TREASURER'S NOTICE.

All Wasco County warrants registered prior to December 3, 1898, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest runs after September 13, 1901. JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE, County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

A thoroughly competent girl wanted to do general housework. Apply at this office. 25-28

L. L. Van Nordwick, the barber, has purchased a small band of Angora goats, which he has sent out to his ranch five miles this side of Mosier.

M. T. Nolan has for sale a few copies of the new Oregonian hand book, which he is selling at ten cents a copy. This is the most convenient and valuable compendium of Oregon statistics in print at any price. 25-26-28

The Shaniko paper says: "Rev. O. H. Lake, rector of the Episcopalian church in The Dalles, was in Moro this week, and conducted services in the Presbyterian church on Monday night. The church was crowded with an appreciative congregation."

An immense run of sardines is reported in the lower river during the past few days, and fishermen with small-mesh seines have been catching all they could dispose of at a single haul. Tom-cods also continue plentiful, and many people are making good wages catching them.

The Modern Woodmen of America will give a free entertainment here on the evening of Nov. 4th, at which a lecture on Woodcraft will be given by Hon. L. W. Byron. J. W. Simmons, state deputy, and Dr. Hamilton Meade, head physician, will be present and take part in the entertainment. Full particulars will be given later on.

Fred Van Norden, George Bunn and Andy Urquhart returned home last night from an eight days' hunting and fishing trip on the head waters of Hood river. They report having enjoyed themselves immensely, and while they failed to bag any large game, they had all the grouse and fish they could eat, and more too. Fred killed a martin, whose unusually large and fine felt he has sent to a Portland furrier to have tanned and made up into a box for Mrs. Van Norden.

J. Waggoner, manager of the Oregon Lecture Bureau, is here booking a lecture course consisting of four lectures and one electric display. The benefits arising therefrom go to the public school library. Judging from the many favorable press comments in various places where the attractions have already appeared, either one is well worth the price asked for the season ticket by the management of the high school. It is to be hoped the people of The Dalles will give the course a liberal support. Tickets for the entire course are only a dollar or twenty cents a night. For a single lecture the price will be fifty cents.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon an inquiry at The Dalles Hospital elicited the pleasing news that Mr. W. W. Williams, who underwent a most critical surgical operation Wednesday afternoon for constriction of the bowels, was holding his own and, if anything, improving. For the first time since the operation the patient this afternoon partook of a little food. The operation, as stated at the time, was a last resort, and scarcely any hope was entertained of the patient's ultimate recovery. As matters are at this writing his physicians are beginning to have a little hope that their previous expectations may be disappointed.

"Isn't it too bad," said a modest little maiden this morning to M. Z. Dannel, as she passed him while he stood in front of his drug store and Mr. McArthur, the big seven-foot electrician, struggled on the other side the street with the problem of raising a 400-pound transformer to the top of a pole—"Isn't it too bad that the Wasco Warehouse Electric Light Company don't want Mr. McArthur any longer?" "I hadn't heard a word of it. What's the matter with him?" asked the drug store man in astonishment. "O, they say he's long enough already," said the little maiden in mock solemnity as she pursued her way, and Martin hunted the newspaper fiend and set up the cigars.

If there is a health officer in town THE CHRONICLE would suggest that he take a walk through the alley of the block bounded by Second and Third and Court and Washington. Please take some smelling salts along, or if you cannot afford the salts, hold your nose tight and go through the alley on a run. And when you have got through you will probably wonder why we haven't more victims of contagious disease. Now let nobody get his back up because THE CHRONICLE calls attention to a nuisance that smells to heaven. The writer doesn't know who is to blame, doesn't want to know and doesn't care. He only knows that part of the alley is in a most foul condition and that it ought to be cleaned.

"Herrmann the Great" is a good deal greater at long range than at short. He had a good house last night, at a mighty good price, and while he performed two or three very clever tricks, some of them—most of them in fact—were raw and clumsy. The very best trick was the first, that of having cards spring from a pack at his command while he stood at a distance and had no apparent connection. Next came the clock trick, in which the hands of a clock set in a glass dial when twirled by the operator were made to stop at any hour he named. But the fishing trick, Noah's ark, the Turkish chair trick, the bottle trick and some others were performed so clumsily that they spoiled all the rest of the performance. Herrmann will never get any of last night's play-goers to give a dollar to see him again.

Chips From Hood River Glacier.

M. P. Icenberg brings in from his place at Belmont the potatoes that take the bun, two of them weighing 2½ pounds each, down weight.

E. E. Savage is still a very sick man. But he is being carefully looked after by his physicians and good nurses and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Judd S. Fish, Thad Seufert, Richard Gorman and S. L. Cluse came to Mount Hood last Saturday for an outing. They were much surprised to find it did not rain while Judd Fish was here.

Last Thursday evening while Rev. Frank Spanning and wife were at prayer meeting, the children were left at home in charge of their boy Rollin. Rollin heard a commotion in the chicken pen and went out to see what was wrong. As he looked into the chicken house he was seized by a man, choked and thrown into the chicken house and the door locked on him on the outside. The boy stayed in the chicken house till his father came home and released him. There seems to be a bad lot of bobos in this vicinity lately. Every loafer that cannot give a good account of himself should be made to move on.

Another Oregon Pioneer Gone.

Martha, the beloved wife of George B. Snipes, died yesterday, October 24, 1901, at her home just west of town, of typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of about ten days. The deceased was a native of Kentucky, where she was born February 23, 1835. Her maiden name was Imbler, and with her parents she crossed the plains by ox team, arriving in The Dalles in 1853. Mr. Snipes was one of the party, as was the Luce family, which settled subsequently in the John Day country, and on September 18th, shortly after their arrival here the young couple were united in marriage by Rev. H. K. Hines. Theirs was the second marriage celebrated in Oregon, east of the Cascade mountains, that of a Frenchman named De Buchaller and a Miss Tomkins being the first. Fourteen children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Snipes. One son died in infancy, one was drowned in the Columbia river and one was killed in Yakima county by a fall from a horse. Of the eleven surviving children seven are residents of Wasco county. These are Leicester, James, Henry, Charles, Fred, Mary and Mrs. Frances McCown. The others are Mrs. Lily Waterman, of Umatilla county, Mrs. Susie Adams, of Illinois, and Leander and Frank, of Yakima county, Washington. Mrs. Snipes was a member of the M. E. church since 1852. She was one of the very noblest of the sturdy pioneer wives and mothers who braved so many hardships and sacrificed so many comforts in the settlement of the Oregon wilderness. No woman ever stood higher in the esteem of those who knew her best for all the womanly virtues that are the ornament and glory of her sex. Among the older settlers of this community her death is regarded in the light of a bitter personal loss. The funeral will take place from the house at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 24.—The missionaries who are operating from Semakov, Bulgaria, are at last in touch with the brigands who abducted Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. Talika, according to dispatches received here today, though whether negotiations for the ransom have actually been opened is not disclosed. The missionaries on the spot are expected to conclude the business with the utmost dispatch.

Trilby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters

For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.
This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes.
It will heat your house evenly day and night.
It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each winter.
It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted.
The stove is light and easily moved and set up.
The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks.
None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill.
It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.
