

New Suitings Style and Quality

Wonderfully complete is this new stock now. The brilliant successes of the past are to be repeated, and doubled this year. We have the stock, we have the facilities, and we have in addition the price-making power that gives you fine materials for the same money that is ordinarily paid for inferior qualities.

See for Yourself

You don't need to be told that H. S. & M. suits and overcoats have the touch of true style, you can see it for yourself in the cut; you can see it even better in the suit and overcoat itself, ready for you to try on here at any time. We have plenty to show of many styles—suits and overcoats—good clothes.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

"The Sea of Ice"
At the Vogt opera house tonight.
Miss Omg, of this city, is teaching a term of school at Ashwood, Crook county.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Frank Jones and Vira Whipple.

Rev. Clarence Lake, of this city, is announced to hold services in Prineville on the 27th instant.

Farquhar Gillies yesterday declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

Found—A little purse with a few pennies in it, which the owner can have by calling at this office.

The forest rangers under Supervisor W. H. H. Dufur, were relieved from duty for the year on the 15th instant.

Ladies wanted to work on sofa pillow. Material furnished. Steady work guaranteed; experience necessary. Send stamped envelope to Miss McGee, Needlework Dept., Ideal Co., Chicago.

From the Dufur Dispatch we learn of the loss by fire, on the 12th instant, of the residence of George Moody, of Victor.

The household effects were saved, as were the outbuildings, but unfortunately there was no insurance on the property destroyed.

Stock Inspector A. A. Bonney has quarantined the sheep of F. N. Jones and C. P. U'Ren, of the Bakoven neighborhood. Both flocks have scab and they are confined, until dipped, to the range adjoining the dipping grounds of their owners.

Articles of incorporation of the Morning Star Mining Company were filed this morning in the office of the county clerk. The incorporators are Wilbur Bolton, Finlay McBeth and Arthur P. Fowne. The capital stock is composed of 2,000,000 shares of the par value of one cent a share.

The firm of J. E. Adcox & Co. being now extinct, J. E. Adcox, the watchmaker, formerly of this firm, is now in the employ of T. A. Van Norden. These sending watches in from a distance, intended for J. E. Adcox, presumably, will please address the same to T. A. Van Norden, The Dalles. oldawif

John MacDone, who has been known as the "Patriarch of Connemara," has just died at the age of 125 in his cottage at Errislanin, near Clifden, at the edge of the Atlantic, on the west coast of Ireland. He was born in 1776, and had a vivid recollection of the landing of the French under General Humbert at Killis in 1798.

The Dufur Dispatch says an effort was made to burglarize the store of Johnston Bros. last Sunday night. An entrance was effected by cutting a hole in the glass of the back door, so as to reach through and unlock the door from the inside. It is not known whether anything was taken, as nothing is, as yet, missed. There is no clue to the evil doers.

An old lady who objected to the use of tobacco, having seated herself in one of the smoker's seats of a car next to a gentleman who was enjoying his cigar, no sooner got a whiff of the smoke than she said to him: "If you were my husband, sir, I'd give you a dose of poison." The man looked at her a moment and quickly remarked: "If I were your husband, ma'am, I'd take the poison."

The increasing popularity of the Wiedemann's Big Show, which has entertained The Dalles people every night this week, may be gathered from the fact that at an early hour yesterday afternoon every reserved seat had been taken, and that a like condition prevailed at 8 o'clock this morning. To accommodate the crowd that will surely be at the Vogt tonight, raised seats have been erected in the rear of the hall that will seat a good many who will thereby be able to secure a good view of the stage.

A telephone message from Cross Keys announced the death at that place this morning of A. J. Friday, a prominent Crook county stockman and brother of Mrs. M. P. Morris, of this city. The cause of death was Bright's disease. The deceased was a native of England, where he was born about 55 years ago. He has been a resident of Crook county for about twenty-five years. He leaves a wife and six children, four of whom are at home, and two, a son and married daughter, are living in California. The funeral will take place Monday at Hay Creek.

E. Fish, whom Sheriff Kelly brought back here from Boise City, was examined this afternoon in Justice Brownhill's court on the charge of receiving money under false pretenses. Deputy District Attorney F. W. Wilson appeared for the prosecution and N. J. Sinaott, of the firm of Bennett & Sinaott, for the defense. Ben Wilson swore that he had given Fish $100 on a check which Fish asked to have returned to him, when he presented Wilson with another check for $200 and Wilson gave Fish the hundred dollars of difference. The checks were drawn on the First National Bank of The Dalles. Max A. Vogt, cashier of the bank, swore that Fish had no funds in the bank at the date of the check, nor at any other time. This was all the testimony submitted and Justice Brownhill bound over the defendant in the sum of $500.

