

Klickitat county is a poor field for a democratic paper. Barton C. V. Brown, who was chief mourner at the funeral of the late Goldendale Journal, says in his obituary notice: "There is only one way for a democratic paper to ever be made to pay in this county, and that is to import a few democrats. At present there only seems to be eight or ten, the balance pretending to be of some other political faith, judging from the enthusiasm (?) displayed in the support of the Journal. Hoping that this will be the last democratic paper that ever makes its appearance in this community, and expressing my sincere thanks to those who have made my stay in Goldendale a continued round of pleasure (?), I bid farewell to the dying hope for Klickitat democracy and a pleasant goodbye to all."

The Pendleton Oregonian prints a truth thuswise: "Senator Simon, elected through a course of systematic treachery to the late Mr. Dolph and to H. W. Corbett, desires to succeed himself. But how he is going to do this in the light of the recent victory of Mitchell is beyond the ken of the ordinary citizen and strains the faith of the most devoted follower of the 'little boss.' If Simon cannot command offices for his friends, how can he keep them? It begins to look as though the political grave of Mr. Simon were being hollowed out."

Senator Mitchell is demonstrating to his constituency that he has influence at Washington. He is the same vigorous Mitchell as of yore and is a valuable man in the senate for the state of Oregon.—Eugene Register. Joe Simon has gone to Washington to try and do something and also to endeavor to prevent Mitchell from doing anything.—Salem Sentinel.

The Moro correspondent of the Wasco News inserts his Irish proboscis into other people's affairs as follows: "The Observer man and the Chronicle man seem to be at outs. We don't blame Mr. Observer. When we were young we didn't want any old duck interfering in our love affairs; especially on any 'shady side of forty' proposition."

Arrangements are being made in Portland for the systematic canvass of the city for a stock subscription of $300,000 for the Lewis and Clark fair. There ought to be no difficulty and there surely will be none in obtaining this amount, and when it is obtained Portland can with good grace ask a liberal subscription from the state.

There is already considerable activity being manifested over the appointment of a U. S. marshal for Oregon. W. H. Dufur and John W. Minto are the candidates. The appointment is said to be due about December 1st.—Salem Sentinel.

Oregon, remarks the Salem Sentinel, has never re-elected a republican governor. In point of fact Oregon republicans have never renominated a governor. Four years is enough, sometimes, and this is one of the times.

About the worst case of contempt of court is that of a paper which refers to the supreme court justices as "eminent guys in Mother Hubbard gowns."
