L. L. Van Nortwick has leased the Umatilla House barber shop and is again back in the stand he occupied acceptably for about two years.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Tony Jackson, formerly switchman at The Dalles, will confer a favor by addressing A. Jackson, Box 216, Centralia, Wash. 7n-21daw

Judge Mays is slightly lame from the effects of the kick of an animal he was assisting to brand yesterday at the Tygh valley ranch. The blow was received on the knee, and while very painful, happily no bones were broken.

A. M. Williams & Co. have just received their fall shipment of ladies' felt Romeos, Julietts and slippers for house wear. Come early while the assortment is complete, for such values and color combinations are rarely seen.

The city authorities are having a stone foundation built under the fire engine house. This became necessary because of the decayed condition of the sills and the settling of the building so that it was impossible to close the front doors.

Tieman Hall, Hood River lodge No. 105, A. F. and A. M., will be dedicated next Monday evening by the officers of the grand lodge. A large delegation is expected to go down from here. After the dedicatory exercises a banquet will be spread at the hotel.

A meteoric shower of shooting stars, said to equal the renowned showers of 1799, 1833 and 1867, is billed to appear in this latitude next Sunday night, November 17th. If such a shower falls as predicted it will be something of more than ordinary interest to witness.

Parties who obtained blue ribbons at the late district fair are again reminded that the warrants for the premiums awarded have all been drawn and placed in the hands of J. C. Hostetler, cashier of French & Co.'s bank, for distribution. Mr. Hostetler would be very much pleased if the owners of these warrants would call at the bank and get them.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Thornbury invited a party of lady friends to a 5 o'clock tea in honor of the presence in the city of Mrs. Grace Dexter, nee Crossen. Those present were Mrs. N. B. Sinnott, Mrs. N. J. Sinnott, Mrs. J. S. Fish, Mrs. J. B. Crossen, Mrs. Charles Dexter, Mrs. Hugh Logan, Mrs. Carlyle, of St. Louis, Mrs. T. J. Benfert and Mrs. Orion Kinerly.

Elwood Chenoweth, an insane person, escaped from D. Y. K. Deering, sheriff of Umatilla county, at an early hour Wednesday morning, and has not been re-captured. The sheriff had Chenoweth and a criminal in charge, one for the asylum, the other for the penitentiary. The train made a stop at Nolla, twenty miles west of Pendleton, and Chenoweth embraced the opportunity to make his escape by jumping through the window of the toilet room. Chenoweth is well dressed and aged about 30 years.

J. A. Roushew, representing the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Oregon, is in the city in the interest of contributions to the society, in view of the approaching winter. Mr. Roushew will be at the court house in this city on the 25th to 29th instant to receive any donations in money, clothing, fruits or vegetables that the people of this neighborhood may feel disposed to contribute to this most worthy of all objects.

R. R. Hinton, of Bakeoven, purchased of the Gilman & French Livestock Co. 206 head of yearling heifers of the Short-horn and Hereford breeds, which were delivered Sunday. The entire bunch were fine, large, healthy-looking animals. The price paid was $18 per head, delivered at Shaniko. Mr. Hinton has also purchased four fine Shorthorn bulls from the famous breeding farm at Frankfort, Ind., which are due to arrive here some time this week. Dick is now one of the principal sheep-owners in Wasco county, and with this purchase of cattle added to those he already possesses he will be in the front ranks as a cattle owner for this section of Oregon.—Shaniko Leader.

Lots of fun Monday night when the far-famed Hi Henry's big city aggregation of minstrel and vaudeville stars held forth at the Vogt opera house. Their premier comedian, Billy Clark, is a phenomenal hit. Probet, the human wonder, imitator of song birds, Viola Abt, the little dancing beauty, Harey & Cooley, Cook & Hall, Corrigan & Dove, the Pan-American views, Hi Henry's cornet solos, the wonderful Brothers Bard, special engagement of the modern Hercules, Prof. Morros, considered the strongest man (of his weight) living. Among the incredible feats which he performs is that of lifting a chair with his teeth in which is seated Miss Stella Morris, who weighs 200 pounds, during which he performs characteristic calk-walks. This makes a bill not equalled on the minstrel stage. Don't miss the noon parade and the fine concert in front of the theater at 7 p. m.

The Glacier says that notwithstanding the verdict of suicide in the case of J. E. Rourke, who was found dead near Hood River last Sunday, there are some circumstances which would possibly indicate murder, such, for instance, as the total absence of powder marks or burns about the wound, the absence of important papers he was supposed to have on his person, and position of wound which is unnatural and would be difficult for a man of his age to accomplish. The evidence showed that he was in a desperate mood the last few days he was seen here from some unknown cause, certainly not in regard to money matters, as his father's estate, which will be settled in January, would have given him about $12,000. His relatives have been communicated with and the body is being held in S. E. Barntess' undertaking rooms pending instructions from them.

The fourteenth anniversary of the marriage of Judge A. S. and Mrs. Bennett occurred yesterday and in honor of the event a party of about thirty friends and neighbors was invited to spend the evening at the family residence on Fourth street. The evening was largely devoted to progressive whist, followed by an elegant refection. The judge and Mrs. Bennett are royal entertainers, and it goes without saying that a delightful time was had. The honors of the whist game fell to the lot of Mrs. J. A. Geisendorfer, and the consolation to Mrs. Hostetler. The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. M. Z. Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Norden, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Benfert, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hostetler, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. French, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peters, Dr. and Mrs. H. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Sinnott, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kuck, Dr. and Mrs. Geisendorfer, Mrs. Rosworthy, Misses Virginia and Harriet Marden, Judge Bradshaw.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. D. McDonald, a former extensive Sherman county farmer, now of Spokane, is in the city.

Hon. E. N. Jones and wife, of Sherar's Bridge, were passengers on the delayed train this afternoon for Portland.
