Mrs. Hardwick, of Walla Walla, a former resident of The Dalles, is visiting with Mrs. M. Parkins.

Ex-Mayor E. B. Dufur is registered at the Umatilla House from Gold Hill, Jackson county, his present home.

Hon. W. H. H. and Mrs. Dufur spent last night in the city and left for their home near Dufur early this morning.

Crook County Murder Trial. PRINEVILLE, Oct. 24.—The case of the state of Oregon vs. Andrew D. Lytle, charged with murder in the first degree, was commenced here yesterday in the circuit court, Judge W. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, presiding.

On July 21st Andrew D. Lytle killed Emmett Eagan, at Derham's saw mill, on Trout Creek, in the northern part of Crook county. Lytle is married, and during his absence from home the night before the affray, Eagan, it is alleged, entered his home and criminally assaulted Mrs. Lytle. Returning home, and being told by his wife of Eagan's conduct, Lytle borrowed a revolver from a neighbor and went to the lodging-house where Eagan roomed, kicked the door open and shot him in the abdomen.

Eagan was a single man, twenty-five years old. He died fifteen hours after being shot, and left a statement declaring his innocence. Lytle came to Prineville and gave himself up to the authorities, and at his preliminary examination was held without bonds.

Nearly fifty witnesses will testify in the case, which will probably take several days.

Closing in on the Robbers.

EGGERS, Or., Oct. 24.—The men who held up the Southern Pacific train between Cottage Grove and Eugene Wednesday morning are still at large, but a man who is in close touch with the officers says it is highly probable that an arrest will be made in the next forty-eight hours. The men suspected are in Eugene, and while the country for miles about the scene of the robbery was thoroughly scoured today, a goodly number of officers remained in this city.

Two masks were found today at the point where the robber commanded Engineer Lucas to slow down. This lends color to the general that more than one man had a hand in the hold-up, although there are many who believe that it was the work of one man.
