Hart, Schaffner & Marx Tailor Made Clothes

The New English Black and White

This Season's Swellest Overcoat

It has recently been extensively advertised by the leading wholesale tailors of America who have spent much time and money in introducing it into this country. It is distinctly an English creation and is made of the dignified mourning goods, being therefore suitable for the most discriminating dressers. The care and attention given to make and finish constitute standing evidence of the really wonderful advance in the manufacture of ready-to-wear clothing.

English Great Coats, 'varsity and other styles, in all the latest fabrics, cut in the latest styles—with broad shoulders, hand padded,—hand-felled collar and hand-made button holes. An ideal business suit—one that is tailored to hold its shape and give perfect satisfaction.

No extra charges for pressing suits, overcoats or extra trousers.

Boys' Shoes

The best is hardly good enough when it comes to wear, but the way we are selling "Armored Cruisers" makes us think we have the right thing.

Every seam is sewed with four rows of silk and the bottoms are of the best oak-tanned sole-leather and are driven full of steel circlelets.

SHORT $57,000

Maccabees' Supreme Finance Keeper, Charles Thompson, Writes Supreme Commander Markey, Confessing an Enormous Shortage in His Accounts.

PORT HURON, Mich., Nov. 7.—Charles B. Thompson, of this city, supreme finance keeper of the supreme tent, Knights of the Maccabees, is a self-confessed defaulter in the sum of $57,000. The order, however, is protected from loss by Thompson's surety bond.

The shortage is acknowledged in the following letter to D. P. Markey, supreme commander of the order:

"Dear Sir: It is with a feeling of distress and shame that I tender herewith my resignation as supreme finance keeper of the order of which you are the head. And this step is taken with a bitter realization that I am no longer worthy the companionship and association of my fellow officers. I have held the position since the order was founded; have, during most of that time, been officially associated with the present supreme officers and never until now did I in any way betray my trust. I was engaged in a legitimate business venture in which I had made large investments and found myself in a position where further money was necessary to save myself from bankruptcy and ruin. There was apparently no chance for loss. I then betrayed my trust and used the funds of the order, at the time believing there was no question of my ability to replace them within a short time. The amount I used was $57,000. I have no hope of being able to repay this amount.

"I know the order is protected from loss by the surety bond of nearly twice the amount in a perfectly responsible company, but this does not lessen my mental suffering, nor relieve me from the disgrace of having betrayed the confidence reposed in me. Nothing that may occur can increase the tortures which I have suffered and am still suffering. I can only await such action as may be taken and abide the consequences. No punishment can be greater and no suffering so intense as that resulting from the loss of the respect and esteem of the membership of the order and the suffering necessarily caused to the family.

Downfall of Croker.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—In commenting upon the election, the Times today says: One of the results of the election will be the immediate attempt of the democratic anti-Tammany forces to rehabilitate the party in this section. To bring this about ex-Senator Jacob E. Cantor, president-elect of the Borough of Manhattan, favors, if necessary, the revocation of the charter of the Tammany Society. The Greater New York democracy proposes to undertake the reorganization of the democratic party here and to make the effort forthwith to secure, to the exclusion of Tammany, recognition of the state and national committees. The first steps in this movement will be taken at a meeting to be held tomorrow night, which will be attended by representatives of all democratic bodies opposed to Tammany Hall.

John McCullagh, superintendent of state elections, asserts that in spite of all the precautions taken to prevent violations of the election laws and all the work done by the bureau, he believed that at least 10,000 illegal votes had been cast in this city on Tuesday.

Feared a Tidal Wave.

WOODS, Tillamook county, Nov. 7.—A local weather prophet of some considerable honor here in Tillamook predicted a great tidal wave for last Sunday. The wave was to sweep over the strip of low coast land and wash against the mountains. It would then recede, leaving ruin and desolation. A number of inhabitants took to the mountains Saturday and others got ready their wagons to depart at the first sign of an unusually high tide. Many gathered on the beach to watch the tide come in. There was no indication of anything unusual, and when the tide was full and began to recede the people saw the ridiculousness of the situation. Those persons who were on "camping trips" to the mountains returned Monday looking somewhat sheepish.

Kruger Talks for War.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—According to the London correspondent of the Tribune, a Johannesburg financial house has just had a remarkable chat with ex-President Kruger about South African prospects. The ex-president's talk was all of arbitration, which he declared to be the only satisfactory way of ending the war. Asked what he would do if arbitration was offered to the Boers, he replied that such a thing was impossible.

"It could not happen, but, assuming for the moment that it might," he added, "we should take up arms if arbitration went against us. We would never suffer the results of arbitration, if those results were unjust and wrong."

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boecher's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Blakely's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.