Dr. R. C. Rolles, who is back East on a visit to the Pan-American exposition, writes as follows to the Grass Valley Journal: "I had a pleasant interview with the Hon. E. L. Smith, president of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, who, on Oregon's day, stood before the multitude of 157,000 people and proclaimed our right to be awarded the first prize for the best exhibit of fruits at the Pan-American exposition, and it was awarded in fine style. Harrish of Oregon and Hon. E. L. Smith, of Hood River. May he live to a ripe old age, and meanwhile be our distinguished president of our State Horticultural Society."

Charles Hix, the 14-year-old son of John Hix, of Kingsley, died at the home of his parents last Sunday. About eight months ago, while the lad was recovering from an attack of measles, he became faint and fell into the parlor fire and was horribly burned before he was discovered. All that the skill of a local physician and that of the physicians of The Dalles Hospital was done for him, but in vain. The poor lad suffered a thousand deaths since the accident and the end has been anticipated for some weeks. The parents of the dead boy have the deep sympathy of all who know the sad circumstances connected with his death.

"The Steam Laundry," as presented by the Wiedemann Company at the Vogt last night, proved to be the best comedy of the week and kept the large audience in a good humor throughout the evening. Tom Wiedemann as George De Bun, the happy-go-lucky tramp, and Nellie Wiedemann as Nell Robinson, the friend of all, carried off the honors of the evening. The rest of the cast were good and as usual many pleasing vaudeville features were introduced. The Wiedemanns are much better than the majority of high-priced attractions that visit our city and will undoubtedly be greeted by another full house tonight, when they present the famous costume play, "The Sea of Ice."

Salvation Army Announcements.

A baby is to be given away at the Salvation Army hall Tuesday evening, Oct. 22nd. Come and see who gets the baby. Lieutenant-Colonel French, of San Francisco, and Major Kimball, of Portland, will visit The Dalles on the above date and a very interesting meeting will be conducted in the Salvation Army hall. Good music will be one of the features of the evening.

Colonel French is an officer of nineteen years standing. He was converted in 1881 and has gone through all grades of officership, from cadet upwards; his last promotion, from the rank of brigadier to that of lieutenant-colonel, having taken place in the beginning of 1897. He is a man of pleasing appearance, and a powerful speaker, with a clear and melodious voice. In his speech there is no ranting, no sensationalism, but a quiet, clear-cut presentation of his subject, leaving a decidedly favorable impression on his hearers.

While Lieutenant-Colonel French is paying The Dalles his welcome visit, the major is visiting us for the last time.

All are cordially invited to attend this meeting, which will be interesting to everyone.

An Explanation.

T. A. Van Norden has seen fit to announce that the firm of J. E. Adcox & Company is extinct. The firm name is extinct it is true, but, as everybody knows, the business continues as before, and I have been its sole owner since December 10, 1900, since which time Mr. Adcox worked for me for wages till about a month ago, when I discharged him for drunkenness and for taking and pawning a gold watch left in my care for repairs. Those sending watches from a distance intended for J. E. Adcox & Co. will please address them to myself, where they will receive the attention of an skilled a watchmaker as there is in this city. All work done at my store is guaranteed, as this has always been my method of doing business.

An Aid to the Buyer...

The Pianos which have been endorsed by the most eminent experts are now on exhibition right here in your city, and are offered at prices upon easy terms of payment, heretofore never attempted by a reliable house.

The laws underlying the theories of standard piano construction are today an unacquainted feature with nine hundred and ninety-nine people out of every thousand, and in the advanced race for business many cheap and inferior instruments are being offered for sale through various avenues by an unscrupulous class of illiterate venders.

When you stop to consider that the Steinway, the great Kimball, the wonderful Weber, the peerless Chickering, are conceded by the world's greatest critics to be the acme of piano construction, you need not hesitate to buy now.

Thus far the business already transacted during this special sale has been of the most flattering type, and we beg to offer through the columns of this paper our hearty appreciation and many thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon us, and our earnest endeavor will be to please and satisfy the most skeptical, with a positive and distinct guarantee with each and every instrument sold at this really reduced-price and genuine piano sale.

Yours for good Pianos,
