Hart Schaffner & Marx Tailor Made Clothes

The New English Black and White

This Season's Swellest Overcoat

It has recently been extensively advertised by the leading wholesale tailors of America who have spent much time and money in introducing it into this country. It is distinctly an English creation and is made of the dignified mourning goods, being therefore suitable for the most discriminating dressers. The care and attention given to make and finish constitute standing evidence of the really wonderful advance in the manufacture of ready-to-wear clothing.

MUTINY OF THE PRISONERS

Twenty six Convicts Escape From the Leavenworth Prison.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 8.—Forty mounted guards are beating the country for a radius of five miles around the Federal penitentiary today in search of the twenty-six convicts who succeeded in escaping from the guards late yesterday. The country is wild and rough and affords ample opportunity for escape, and as all of the convicts are desperate men, armed conflicts will doubtless result before they are captured.

The not known result of the mutiny and the following fight with the guards was one convict killed and four guards shot or otherwise hurt, but it is believed that many of the fleeing convicts received wounds more or less serious from the bullets sent after them by pursuing guards.

The dead man is Quinn Fort, a desperate criminal from the Indian Territory, who is believed to have been the ringleader of the break.

It develops that the mutiny was hatched several months ago, but that the men never found a favorable opportunity to carry it into effect until yesterday. The general plan was not new, but it proved effective, because of the limited number of guards. As the better behaved prisoners are used in the outside work, the conspiracy was hatched among the men in the inside gangs. The convicts chose the most favorable moment of the day, while many of the guards acting as foreman of construction of the new cell house were unarmed.

As soon as the alarm was given, guards were formed in marching order and mounted men armed to the teeth, were drawn up in front of the main entrance of the prison. Most of the guards were old plainmen and the diversion of hunting down criminals stirred their blood as nothing else could have done. The escaping convicts were counted the most desperate criminals in the Southwest, and the guards started out on their hunt in full realization of this fact. The scene of the mutiny, however, being some distance from the prison proper, the convicts had secured a good start, and aided by the rough, wooded country, they had, before darkness fell, placed a good gap between themselves and their pursuers. The guards, at best, could make but a desultory attempt at pursuit, and were compelled to wait daylight to take up the search.

Turkey Yields to the Demands of France.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—France has scored a complete triumph in the Turkish dispute. An official note was issued at 1 p. m., today to the effect that the Porte had decided to yield to all the demands of France, and that as soon as the sultan has issued and ratified the decision, the French squadron will leave Mitylene. This may be done within the next twenty-four hours, or it is expected at the latest in two or three days.

President Loubet presided today at the cabinet council.

The foreign minister, M. Delcasse, announced that the Porte had just advised him that it had decided to give satisfaction to the French demands to which M. Delcasse replied that as soon as the sultan's order regarding the Porte's decision was communicated to him Admiral Cuillier's squadron would leave the island of Mitylene.

The Temps prints a dispatch from Constantinople today which says that the sultan, in accepting the French demands, firstly authorized the working of the French schools hitherto unrecognized; secondly, recognizes officially the existence of the religious and hospitable institutions already founded and accords them customs immunity and exemption from certain taxes, and thirdly he authorizes the reconstruction of the schools and hospitable institutions destroyed at the time of the Armenian troubles, of which a detailed list is attached to the French note.

Tewfik, the Turkish foreign minister, has announced that the recognition of the Chaldean patriarch, demanded by France, already has been accorded.

James Callahan Acquitted.

OMAHA, Nov. 8.—The jury in the case of James Callahan, after being out thirty-six hours, brought in a verdict at 10 o'clock tonight, finding the defendant not guilty and the prisoner was discharged. This is the last echo of the Cudaby kidnaping case, and Callahan is acquitted of the kidnaping charge. It was said tonight that there is little to prevent Pat Crowe from coming to Omaha. The evidence on which Callahan has been tried would probably prevail in case of Crowe being tried on the same charge, and County Attorney Shields tonight gave it as his opinion that Crowe would now return.
