

Charles W. Fulton, state senator from Clatsop county, again tells the people that he is not a candidate for the republican nomination for the governorship, says the East Oregonian. He made this public announcement several weeks ago, for the first time, in the East Oregonian, and now has told the Portland Oregonian that he does not aspire to be governor of Oregon. Mr. Fulton is a distinguished citizen, able and representative of the progressive elements. He occupies the unique position of standing between Astoria and Portland influences, with the hearty support of each. His views, frequently expressed, upon the relation of these two towns, are rational and statesmanlike, and it is due largely to him that a better feeling is engendered of late on the part of each toward the other. Oregon will some time, perhaps in the near future, honor the brilliant son of Astoria, and in so doing will honor herself, as commonwealths always honor themselves when they place upon the shoulders of worthy men the mantle of official authority.

President Roosevelt was, a day or so ago, the recipient of a plump 'possum, the gift of some Southerner who advised His Excellency that the animal was named "Booker Washington." The steward of the White House is now deploring the fact that the luscious tid-bit from the Sunny South did not reach Washington in season for the famous dinner lately given by the president to the accomplished namesake of the 'possum, but it is a happy circumstance that fate averted the serving of this peculiarly Southern dish at that dinner, since such a combination would have added fresh fuel to the grievance now being nurtured by our friends in Dixie.—Statesman.

The Pendleton postmaster will have served his term of four years early in the coming year, and there are six candidates in the race for the job. Their qualifications are impartially recounted in this week's Tribune and these seem to consist principally in being a Mitchellite or a Corbettite or a Simonite or in balancing on the fence as a friend of all of them, or in having a supposed pull with Congressman Moody, who is said to have the appointment of Eastern Oregon postmasters conceded to him.

Since March 1st the health authorities at Havana have employed 100 men to kill mosquitoes. During seven months up to October 1st there were five deaths from yellow fever, while the average for the same months under Spanish rule was 296. The average total number of deaths for September in Havana for ten years has been 877, but during last September was only 339. Cuba will miss the American health department that has brought about this striking change.

The unanimity with which the candidacy of H. W. Scott for United States senator is received by the democratic press of the state is very touching. They love him, presumably, for the enemies he has made.

Hi Henry's Minstrels Monday Night. Hi Henry's press agent, C. L. Mix, and fourth agent, W. X. McCollin, are now in the city making final preparations for the appearance of the big show at the Vogt opera house Monday night. They report big business all along the line this season, the big show having broken the record at every city stand. Buffalo two weeks, the longest minstrel engagement ever known; Toronto, largest August business ever known; Milwaukee, standing room and superb no-fee; Portland, turning crowds away nightly, and the longest minstrel engagement ever occurring in that city (seven nights).

Women and Jewels.
Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Blakeley's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac. 1

Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Only 50c. 5
