and Herdick can be consulted daily on all matters of vision.

Located by Vision. Portland, Aug. 16. (To the Editor)—Homer de Morrison, oculist, located by vision the ball lost from the Selby Smelting Works.

"It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was located by vision by a Portland oculist. This proves that the story of the confession of the thief and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a base California invention for the purpose of depriving Oregon of just glory."
