

DEDICATION OF TIEMAN HALL.

Members of The Dalles Lodge Attend Fifty Strong.

At 6 o'clock last evening about fifty members of Wasco Lodge, No. 15, A. F. & A. M., took passage on the steamer Reliance for Hood River, where they participated in the dedication of Tieman hall, the new Masonic quarters at that place.

Tieman Hall was built from the money left by Mr. Tieman, an old resident of upper Hood river, who at his death willed his entire estate to the Hood River lodge, No. 105. The estate amounted to about $6000, and the amount has been sufficient to erect the new hall, which his brother Masons have seen fit to name after the liberal benefactor.

The members of the grand lodge who were present for the dedication were Grand Master W. E. Grace, of Baker City, Past Grand Master Tielson, of Salem, Grand Senior Warden S. M. Moran, of Eugene, and Grand Secretary James F. Robinson, of Eugene. As some of the members of the grand lodge were not in attendance, Dr. Doane acted as grand marshal, while M. Z. Donnell was appointed grand junior warden for the occasion.

After the dedication ceremonies a splendid banquet was served by the Hood River lodge, at which the visitors were feasted royally. Dr. Brosius acted as toastmaster, while speeches were made by Messrs. Tielson, Moran, M. Z. Donnell, Rev. D. V. Poling and Dr. O. D. Doane. E. L. Smith was the life of the gathering and was ready for every emergency with his continuous outbursts of wit and his humorous retorts to all whom he found occasion to address.

The festivities did not end until the advent of the wee sma' hours, so that the Dalles members did not return home until about 4 o'clock this morning. All felt, however, that the loss of rest was only a minor affair when they considered the pleasant time they had spent with the Hood River lodge.

"Hunting for Hawkins."

If favorable comment by the press may be accepted as evidence of the merit of a theatrical attraction, "Hunting for Hawkins," which will be seen at the Vogt opera house Thursday, Nov. 14th, may be considered thoroughly first class in every particular.

Differing from the majority of farce comedies, which are usually clumsily thrown together farces, merely vehicles, as it were, for the introduction of specialties "Hunting for Hawkins" is said to contain an original and interesting plot, so cleverly constructed as to maintain the interest of the audience throughout its action. Although the play was written solely to create laughter, and does not contain one really serious line, the dialogue is said to be bright and humorous and the situations laughable in the extreme.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 25c. Sold by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist.

About twenty members of the Oregon Fish and Game Association met in the Portland Chamber of Commerce building Sunday evening. Among other things they made President Roosevelt an honorary member. The most important subject brought up at the meeting was the matter of taking some means of stopping the Indian depredations in Eastern Oregon. The secretary has received numerous letters complaining of the wholesale slaughter of deer by the Indians in this territory. The state law would apply to the Indians as well as to the white men, but owing to the United States laws, the game wardens are unable to check the hunting expeditions of the red men. The president was authorized to appoint a committee to take the matter up with some member of congress and urge him to take action at the next session of congress.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Trial bottles free.

Attractive Women.

All women sensibly desire to be attractive. Beauty is the stamp of health because it is the outward manifestation of inner purity. A healthy woman is always attractive, bright and happy. When every drop of blood in the veins is pure a beautiful flush is on the cheek. But when the blood is impure, moroseness, bad temper and a sallow complexion tells the tale of sickness all to plainly. And women today know there is no beauty without health. Wine of Cardui cures women with beauty and attractiveness by making strong and healthy those organs which make her a woman. Try Wine of Cardui, and in a month your friends will hardly know you.

Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
