

TRUE MEASURE OF A MAN.

"To take the true measure of a man is not in the market place or in the amen corner, nor in the field or forum but at his own fireside," says Evangelist Sam Jones in the Jewish Ledger. "There he lays aside the mask and you learn whether he is an imp or an angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I do not care a copper what the world says of him; whether it crowns him with glory or pelts him with eggs. I don't care of what religion he may be, if his babies dread his coming home, and his better half swallows her heart every time she asks him for $5, he is a fraud of the first water even though he prays night and morning until he shakes the eternal hills. But if his children run to the front gate to meet him and love's own sunshine illumines the face of his wife when she hears his footsteps, you can take it for granted that he is pure gold—his home is a heaven; but the humbug never gets near the throne of God. He may be a rank atheist and a red-flag anarchist, a Mormon and mugwump; he may buy votes, bet on elections, he may deal from the bottom and drink beer until he can't tell a dollar from a circular saw, and still be better than the man that is all suavity, but who makes home a hell; who vents on his wife and children the ill nature he would like to inflict on his fellow-men, but he dares not. I can forgive much in a fellow-mortal who would rather have the hate of all the world than the contempt of his wife; who would rather call anger to the face of a king than fear to the face of a child."

UMATILLA'S STANDARD OF MORALS.

The standard of morals and political intelligence must be immeasurably high in Pendleton and Umatilla county when the leading paper of Pendleton can write the following of a colored man named Jim Washington, now insane, who, according to the paper's own account, has been a common gambler, running faro and roulette games in connection with Pendleton saloons for years. After saying that Jim "commanded a degree of respect which is not ordinarily given to any man," the paper adds:

"He is a man of absolute honor, courteous, accommodating, and is one of the most thoroughly posted men in political affairs, state and national, among all the men in Pendleton. He has as many friends as any man in Umatilla county, and deserves them. There are few so good citizens in the county as Jim Washington."

If all this is true, then the Lord have mercy on the citizens of Umatilla county! After this confession we hope the Pendleton paper will no longer insist on urging the nomination of any Umatilla county citizen for governor.

"If the democrats in congress had any say about the big and accumulating treasury surplus they would soon solve the problem," says a democratic exchange. Correct you are, and after the surplus had been reduced to a yawning deficit the distressed plutocrats and shylocks would get a chance to buy United States bonds to replenish the treasury at their own price. By all means let the "democrats in congress" have something to say about that accumulating treasury surplus.

C. A. Lucas, the first Afro-American to apply for admittance to the bar in this state, has been approved by the supreme court. Mr. Lucas is a young man who has lived in Portland several years, and at times has been interested in newspaper work and politics. The strangest feature of the incident is that no colored man has ever before applied to the supreme court of Oregon for admission.

The New York Press is responsible for the statement that Tammany Hall is to have a new daily newspaper of its own. It says the 45,000 office holders in the city administration will be required to distribute copies of the paper among the bar rooms, barber shops, pool rooms and policy shops in their immediate neighborhood. And this is democracy on its native heath, as it were.

Two London inventors claim that they can transmit electrical power from one point to another without the use of wires. Nature, during thunder storms, has been in that line of business from the start, but certain unpleasant uncertainties are connected with the operation. People can not afford to dress in rubber suits and carry a lightning rod.

In order to keep Mr. Bryan out of the state the democratic committee in Ohio has decided that no speakers from the outside be invited during the present canvass. Mr. Bryan, like Mr. Cleveland, is now persona non grata with the democratic party. That organization is rough on its leaders.

The editor of the Shaniko Leader recently ripped his Moro correspondent up the back for misspelling "sauerkraut." The correspondent, who is a native-born Milesian, gets back at his chief by asking: "How the d—! do you expect an Irishman to spell in Dutch."

Portland, Aug. 10.—(To the Editor).—Homer de Morrison, occultist, located by vision the bull lion stolen from the Selby Smelting Works. MRS. FRANCIS PARTLOW.

"It is pleasing to be assured that the gold stolen from the Selby Smelting Works was located by vision" by a Portland occultist. This proves that the story of the confession of the thief and that his assistance was required in recovering the gold was a base California invention for the purpose of depriving Oregon of just glory.—(Editor Portland Oregonian.)
